Raiders Set

May 1 WorkDay

Join the Second Annual Raider Work Day! Spring cleaning in the Farmington area will begin at 9 a.m. on Saturday, May 1. Any type of job will be tackled by N.F. workers for a donation from the employer. The car wash, which will be held on the driveway of North Farmington High, will require a $1.00 donation. All money will be given as a scholarship to a 1965 graduating senior.

The applications for this award will be made available to the senior class immediately after the work day. Citizenship and the desire for financial help will be among the qualifications of this scholarship. The recipient must be furthering his education in either a vocational school or college the following 65-66 year.

FARMINGTON'S COMPLETE PET SHOP

PETS GROOMING 474-6806 & SUPPLIES

THE NEW PET SHOP, "Pets 'N' Particulars," which will open this month next to the Plaza Veterinary Hospital on Mooney Street in the City of Farmington will feature a wide assortment of pets and grooming supplies. In addition to offering numerous services for family pets. The "Name the Pet

"Pets 'N' Particulars" Wins
Name the Pet Shop Contest

The "Name the Pet Shop Contest" winners were announced this week by Donna Bebeau who will operate the new business on Mooney Street next to the Plaza Veterinary Hospital.

A TOTAL OF THREE consolation prizes of $5 gift certificates were awarded to Cheryl Rogner of 32633 Cloverdale, Bill Crompton of 30256 Flanders Green, both of Farmington, and Ned Harrington of 20964 Luzon in Northville.

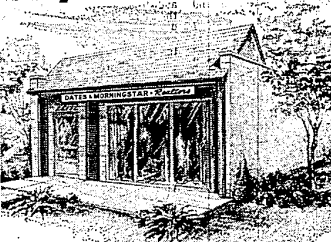

Some of the unusual entries received in the contest were "Pee-Toe Bird Pet Shop," "The John F. Kennedy Memorial Pet Shop" and "The Ring-a-Ding-a-Dog Pet Shop."

The operator of "Pets 'N' Particulars," Mrs. Bebeau, was formerly the manager of the AAA Pet Shop in the Northland Shopping Center. Working with Miss Bebeau will be Miss Carolyn Ward who also is a former employee of the Northland AAA Pet Shop.

"Pets 'N' Particulars," located at 2280 Mooney Street, directly across the street from the Farmington Plaza Shopping Center, will offer pet owners a complete line of grooming services ranging from fancy poodle haircuts to the casual summer shear job, baths, combouts and nail clipping. The shop will also feature pets for sale ranging from pettigreed breeds to parakeets, canaries, mynah birds, finches, guinea pigs, hamsters, turtles, horned toads and other seasonal reptiles.

THE SHOP WILL also feature a complete line of animal foods from packaged preparations to meal worms. The pet shop will also handle the boarding of small pets of the bird and hamster variety. A quality line of pet furnishings will also be available at the new pet shop. Plans for the Grand Opening of the new "Pets 'N' Particulars" shop will be announced later this month.
