

A CROSS in the grass (you can see part of it at the left of the picture) was a surprise highlight for the third annual outdoor service on the north lawn of Orchard United Methodist Church in Farmington July 29. Wendell and Steve Marvin, members of the church, used extra fertilizer to get the effect. The service featured a sermon by the Rev. Eric S. Hammar, music directed by Mrs. William Green, and instrumental ensemble accompaniment for the hymn-singing. (Evert photo)

Federal Grant Boost For Elderly Volunteers

WASHINGTON ACTION, the citizens service corps, has awarded $187,425 to Catholic Social Services of Wayne County in Detroit to start a Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP).

The grant to the private, non-profit agency at 9851 Hamilton was announced in Washington by ACTION Director Mike Balzano.

RSVP is a national program to develop significant volunteer service in local communities for men and women age 60 and over.

The one-year grant will enable the agency to start a county-wide RSVP, placing 500 senior volunteers in service the first year, and as many as 2,500 in the next five.

Established in 1957, Catholic Social Services of Wayne County is administered by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit.

The agency operates another ACTION program, a foster grandparent program, in which 154 low-income older people are working with mentally-retarded, emotionally-disturbed children and children in day care centers.

Timothy F. Ryan is the agency's executive director.

The RSVP will place volunteers with cooperating public and private social service agencies throughout the county. Senior volunteers may serve in day care centers, foster homes, libraries and museums. Volunteers also may be placed with hospitals, homes for the mentally retarded and the aged and historical societies.

This grant is a result of President Nixon's request to Congress, following the 1971 White House Conference on the Aging, to greatly expand opportunities for meaningful volunteer service for older Americans.

RSVP was started in 1969 by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and became operational in 1971 when it became part of ACTION.

RSVP is planned, organized and operated on the local level. It is developed under the auspices of an established community-service organization or agency.

Any retired person age 60 and over can become a RSVP volunteer; there are no education, income or experience requirements.

Volunteers serve in a variety of organizations, agencies and institutions such as courts, schools, libraries, day care centers, hospitals, nursing homes, scout offices, economic development agencies and other community service centers.

L. Menchaca At Graham Writing School

Lidia Menchaca, a former resident of Plymouth and now a teacher in Rock, Mich., recently attended Decision magazine's school of Christian writing at the Minneapolis headquarters of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association.

Some 200 students came from all over the nation and from several foreign countries. Each student was chosen by the editorial staff of Decision magazine on the basis of a written journalistic assignment.

The school's aim was to challenge writers to express Christian ideals through the finest possible use of the English language.

Westland Priest Plans Fall Tour Of Europe

A three-week autumn holiday tour of Europe by air has been announced by the Rev. Richard J. Dorr, pastor of St. Damian Parish, Westland.

A lifelong student of history and a skilled photographer, he is also an experienced traveler and through Europe.

Under his direction, four members will fly across the Atlantic on Oct. 8 to visit principal scenes of interest in Ireland, France, Italy, Austria, and England.

The next stop will be Lourdes, visited by over three million each year. Father Dorr and his pilgrims will join in devotions with thousands of others from all over the world.

Then over the Pyrenees and across the Mediterranean the party will fly to Italy.

"Italy has more faces than any other country in Europe," Father Dorr said.

They include those of the Roman empire and the renaissance; those of grand opera, industry, and fashion; and those of sun, lakes, and mountains.

Do You Remember?

A raincoat that needs some growing into. The lure of a mud puddle mixed with the fear of getting caught. These are some of the seemingly unimportant parts of being young that turn into warm and unforgettable memories.

They're some of the things that eventually form such qualities as sentiment and human feelings... qualities which people carry through life and which they try to reflect in every service we direct.
