Elks Elect
New Officers

The Farmington Elks Lodge, B.P.O.E. No. 1838, held their annual election of officers meeting Wednesday evening, March 17, at the regular meeting of the Lodge. The newly elected officers will take over their duties on April 1.

Douglas T. Horst was elected exalted ruler for the year, 1965-66. He lives with his wife, Beverly, and their two children at 2333 Bramwell Street in Farmington Township. He is the Detroit Manager for American Home Magazine.

Also Elected were Douglas Snyder, Leading Knight; Harry Wenner, Loyal Knight; George Ames, Lecturing Knight; Joe Brodie, Secretary; Fred Ann, Treasurer; Al Darin, Five-Year Trustee; Don Pauwale, Tiler.

Appointed to office by the new Exalted Ruler were P.E.R. Kenneth Johnson, Chaplain; Gene Curcio, Junior Guard; and Archie Cairns, Esquire.

The Wednesday evening program also included a presentation from the Vivians Club President, Marie Curcio, to outgoing Exalted Ruler James C. Cockerman, Sr. The Vivians presented a $1,000 check to be put in the Elks building fund. A buffet was served in the Elks Clubroom for members to conclude the festivities.

Cub Scouts Earn Awards

At the regular monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 48 held on Friday evening, March 19, at Bond School on 13 Mile and Orchard Lake Road, several awards were given.

Bob Cat pins were awarded to the following boys: Terry Satterlin, Mark Vass, Chris Habsburg, Scott Frankhouse, Keith Lenden, Kevin Lucenden, Chris Brenamen, Brian Williams, Steve Kettle, Bill Kaufman, Richard Witt, Anthony Kahn, and Ken Mitchell. Mark Kalman and Mark Hales earned their Bear Badges. Steve Rindskoff was awarded his Bear Badge, one gold arrow and three silver arrows.

Steve Parker received two silver arrows on a Wolf Badge, and Danny Gluckstein a gold arrow on a Bear Badge. Bill Shaefer earned his Lion Badge, and Ken Tomlin received a one year pin.

Breaking a pinata was a highlight of the evening.

Michigan State will host about 200 of the nation's foremost teachers and students of ballet at the annual Cecchetti Council Conference on July 6-14, marking the first time the event has been held on a university campus.

Vacation Day Coming
All Farmington students, both elementary and secondary, will have a one-day vacation a week from this Friday on April 9.

The secondary teachers will attend the annual "Schoolmasters Day" in Ann Arbor. The subject matter of the conference will be in the fields of English, history, social studies, mathematics and other aspects of school curriculum.

While the secondary teachers are away, the Farmington Elementary teachers will attend an all-day workshop at North Farmington High School. The workshop will be the beginning of the in-service training program to prepare teachers.

Michigan State's new Science Lecture Series, which begins in March, will feature talks by six distinguished scholars the physical and biological approaches to the function of the brain.
