by Marion Orol, Marge Stock and John Washburn.

St. Gerald's Guild met at the home of Pat Brunette on Birchwood and after the business meeting they enjoyed a "White Elephant Auction."

Former neighbors Bev and Stu Williamson spent a delightful evening of cards and conversation with Bobby and John Skaugen of Robinwood.

Before the Leroy Grays of Kirby left for their three week vacation in California, Joan Bambas entertained Marilyn at a Koffee Kitch.

Joan and Marilyn Reed, Ruby Rivard and LaDonna Black attended.

This trip was a belated Christmas present from Marilyn's parents and the Grays flew down and are driving back.

RICKY VANDEN HEUVEL celebrated his eighth birthday by inviting several little friends to attend the Farmington Children's Theatre production of "The Wizard of Oz."

They then returned to his house on Robinwood to roast hot dogs.

Ruth Vanden Heuvel celebrated her birthday when she and Bob attended the final and crucial Red Wing Hockey game which clinched the team's first place in the league. After the game they went to the Olympia Room and met the players and came home with all of their autographs.

Randy Dozer and Ann Carrier will also be blowing out birthday candles this week.

Shirley Smith is recuperating at St. Mary Hospital from recent surgery.

New neighbors are David and Marie Hans with children Eric, John, Gretchen and Hiede. From South Redford they have moved to Annwood.

To welcome Marie, Barb Chenot had a morning coffee break with Barb Zeld, Yvonne Leakey, Evelyn Maguire and Mary Hanbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs from West Virginia visited their son and daughter-in-law Rex and Ann Hobbs of Meadowlark.

From Lansing came Bob Robke and children Terry, Bob, Susie and Sandy. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wischmeyer, Mrs. Lester Murphy and Mrs. Douglas Barker to visit Chuck and Mary Wischmeyer of Meadowlark.

From Windsor came Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Hutter and children Kathy, Mary Sue and Matt to visit Garry and Nancy Noble of Laurelwood.

Home for spring vacation are Dave Kelsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Kelsch of Laurelwood, from Cuyahoga County College in Cleveland, Ohio; Lynn Stock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stock of Laurelwood, from Eastern Michigan; and Richard Dagnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Dagnon of Meadowlark, from Hall of the Divine Child Military Academy in Monroe, Michigan.

Longacre PTA Fair Success

Longacre's Country Fair which had to be postponed from February 27 to March 6 because of the snow storm didn't seem to affect the attendance of people. The various games and booths drew boys and girls several times in an effort to win one of the many prizes presented to the winners. The Country Store attracted a full house with its novel variety of home-made articles and baked goods. Evelyn Kreson and her talented youngsters and "Romie" the Magician gave two complete shows. Popcorn, pop and cotton candy gave the Fair a real country atmosphere.

The Fair was not only a social success but also a financial success with enough proceeds to purchase a merry-go-round for the playground and a few supplementary books for the library.

News From Briar Hill

BY JAN PATTERSON
626-6283

Bob and Joan Bunker are new neighbors on the corner of Northwick and Old Bedford. They are the former Elledge home. Bob and Joan were married on the weekend of the big snow. They are both skiing enthusiasts. They have just spent two weeks in Vail, Colorado, which is a big ski resort. The Bunkers also like other outdoor activities including sailing and swimming.

Joan is a graduate of Mercy College where she majored in sociology. She was employed by the Catholic Social Services of Wayne County as a social worker. While at Mercy College, she also studied opera for three years.

Bob, who is a Bostonian, graduated from Boston University with a degree in business administration. He spent several years with Dow International, who sent him to Stockholm, Sweden. Bob is now automotive account manager in plastics for Dow Chemical.

JACK PATTERSON HAS been appointed to an advisory committee which will set up the curriculum for the data processing technical program at Oakland Community College. This will be a two year program to prepare young people to work as systems analysts, supervisors and operators in commercial and scientific data processing installations.

The students at North Farmington High are having a "Work Day" on Saturday, May 1. The homeowners are asked to please save all kinds of odd jobs for these young people. There will be more details in a later column.

BILL AND ANN Somerville have returned from a trip to Nassau and Georgetown, Guyana. They found Guyana to be more restful and quiet than Nassau. They took a couple of sightseeing tours in the mountains.

Roger and Carol Towne went skiing at Boyne Mountain, a couple of weekends ago. This was the third time they went up there this winter but only the first time they found snow.

The Subdivision dinner-dance is coming up on April 24 at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club. Make your reservations now. Jim Holcomb has tickets available. Call Jim at MA. 6-0133. Cocktails will be served at 7:30 p.m. with the prime rib dinner at 8:30 sharp. The cost is $15 per couple.

THE MOFFITT FAMILY helped Randy celebrate his fifth birthday on April 5 with ice cream and cake.

Joe and Ann Stephan and some friends went to dinner at Carl's Chop House and then to the new Cinema Theater last Wednesday evening.

Carol and Jim Holcomb had their potluck group at their house April 3. One of the couples commutes from Toledo for the gathering.

Kaye Britton's nephew, David Connor and two of his buddies from the R.C.A.F. were visiting here a week ago last Saturday. The fellows have a one month leave to visit their families before going overseas. David is driving a station wagon to Calgary where he will spend the rest of his leave visiting his father and mother.

The couples Bowling Tournament which took place at the Merri-Bowl had several Briar Hill couples entered. The MacLeods, Adams, Neumanns, Worthingtons, Hopkins and Millers were contestants. Although the prize winners are still unknown, we do know that Betty Hopkins rolled a 209.
