

Duplicate Bridge Play Results

Two Livonia women won the Easter hams at the Early Birds "Spring Special" bridge game. They were Betty Smith and Angela Walther. In addition to the hams, they earned a full master point, and became "Junior Master" bridge players. Joyce Bair, and Betty VanKanen of Detroit were also winners of full master points. Other winners receiving portions of a master point were Angie Hamilton, Walled Lake; Rene Ross, Union Lake; Millie Hollis and Virginia Melkonian, Pontiac; Betty Balard, Livonia; and Evelyn Smith, Birmingham. E.W. winners were Ann Thomson, Farmington; and Esther Christensen, Detroit. Charles Janke and Mary Lynn Sheehan, Detroit; and Donna Polins and Joan Kohn, Livonia.

The next master point game for the Early Birds is April 15. Winners for the Wednesday night game on April 7 were first place, M.S. Shirley Rogers and Audrey Rogerson, Farmington; E.W. Dennis and Ann Jones, Farmington. April 23 is the next MMP game. All bridge players are welcomed.

OLD HOMESTEAD

Eric and Helen Braun received a large thrill recently when their daughter, Linda, a college freshman, reached the finalist stage of the Miss Western Michigan University contest. This contest is a preliminary to the Miss Michigan contest. The Brauns and Linda's friend, Susan Riebe, traveled to Kalamazoo for the weekend of festivities. 5,000 people attended the ceremonies.

Timothy Cotter shared his first cake with his father, Tom, since their birthdays are so close together. His mother, Carol, has joined the newly-formed Farmington Artists' Club and will be exhibiting in their show on April 25. Gladys McMillan and Audrey Brunt have also been attending the meetings of this group.

There was a happy surprise for Laura Antczak on her tenth birthday when she discovered that a number of her friends had been invited for lunch. She had been led to believe that just one young lady was coming over to spend the night. Those who helped her celebrate were Lynn Gruenwald, Carol Morris, Suzanne Beck, Judy and Diane Verne, Lynn Babington, and Laura's five sisters.

Steve Bomb had a boy-style supper, hot dogs and all the trimmings, for his twelfth birthday after a trip to the matinee at the Civic. Bob Howe, Mark Steele, David Riebe, Dick Brown, Charlie Plovan, and Teddy Himmelsbach were in the party.

The Dulmage twins had a family celebration when they became teen, and are going to Washington D.C. with the rest of the family for Easter vacation.

tion. They will visit all the tourist sights of the Capitol, then journey on to Mt. Kisco, New York, to stay with Mary's sister and take in the World's Fair.

Scott Edwards had his second birthday cake this month, and shortly afterwards was taken on a weekend trip to see Grandpa, Dr. Frank Rutshatz, in St. Joseph, Michigan.

Gruenwalds and Antczaks have visual reminders of the Farmington Ice Age in their flattened mailboxes. Both were run over by skidding trucks.

FLOWER ARRANGING was the main topic under discussion this week by a group of Farmington people at a meeting held at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Preparation of arrangements for the fourth annual C.A. Ford Garden Forum, scheduled April 28-30 at the Henry Ford Museum, were discussed by this group at the meeting. James Fowler (left), director of education for the Museum and Village and chairman of the Garden Forum, discusses the program with Mrs. Keith Willoughby, 3298 Biddestone Rd.; Mrs. Harold F. Brown, 2293 Mayfield Rd.; Mrs. Glenn Leland, 3294 Grand River; Mrs. Kenneth Trombley, 2233 Leland Rd.; and Mrs. Joseph Ziska, 2840 Peppermill Rd. of Farmington.

Closed Good Friday 12 Noon to 3 P.M.
