

Over 100 at FHS In Intramural Cage Program

The intramural basketball program at FHS is under full steam again this year with over 100 boys divided into 12 teams. Headed up by Mr. Douglas Race, six teams play their games on Monday night and six on Tuesday. The first tilt begins at 6:30 p.m.

The action has been hot and heavy on the intramural hardwoods. The Monday night league is led by such stars as Rollie Collins, Snout Trout, Gatz Schulz, Crusher Crane, Billie, and the like. Jim Freeman is one of the guns to watch on Monday night. In the first three games he has averaged 2.6 points per game in leading the Garboons to a twin win, one loss record.

Over in the Tuesday night slot a few of the many league players are Ringer, Beanie, Dopey Perry, Musch, Mitch, Schmock, Brock, Grough, Goff, and Long Short.

One of the most feared and respected Tuesday nighters is Hurryin' Jim Harvey. He has put his height and strength resounding to good use by scoring a total of two points in three games for a 0.67 scoring average.

The intramural teams will continue their grueling schedule until the end of February. At that time All State competition will be held. The Monday night league will play the Tues nighters as a preliminary game before the big Varsity Club-Faculty basketball game.

Editor's Note: The members of each intramural team got together to vote on a name for their individual team. As has been said before: "Boys will be boys."

FHS Writers In Competition

The Annual Scholastic Writing Competition for FHS students includes a fair share of FHS entries. From the Journalism Department comes six contributions: an editorial, news story, interview, and sports story, with one entry each, and two feature stories.

The English entries come from the members of the English classes of Mrs. Karen Forrester, Mr. Lee S. Peel, and Mr. Raymond Sherples. These entries show a leaning toward short and short short stories with 10 entries in these two classes. For the poetry and light verse division, competition is at its best. Student interest is the formal essay, claiming only two entries.

Having over 33 per cent of the entries score in last year's competition, student and teacher optimism for this year is evident.

Mr. Peel, on the basis of the entries from his English and journalism classes, predicts that about 25 per cent will gain recognition of some kind or another this year. He goes so far as to state that Dick Moore, 1951 graduate of FHS, will receive an Achievement Key for his collection of "Eight Poems."

This year's entries total 27, an increase of four over last year.

'Predators and Prey' Topic Slated Here

Lee Curtis, naturalist for the Huron-Clinton Metroparks Authority, will be the guest speaker at Kenbrook Elementary School in Farmington on Monday, January 25.

Students will hear a lecture entitled "Predators and Prey."

The appointment was requested by Jack A. Cleveland, principal.

The Authority is a five-county park and parkway agency serving Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne counties. One of its key attractions is the Nature Center at Kensington Metropark, located near Milford. Other major parks in the area include Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens and Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville.

Nickel rolled into wire just 125-millions of an inch thick is used for special aerospace applications. Even at this thin gauge, the wire offers excellent resistance to corrosion and good thermal conductivity.

A BARBERSHOP QUARTET will perform Monday evening, January 18, at the Farmington Junior High School, 8 p.m. Pictured above are members of the quartet.

On January 23 the "Treble Shooters" will perform at the Annual Barbershop Show in Pontiac. The Chorus as a whole will compete in Boston next June for National honors.

Bridge Played By Early Birds

Once again, after the Christmas holidays, you will find a Farmington Duplicate Bridge Club

Club Early Birds game running on Thursday mornings at the Farmington YMCA (located on Grand River near Drake Road).

Meetings will be held at 8:30 a.m. on most of Farmington's roads. Starting time is 10 a.m. Bring a sandwich, coffee and dessert are furnished.

The "Y" provides a nursery during the bridge games. There is a small fee of 50 cents per child, plus a sack lunch. The children (2-3 years) are in care of the capable hands of Mrs. Parry.

Officers elected were: Mrs. P. O'Connor, President; Mrs. R. Harper, Vice President; Mrs. R. Williams, Secretary; and Mrs. P. Button, Treasurer.

Retiring officers were: Mrs. F. P. Spencer, President; Mrs. G. C. Colman, Vice President; and Mrs. E. Catherman, Secretary.

After the election of officers, a business meeting took place and new music was distributed.

FIRST REHEARSAL for the Jan. 8 game will be in two weeks.

Those wishing information to join the Kendallarks, a Farmington women's choral and drama group, may call Kendallarks' President, Mrs. L. O'Connor at MA 5-6001.

The Kendallarks will be rehearsing for February and March engagements and will accept engagements for the coming season. It is the hope of their Director, Mrs. G. A. Somers, that this talented group will be of further service to the community and the surrounding area. With their singing ability and individual acts they can put on a program that would delight young and old.

Hold Mayfair Bridge Night

Friday night, January 8, was Master Point night at the Mayfair Duplicate Bridge Club.

An eighteen-table session, two-round Mitchell movement game was staged.

Winners: (First Place) North-South, James Waldon and Bette Waldon, Sect. A; and Robin Perry and Gary Kane, Sect. B; (First Place) East-West, Bob and Betty Newman, Sect. A; and Hila Buelten and Margaret Busche, Sect. B.

Newcomers to the club will begin their first series game, it will last for six weeks and on the night of February 19, a trophy will be awarded to the pair having acquired the largest score. Only 4 out of 6 scores need be counted, so it will not matter if a team misses 1 or 2 events or gets two low scores. Anyone wishing to come to the games but not desiring to participate in the series competition is entirely welcome.

For further information call Edna Johnson, MA 6-6125.

Physical Education Flanders PTA Topic

"Physical Education in Our Schools" is the theme of the January 11 meeting of the Flanders PTA.

Mr. Jack Cottin, Director of Physical Education and Athletics in Farmington Public Schools, will be the speaker.

The program promises to be an interesting and informative session for both mothers and fathers.
