

Northville Department.

The street lights were again turned on last Saturday evening. After having been in darkness for some time Northville people can better appreciate them.

The hunters have all returned from the north. They did not have the good luck they have had heretofore.

Mrs. W. J. Becker of Detroit was a Northville visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jessie Power was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hines, in Detroit over Sunday.

The Jolly Pedro club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harger.

Miss Frances Eaton, of Dansville, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Steers.

Miss Emma Snyder was a Detroit visitor from Friday until Sunday.

The Misses Dark were in Detroit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hatton returned to Beach Park, O., Monday after a three weeks' visit with Northville and Farmington relatives.

Misses Cora and Grace Sloan, Ida Clark and Pearl Little were among the Detroit visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunning of Newmarket, Ont., is visiting Mrs. Mary Sanderson.

Geo. J. Johnson of Medina, is visiting his brother, Dr. R. M. Johnson.

Elmer Perrin is home from Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gillis spent Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Balch, in Detroit.

Mrs. Clara Gray died Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Biery, on Walnut street. She was nearly 93 years old. The funeral was held from the house Wednesday afternoon and the remains were taken to Novi for interment.

Mrs. O. Palmer fell down the stairway at the west side of the Park House Saturday night and her wrist was broken.

The K. P.'s had a very enjoyable banquet and smoker in their hall Tuesday evening.

The show in the opera house last Friday evening was fairly well attended, and Christy & Bassett proved to be good entertainers.

Mrs. Electa Morley is in a very critical condition at this writing.

Thanksgiving services were held in the Baptist church last evening. Rev. W. S. Jerome delivered the sermon.

A very delightful whist party was given by Mrs. George Stanley last week Thursday evening to a number of lady friends.

Horace Wixom and sister, Mrs. Ada Wood are moving into the Shoultz house on the Base Line.

Dr. T. H. Tuver has purchased the Jud Lanning house opposite the school house.

Burton Leavenworth and Miss Eva B. Thompson were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents.

Clarenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox took dinner with their son on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dohany and son Caspar were to visit Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Barker is visiting Elmer Stoughton at Grand Rapids this week.

Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Lockwood, and Miss Mertie McHugh visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDermott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Broughman and son Norman visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Comstock on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Br. while Cook attended the jolly Pedro club at Mr. and Mrs. Morris on Saturday evening and report a fine time.

"I'm s---," said Charlie Softleigh, with a drawling lip, "that I don't know what I shall do when I come away from college. Mother wants me to be a minister, but I have a leaning toward litrachah."

"Did you ever think of becoming an actress?" she asked cruelly.

Miss Emma Broughman was a Northville visitor on Thursday.

Mrs. John Lapham, of Detroit, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dohany on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Teagan was a Redford caller on Friday.

Mrs. Davis, of Detroit, visited her mother, Mrs. Currie, last week.

Mrs. Rose Eckler returned home Monday from a week's visit with relatives in Flint.

Mr. J. M. Cop does not improve as fast as his friends would have him.

Mrs. Mattie Cook was a Farmington caller on Tuesday.

Miss Ranis, of Redford, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Ranis.

Mr. and Mrs. Job Graham and son spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. John Grace.

Powers Station.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham are spending Thanksgiving with the latter's parents in Cleveland, Ohio.

Carl Hogle is visiting relatives in Detroit.

Miss Edythe Ringle of Novi, spent Tuesday with Mrs. T. E. Dennis.

Misses Pearl and Lila Rear spent Thursday evening with Miss Anna Lute.

Mr. B. E. Dennis, was a Detroit caller Wednesday.

Mr. O. D. Peck was a Northville visitor Wednesday.

Bert Thayer, of Chicago, is spending a few days at his parent's home.

White Lake.

F. C. Goodall spent Thanksgiving at A. J. McCall's, near Milford.

Guerdon Starkweather and Gilman Green, of Andersonville, attended church here on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doty, of South White Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Doty on Sunday.

Mrs. Leroy Jackson has returned from a visit with Saginaw friends.

The Jarrett brothers, of Jarrett Corners, and a party of friends are hunting at the lake.

Clara Mathews spent a few days this week with Grace Stockwell, of the Elizabeth Lake road.

Eliza Goodell spent Sunday with Miss Sarah Wyckoff.

Mrs. Ed Merryweather and children have returned to their home in Detroit after a several months' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fair.

At a special business meeting of the Presbyterian Church and society it was decided to retain the Rev. R. B. Smith for another year.

Novi.

Rev. Dupois is holding several meetings in the M. E. Church.

The M. E. Sunday School voted to have its Christmas tree Christmas Eve, and extend an invitation to the Baptist school.

George Taylor left for Alabama Tuesday with the intention of moving there if he is favourably impressed with the country.

The chicken pie social at the M. E. Church was a great success, realising thirteen dollars and fifty cents.

Sherman Smith left Monday for Flint, where he is delivering baggage.

The Holmes family spent Thanksgiving with the Everett family South Lyon.

Mrs. A. T. Holcomb and children spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Durrard.

A CRUEL INQUIRY.

"I'm s---," said Charlie Softleigh, with a drawling lip, "that I don't know what I shall do when I come away from college. Mother wants me to be a minister, but I have a leaning toward litrachah."

"Did you ever think of becoming an actress?" she asked cruelly.

"Punch."

Miss Emma Broughman was a Northville visitor on Thursday.

Mrs. John Lapham, of Detroit, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dohany on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Teagan was a Redford caller on Friday.

Mrs. Davis, of Detroit, visited her mother, Mrs. Currie, last week.

The Jolly Pedro club at Mr. and Mrs. Morris on Saturday evening and report a fine time.

Mr. W. J. Becker of Detroit was a Northville visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jessie Power was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hines, in Detroit over Sunday.

The Jolly Pedro club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harger.

Miss Frances Eaton, of Dansville, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Steers.

Miss Emma Snyder was a Detroit visitor from Friday until Sunday.

The Misses Dark were in Detroit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hatton returned to Beach Park, O., Monday after a three weeks' visit with Northville and Farmington relatives.

Misses Cora and Grace Sloan, Ida Clark and Pearl Little were among the Detroit visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunning of Newmarket, Ont., is visiting Mrs. Mary Sanderson.

Geo. J. Johnson of Medina, is visiting his brother, Dr. R. M. Johnson.

Elmer Perrin is home from Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gillis spent Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Balch, in Detroit.

Guerdon Starkweather and Gilman Green, of Andersonville, attended church here on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doty, of South White Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Doty on Sunday.

Mrs. Leroy Jackson has returned from a visit with Saginaw friends.

The Jarrett brothers, of Jarrett Corners, and a party of friends are hunting at the lake.

Clara Mathews spent a few days this week with Grace Stockwell, of the Elizabeth Lake road.

Eliza Goodell spent Sunday with Miss Sarah Wyckoff.

Mrs. Ed Merryweather and children have returned to their home in Detroit after a several months' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fair.

At a special business meeting of the Presbyterian Church and society it was decided to retain the Rev. R. B. Smith for another year.

Novi.

Rev. Dupois is holding several meetings in the M. E. Church.

The M. E. Sunday School voted to have its Christmas tree Christmas Eve, and extend an invitation to the Baptist school.

George Taylor left for Alabama Tuesday with the intention of moving there if he is favourably impressed with the country.

The chicken pie social at the M. E. Church was a great success, realising thirteen dollars and fifty cents.

Sherman Smith left Monday for Flint, where he is delivering baggage.

The Holmes family spent Thanksgiving with the Everett family South Lyon.

Mrs. A. T. Holcomb and children spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Durrard.

Clarenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox took dinner with their son on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dohany and son Caspar were to visit Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Barker is visiting Elmer Stoughton at Grand Rapids this week.

Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Lockwood, and Miss Mertie McHugh visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDermott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Br. while Cook attended the jolly Pedro club at Mr. and Mrs. Morris on Saturday evening and report a fine time.

Mr. W. J. Becker of Detroit was a Northville visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jessie Power was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hines, in Detroit over Sunday.

The Jolly Pedro club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harger.

Miss Frances Eaton, of Dansville, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Steers.

Miss Emma Snyder was a Detroit visitor from Friday until Sunday.

The Misses Dark were in Detroit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hatton returned to Beach Park, O., Monday after a three weeks' visit with Northville and Farmington relatives.

Misses Cora and Grace Sloan, Ida Clark and Pearl Little were among the Detroit visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunning of Newmarket, Ont., is visiting Mrs. Mary Sanderson.

Geo. J. Johnson of Medina, is visiting his brother, Dr. R. M. Johnson.

Elmer Perrin is home from Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gillis spent Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Balch, in Detroit.

Guerdon Starkweather and Gilman Green, of Andersonville, attended church here on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doty, of South White Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Doty on Sunday.

Mrs. Leroy Jackson has returned from a visit with Saginaw friends.

The Jarrett brothers, of Jarrett Corners, and a party of friends are hunting at the lake.

Clara Mathews spent a few days this week with Grace Stockwell, of the Elizabeth Lake road.

Eliza Goodell spent Sunday with Miss Sarah Wyckoff.

Mrs. Ed Merryweather and children have returned to their home in Detroit after a several months' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fair.

At a special business meeting of the Presbyterian Church and society it was decided to retain the Rev. R. B. Smith for another year.

Novi.

Rev. Dupois is holding several meetings in the M. E. Church.

The M. E. Sunday School voted to have its Christmas tree Christmas Eve, and extend an invitation to the Baptist school.

George Taylor left for Alabama Tuesday with the intention of moving there if he is favourably impressed with the country.

The chicken pie social at the M. E. Church was a great success, realising thirteen dollars and fifty cents.

Sherman Smith left Monday for Flint, where he is delivering baggage.

The Holmes family spent Thanksgiving with the Everett family South Lyon.

Mrs. A. T. Holcomb and children spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Durrard.

Clarenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox took dinner with their son on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dohany and son Caspar were to visit Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Barker is visiting Elmer Stoughton at Grand Rapids this week.

Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Lockwood, and Miss Mertie McHugh visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDermott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Br. while Cook attended the jolly Pedro club at Mr. and Mrs. Morris on Saturday evening and report a fine time.

Mr. W. J. Becker of Detroit was a Northville visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jessie Power was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hines, in Detroit over Sunday.

The Jolly Pedro club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harger.

Miss Frances Eaton, of Dansville, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Steers.

Miss Emma Snyder was a Detroit visitor from Friday until Sunday.

The Misses Dark were in Detroit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hatton returned to Beach Park, O., Monday after a three weeks' visit with Northville and Farmington relatives.

Misses Cora and Grace Sloan, Ida Clark and Pearl Little were among the Detroit visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunning of Newmarket, Ont., is visiting Mrs. Mary Sanderson.

Geo. J. Johnson of Medina, is visiting his brother, Dr. R. M. Johnson.

Elmer Perrin is home from Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gillis spent Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Balch, in Detroit.

Guerdon Starkweather and Gilman Green, of Andersonville, attended church here on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doty, of South White Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Doty on Sunday.

Mrs. Leroy Jackson has returned from a visit with Saginaw friends.

The Jarrett brothers, of Jarrett Corners, and a party of friends are hunting at the lake.

Clara Mathews spent a few days this week with Grace Stockwell, of the Elizabeth Lake road.

Eliza Goodell spent Sunday with Miss Sarah Wyckoff.

Mrs. Ed Merryweather and children have returned to their home in Detroit after a several months' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fair.

At a special business meeting of the Presbyterian Church and society it was decided to retain the Rev. R. B. Smith for another year.

Novi.

Rev. Dupois is holding several meetings in the M. E. Church.

The M. E. Sunday School voted to have its Christmas tree Christmas Eve, and extend an invitation to the Baptist school.

George Taylor left for Alabama Tuesday with the intention of moving there if he is favourably impressed with the country.

The chicken pie social at the M. E. Church was a great success, realising thirteen dollars and fifty cents.

Sherman Smith left Monday for Flint, where he is delivering baggage.

The Holmes family spent Thanksgiving with the Everett family South Lyon.

Mrs. A. T. Holcomb and children spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Durrard.

Clarenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox took dinner with their son on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dohany and son Caspar were to visit Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Barker is visiting Elmer Stoughton at Grand Rapids this week.

Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Lockwood, and Miss Mertie McHugh visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDermott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Br. while Cook attended the jolly Pedro club at Mr. and Mrs. Morris on Saturday evening and report a fine time.

Mr. W. J. Becker of Detroit was a Northville visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jessie Power was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hines, in Detroit over Sunday.

The Jolly Pedro club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harger.

Miss Frances Eaton, of Dansville, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Steers.

Miss Emma Snyder was a Detroit visitor from Friday until Sunday.

The Misses Dark were in Detroit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hatton returned to Beach Park, O., Monday after a three weeks' visit with Northville and Farmington relatives.

Misses Cora and Grace Sloan, Ida Clark and Pearl Little were among the Detroit visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunning of Newmarket, Ont., is visiting Mrs. Mary Sanderson.

Geo. J. Johnson of Medina, is visiting his brother, Dr. R. M. Johnson.

Elmer Perrin is home from Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gillis spent Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Balch, in Detroit.

Guerdon Starkweather and Gilman Green, of Andersonville, attended church here on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doty, of South White Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Doty on Sunday.

Mrs. Leroy Jackson has returned from a visit with Saginaw friends.

The Jarrett brothers, of Jarrett Corners, and a party of friends are hunting at the lake.

Clara Mathews spent a few days this week with Grace Stockwell, of the Elizabeth Lake road.

Eliza Goodell spent Sunday with Miss Sarah Wyckoff.

Mrs. Ed Merryweather and children have returned to their home in Detroit after a several months' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fair.

At a special business meeting of the Presbyterian Church and society it was decided to retain the Rev. R. B. Smith for another year.

Novi.

Rev. Dupois is holding several meetings in the M. E. Church.

The M. E. Sunday School voted to have its Christmas tree Christmas Eve, and extend an invitation to the Baptist school.

George Taylor left for Alabama Tuesday with the intention of moving there if he is favourably impressed with the country.

The chicken pie social at the M. E. Church was a great success, realising thirteen dollars and fifty cents.

Sherman Smith left Monday for Flint, where he is delivering baggage.

The Holmes family spent Thanksgiving with the Everett family South Lyon.

Mrs. A. T. Holcomb and children spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Durrard.

Clarenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox took dinner with their son on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dohany and son Caspar were to visit Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Barker is visiting Elmer Stoughton at Grand Rapids this week.

Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Lockwood, and Miss Mertie McHugh visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDermott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Br. while Cook attended the jolly Pedro club at Mr. and Mrs. Morris on Saturday evening and report a fine time.