Pictured above is an artist's rendering of an addition to St. John Lutheran Church, 23225 Gull Road, Farmington. The ground breaking ceremony for the addition will be held this Sunday, May 9.

St. John Lutheran Church Confirm Ten To Break Ground Sunday Young People
Sunday, May 2, was Confirmation Day for the following ten young people of St. John Lutheran Church: Sally Babbey, Jane Bernard, Nancy Cox, Arne Carlson, Jim Joseph, Laurie Lee, Lisabeth McBride, Charles Munn, Robert Schaefer, and Carol Seeburger.
Class Day was celebrated April 25, when the confirmands were formally introduced to the congregation. They will also be guests of honor at special receptions given by the Luther League, on May 9, and by the Church Council on May 16.
The congregation of the St. John Lutheran Church, 23225 Gull Road, Farmington, celebrated its Seventh Anniversary, Sunday, April 25, and approved plans for expansion as presented by the Planning Committee.
The congregation was informed of the activities and progress of the Committee by Mr. Don To, Chairman. The congregational President, Mr. Bob Williams, presented the Resolution, and it received the unanimous approval of the congregation.
The Planning Committee was pleased to be able to award the contract to a Farmington builder, Gordon Hall and Sons, a local contractor with an outstanding record of accomplishments in the area.
THE ST. JOHN LUTHERAN Church was organized and chartered in April, 1958, with forty members. Services were held in the auditorium of the Farmington Junior High School until November, 1958, when the present sanctuary was completed. Today, St. John's has 250 confirmed members, 480 baptized members, and an average Sunday Church School attendance of 140 members.
The opinion of the St. John's congregation is that this growth will continue under the inspiring leadership of their pastor, the Reverend Charles Fox.
The ceremony for the ground breaking of the addition will be held this Sunday, May 9.

Having skipped one session of biographies we continue with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Perry of 24015 Creekside Drive. They are originally from Saginaw, Mich. and moved here in November with their 2 children (Gerry & Marcia), 12. On April 20, a party was held for her on Easter in Saginaw at the home of Julie's parents. They also visited George's parents on their trip. Gerald is a Staff Service Supervisor for Michigan Bell.
Also on Creekside at 23963, we find James and Jayne Leach who are formerly of Birmingham. Jim is a District Sales Manager for Maremont Marketing Corporation. Jayne is a teller for John Hancock Mutual Insurance Co., a position she will give up soon in order to avail the joys of motherhood. Meanwhile she and Jim have undertaken an unusual hobby - they are licensed car racers at Waterford. Jim also builds sports car models and Jayne enjoys sewing.
AT 23805 BARFIELD Drive are Gerry and Sharon Slask. They celebrated their first anniversary April 25 in their home town of Benton Harbor where they enjoyed a piece of their wedding cake kept especially for the occasion. Gerry is General Manager of Detroit Screw Products and both he and Sharon are Seaabee radio enthusiasts. Sharon also likes to sew and crochet while Gerry's outside interests are hunting and fishing.
Holding down the fort at 23874 Barfield are John and Kathy Borbis and their son Matt, who is 9 months old. The Borbis have been married 2 years and moved in recently from Dearborn. John is a Sales Engineer for Rockwell Stand and Corporation. Kathy was Home Economics teacher in Taylor Township and will continue teaching when Matt is a little older. John is also extremely active as a Boy Scout Leader.
ANOTHER couple who have been in our subdivision only a short time are Elizabeth and Robert Guay. They have two girls, Joan 9 and Karen who were born on March 10. The Guays are formerly from Redford Township and Elizabeth is formerly from Germany. She has called the U.S. her home for 10 years. Robert is a die maker for Pontiac Motors and enjoys golfing, fishing and loves to play pool.
