MA. 65335 The McGraths, Dick and Pat, and the other McGrath sons and daughters, gave the Senior McGraths a 50th wedding anniversary celebration last Saturday at the Detroit Golf Club. There was at least 100 attending. Of course, as many members of the family as possible were there which included a sister and cousins of the senior Mr. McGrath from Toronto, Canada, plus relatives of Mrs. McGrath from Grand Rapids and Bay City. There were also many friends. Saturday also was the day Pat's parents sailed from San Francisco on their trip to the Orient with the friends who have the same wedding anniversary date. The four of them will actually celebrate their golden wedding anniversaries June 10 in Hawaii.

BILL AND SHEILA Holden drove a week ago today, to Carbondale, Ill. to attend a journalism conference being held at the U. of Southern Illinois. Sheila didn't realize that in that comparatively short distance further south they would find such a change in weather. All the spring blooms were at their height, magnolias, forsythia, lilacs, red bud, and spring bulbs — and a temperature of 90 degrees. Sheila had taken wool suits suitable to our weather and had to rush out to buy a cotton frock; puttable to that temperature. They returned home Sunday evening.

For the second weekend in April, Sheila drove to Hillsdale College for a conference of mid-western poets.

MARY TYGHEM had a linen shower Sunday for her niece, Pat McKinnon of Toronto. There were twenty of her friends who gave her beautiful gifts. Pat's wedding date is set for May 22 in Toronto.

Saturday's clean-up day was blessed with fine weather. Three trucks and fourteen men worked to get all the trash picked up and over to the green if burnable. Everything was ready and the fire started at 4:30. The band played under Conrad's able leadership.
