Reading Topic Stated by PTA

Monday evening, April 28, at 7:30 p.m., the Cloverdale PTA will meet to hear the ITA approach to reading. Mrs. Mary Jo Timin, a teacher at Longwood Elementary School, will explain the Initial Teaching Alphabet which she is using with her first grade class as one of the reading research programs under the direction of Oakland County.

The Basic Reading Program which has been and is being used in the Farmington Elementary schools (except for the three research classes) will be discussed by Mrs. Martha MacKinnon, a first grade teacher at Cloverdale.

Coffin Retires As Prudential Agent

Melvin A. Coffin, veteran agent with the Prudential Insurance Company's Grandmont district office, retired April 1 after nearly 20 years of service.

He joined the company as an agent in Detroit's Grandmont district office in 1955.

A native of South Lyon, Mich., Coffin is a World War I Marine Corps veteran. He is a member of the Clarenceville Methodist Church, the Masons, and the American Legion.

He and his wife Sarah live at 22960 Frederick, in Farmington. They have one son.
