Still Looking For Mattress For FHS Play
With but two weeks to go until the curtain goes up on the Farmington High School Broadway production, "Once Upon A Mattress," everything is going according to schedule, according to producer William Feucht, with the exception of one item. The Properties committee is still looking for a mattress to complete the large collection of set decoration items needed for the successful performing of this famous TV musical on Friday, April 30, and Saturday, May 1, at the Farmington Junior High School auditorium.
HEADING THE properties committee is Mrs. Miriam Hall, FHS faculty advisor, with the assistance of Mrs. George Nahstol on costumes. A committee of eight students, headed by Diane Sheridan, makes up the committee still looking for a mattress to be used in completing the colorful set designed by Mrs. Donald Nichols, and built by Mr. Guerciardo with King Cotton, as student chairman.
Heading the committee on make-up is Mrs. Forrester, faculty advisor, and Marsha Dembeck, as student chairman. Tickets and ushering are headed by faculty advisor William Feucht with student chairman Karyn Nicholson. Lighting and sound are headed by faculty advisor Donald Nichols with student chairman Doug Boliere. Publicity and communications are headed by Lajoy Smith, visit student chairman Cathy Letson.
Producer Feucht again emphasized the extension of the musical to two nights in order that the need be disappointed at not being able to obtain seats. He pointed out that tickets are going rapidly for both nights and urged all those desiring to attend, to obtain their tickets as soon as possible. Tickets may be purchased at Welsby's House of Music or any cast member.

OrchardMeth
The Holy Week schedule at Orchard Methodist Church begins with the Maundy Thursday Communion Service tomorrow evening, April 15, at 7:30 p.m. This is in remembrance of the Last Supper when Jesus instituted the sacrament of Holy Communion.
There will be Union Services with neighboring churches in the North Farmington area at Antioch Lutheran Church on Good Friday from 12 to 2 p.m. Easter Sunday morning begins at sunrise when the Senior High Youth will present the worship service at 7 a.m. The Junior High MYC will prepare Easter Breakfast at 8 a.m.
The regular Worship Services and Church School will be conducted at 9:30 and 11 a.m. All four choirs will be singing at both services.
Orchard Methodist Church is located on Farmington Road at 13 1/2 Mile Road. Rev. Frank Cozadd is the minister.

Observe Holy Week Here

Rice Meth. First Baptist St. John Luth. Antioch Luth.

Four churches will combine for traditional Good Friday services from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. at the Rice Memorial Methodist Church, on Beech Road just South of Eight Mile Road.
Churches included are the Rice Memorial Methodist Church, the Clarenceville Methodist Church, The Evangelical Covenant Church and the Southfield Community Church, which have held joint services for the last 17 years.
PASTORS SPEAKING AT the service will include Rev. Gordon Ackerman, of the Rice Memorial Methodist Church, The Rev. Edwin T. Clemens, of the Evangelical Covenant Church, The Rev. Elsie A. Johns, of the Clarenceville Methodist Church, and The Rev. Raymond Bayne, of the Southfield Community Church.
Music will be furnished by the cooperating churches.
The service will include meditations on the People around the Cross with scripture reading, prayer, and music accompanying each meditation. Worshippers may attend for any part of the time they are able.
This annual union fellowship service has been an inspiration to all who have attended, and has formed a bond between the cooperating churches.
A union Good Friday Service open to the public will be sponsored by the First Baptist and Bethel Baptist Churches of Farmington. Both the Rev. Frank Smith of Bethel Church and the Rev. Walter Ballagh of First Church will be speaking. Music appropriate to the occasion will be presented by representatives of the cooperating churches.
THE SERVICE will be held at the First Baptist Church, located at Farmington Road and Shawlwassee Street, from 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. and a warm invitation is extended to all to share in this service of worship.
The music department of First Baptist Church will present an Easter Cantata on Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The Adult Choir, under the directorship of Harold D. West, will sing John W. Peterson's inspiring Cantata, "No Greater Love."
SOLOISTS will be Esther Churella, Judith Kawa, Joyce Ray, Alan Stiehler, and Harold West. The duet will be sung by Kay West and Alan Stiehler.
Another feature of this evening of fine music will be the services of the Vocal Ensemble, a newly organized group at First Baptist, who have been well received on recent singing tours.
All local Baptist churches extend a cordial invitation to everyone to share in any services during this Easter season.

Salem United
The Salem United Church of Christ, 33424 Oakland Avenue, has announced that a Good Friday Union Service will be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m.
Ministers participating in the services are The Rev. William J. Holmes - 1st word, North Farmington Baptist Church; The Rev. Richard T. Markham - 2nd word, First Methodist Church; The Rev. Robert N. Sawyer - 3rd word, First Presbyterian Church; The Rev. Carl H. Schultz - 4th word, Salem United Church of Christ; The Rev. Robert E. Zoeller - 5th word, Lutheran Church of the Incarnation; The Rev. David R. Stone - 6th word, First Methodist Church; and The Rev. Frank A. Cozadd - 7th word, Orchard Methodist Church.
THERE WILL BE special music by Mrs. Clara Simpson, Mrs. Richard Truitt, and Mr. James Edmiston.
The Easter services to be held at Salem Church are Sunrise Service, 8 a.m.; Fellowship Breakfast, 7 a.m.; Sunday School, 9 a.m.; and Easter Worship, 10 a.m.
Communion will be served after both the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. services.
