

Soyster, Townsley Wedding Takes Place In Altoona, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Townsley are making their home at 32718 Grand River, Farmington, after their marriage Saturday, March 27, at the First Church of the Brethren in Altoona, Pa.

Helen Marguerite Soyster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Soyster of Altoona, Pa., became the bride of Robert F. Townsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Townsley of 22252 Valleyview Circle, Farmington, in a double ring ceremony.

Officiating at the marriage were the Rev. Raymond Bayne of Southfield Community Church, Southfield, and the Rev. Donald Fornwalt of the First Church of the Brethren, Altoona, Pa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk organza traditionally styled floor-length gown with a full Watteau chapel length train. The scooped neckline was framed with imported pearl embroidered Peau d'Ange lace. Medallions of the Peau d'Ange lace were appliqued at the waistline and on the skirt. Her headpiece was a pearl and aurora borealis braid.

Reschedule Novi B. of C.

The Novi Board of Commerce has rescheduled its annual ladies night dinner dance. President Ken Bassett said that the affair, called off February 27 because of the snow storm, has been reset for April 24.

Michael Hand Joins U.D. Exec. Committee

Farmington resident Michael J. Hand of 34247 Cass Court, has recently joined the alumni executive committee of the University of Detroit Challenge Fund, the school's $10,000,000 development program. He will be in charge of the Class of 1940.
