High Speed Chase Nets 2

Two suspects are now being held by police and the FBI for the robbery of the National Bank of Detroit branch located at 14 Mile and Middle Belt. The robbery occurred at 2:15 p.m. yesterday when two males, one dressed as a woman, held up the branch obtaining $1,200 in bills. Units from four police departments, Farmington Hills, West Bloomfield, Southfield and Detroit, chased the subjects at speeds up to 125 miles per hour. As the suspects' car was finally forced into the underpass at the John Lodge Expressway and Myers, police shot out the back window of the car and two unidentified men were arrested. One is a police prisoner and is being held at the Oakland County Jail, the other was turned over to the FBI.

GETAWAY CAR—After units from four police departments chased two robbery suspects at speeds up to 125 miles per hour, the car crashed into the underpass at the John Lodge and Myers. Police shot out the rear window of the car and arrested two men.
