Township Republican Party Urges Support of Library Issue

The Farmington Township Republican Party urges the support of all citizens on the important library issue facing the voters on April 5.

Thomas R. Nolan, Director of the Republican Party for Farmington Township, issued the following statement:

"This continued support backs up the elected Republican officials of the community who voted unanimously in favor of this question at a special meeting held with representatives of the Library on February 15.

"As thinking citizens of a fast growing active community we are sure you will recognize the importance of improvements of this type. The Republican Party is proud of its record of support of many advancements in our community. Our elected Republican officials have led us on a path of

Shrine Dinner Meet April 8

The Greater Farmington Shrine Club will hold its regular monthly dinner meeting on Thursday, April 8, at the Glen Oaks Golf and Country Club, West 13 Mile Road, between Middlebelt and Orchard Lake.

This meeting will honor the Blue Lodges and all Master Masons are invited to attend. Nobles are urged to bring their Masonic friends for an evening of conviviality.

The young men of the Farmington Chapter of DeMolay will present their Initiatory Degree.

Adding to the festivities will be the attractive and talented accordionist Miss Rieta Raye. Miss Raye will play before and after dinner for listening and singing enjoyment.

All Nobles and Master Masons should make reservations, no later than 12 o'clock noon of April 5, by telephoning Farmington 478-8076. Detroit 354-0267 or Novi 349-2610. The Social Hour will start at 6:30 p.m. with dinner to follow at 7:30 p.m.

Beanstalk Play Saturday

All the kids—young and old—are invited to the live production of the fairy tale "Jack and the Beanstalk." The Wayne State Players portray the exciting characters in an hour long play on Saturday, April 3.

To make it available to all children, there will be three performances held at the Farmington Junior High Gym at 10 a.m., 1 p.m., and at 5 p.m. Tickets have been sold through the schools, but you can be assured there will also be some you can obtain at the door that day.

The Farmington PTA Council and the PTA of each school are sponsoring this project. Money from this live production will be used to furnish two $300 scholarships. One goes to a student from Farmington High and one to a North Farmington High student. So far in three years of holding this play, the Council is proud to say that seven scholarships have been awarded to deserving students. Who knows? Maybe someday your turn will come!

Local Meth Men To Attend Conf.

Saturday, April 3, the Methodist Men of the First Methodist Church of Farmington will meet at 7 a.m. at the church for coffee and donuts and then depart for Kellenburg Center (M.S.U. Campus) for lay long conferences.

There are 331 Methodist churches in the Detroit Conference and the Methodist Men of Farmington has issued a friendly challenge to all churches in the Detroit Conference to surpass the attendance make-up which has been dominated by the Michigan Conference of Methodist Men for the past few years. President Dan Guy stated that reservations are coming in faster than expected and they have an excellent chance of reaching their goal.

Kiwanis Club To Host Expert On Men's Wear

Interested persons are cordially invited to attend the Tuesday, April 6, meeting of the Farmington Kiwanis Club at Board Inn.

The meeting will be a Ladies Night and will bring to the listeners the latest information on men's fashions and fabrics, and general hints and tips on the art of dressing properly for all types of activities and events.

The speaker for the evening will be Ernest Drucker, formerly from Vienna, Austria and former head fitter of the men's department of R. H. Macy's of New York, the world's largest department store. Entitling his talk "Fashions and Fabrics in Men's Clothing," Mr. Drucker will cover the art of proper dress for 1955 and will also touch upon the fabrics used in the United States astronaut space suits. Mr. Drucker will be accompanied by his wife, Marietta, also from Vienna, Austria and a graduate of Lady Churchill's school in England.

AN ADDITIONAL treat on the program will be a short dramatic presentation by Larry Adcock and Ruth Clifton of Farmington High School who will give a brief dialogue from the coming FHS production of the Broadway musical, "Once Upon A Mattress." This musical was done recently on television by the network star, Carol Burnett.

Persons interested in attending the Kiwanis Club meeting are asked to call GR. 4-2431 for further information. Mr. Drucker is presently located on the Stephenson Building in Detroit near Cass Avenue and Grand Boulevard, and has his own custom shop.

PUT ALL YOUR cleaning supplies in a tote tray. Avoid wasting energy by going back and forth for various supplies.
