Pack 175 Has Annual Banquet

The annual Blue and Gold banquet of Cub Scout Pack 175 took place last Thursday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church hall. As in previous years, the meal was enjoyed by a large turnout.

After dinner the following Den Mothers received pointed plants in recognition of their service during the past months: Den 2—Mrs. Buchanan, Den 6—Mrs. Tunc, Den 7—Mrs. Carter and Den 9—Mrs. Colombo. Fred Coffin was also thanked for his work as Webelos Den Leader.

Bill Garty will continue as Submaster for the coming year and Tom Williams will take over as Pack Committee Chairman from Bob Wheeler.

The main attraction of the evening was a demonstration of wizardry by the "Amazing Mr. Kessel." His feats of magic captivated the Cubs and their brothers and sisters.

Lights Go Out On Bridge Play

Everything was confusion at Mayfair Bridge headquarters at 3300 Middlebelt Road, when the lights went out shortly before game time, Friday night, February 5.

All were working frantically with extension cords and rearranging card tables, when the Edison man arrived to repair the damage and put them back in business.

Two sections, comprised of seventeen tables played and winners were: North-South — Howard Colby and Edna Reinhold; East-West — Victor Ross and the Sarason and Mary Lynn Sheehan and Ann Thompson.

Second Place winners were: North-South — Roy and Ruth Fruehauf, Melvin and Charlene Janke, Dave and Judy Buskirk and Fred and Blanche Canada.
