The Blue and Gold Banquet held at the First Methodist Church of Farmington for Troop 118 was a huge success and thanks go to the mother cooks, Joan Begoske, Joyce Marting, Mickey Jaska and Marge Cook. Also all the other mothers who helped and the teenagers who served the meal.

Dems To Plan Award Dinner

The Farmington Democratic Club will make plans and annual dinner at its meeting tonight (Wednesday) at the City National Bank of Farmington, Ten Mile at Orchard Lake Road.

The community awards were started by the Democratic Club this year in order to honor citizens whose work in Farmington area civic activities deserves recognition.

The Democratic meeting will discuss implementation of its unique plan to set aside a certain amount of its annual budget for contributions to worthwhile community organizations.

The meeting is open to the general public. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

THE BOYS' ORATORICAL Contest, sponsored by the Farmington Optimist Club, was held March 30 in Betsford Inn with four boys competing in the finals. The four contestants spoke on the subject, "Optimism—Spirit of Youth." The winner of this year's contest was Gerald Cixby (third from left). Runner-up to Cixby was last year's winner, Ron Schulze (fourth from left). Pictured are L. to R.) Oratorical Contest Chairman Royce Norton, Earl Laga, Gerald Cixby, Ron Schulze, Jim Williamson and Farmington Optimist Club President Robert V. Greene. Two of the contestants, Laga and Williamson, will be eligible for next year's contest since they are just 15-year-olds.

Oratorical Contest Staged By Farmington Optimist Club

The Farmington Optimist Club staged its annual Boys' Oratorical Contest March 30 in Betsford Inn with the first place trophy going to 16-year-old Gerald Cixby and runner-up honors going to last year's winner Ron Schulze, an 11th grader at Farmington High School.

A total of four contestants competed in the Farmington Optimist Club's Oratorical Contest. Both of the other contestants, Earl Laga and Jim Williamson, Jr., are 15-year-olds and will be eligible for competition again next year.

THE TOPIC for this year's Oratorical Contest was "Optimism—Spirit of Youth." Each contestant prepared an original speech and forensics coaches five minute oration on this subject.

Contestants were judged by and teachers from area schools. Serving as the judges were Judy Moser of Wallied Lake High School, Mary Ann Setina of Farmington High School and Gail Creighton of Waterford Kearsney High School. Al McGaw, President of the Farmington Kiwanis Club, served as official timer. The judges were obtained by Lloyd Smith, debate coach at Farmington High School.

Open Student Art Exhibit At Northland

The Sixth Annual Student Art Exhibit, sponsored by the Oakland Art Education Association, is now open at Northland.

Exhibited is the work of kindergarten through high school students. Art work in the exhibit was selected not on technical skill alone but because of its creative approach to the art problem.

Free to the public, the show opened April 1 in the Northland Concourse, and will run through April 10. The exhibit is open for viewing during the regular store hours. Members of the OAEA will act as hosts for the exhibit after school hours.

Teachers participating from Farmington are Robert Benjamin, Joanne R. Brown, Beverly Ellis, Moreen Liddy, Gilbert Maxwell, Jean Scott, Rosemarie Simonson and Dorothy J. Wise.

Jim Brokora To Be In D. C. Honor Guard

James M. Brokora, 28254 Kiltarian, Farmington, will be one of twenty members of Central Michigan University's ROTC drill team, the Queen's Guard, to be in Washington D.C. this weekend on April 9 — for the National Cherry Blossom Festival drill team championships.

This will mark the third straight year in which the Queen's Guard has taken part in the competition for the nation's top college drill title. Last year the squad finished 14th in the field of 50.
