MARY WISCHMEYER

476-5563

Leaving the Meadows for points North, East, South and West were Bill and Joan Smith going north to Higgins Lake for the house warming of a new cottage just finished by former neighbors, Jack and Mary Ann Eckerly.

To the east went Sandy Inch as one of the chaperones for 223 students of the annual Redford High Washington-New York trip. Sandy spent 2 days in Washington and 5 days in New York touring the World's Fair for two days.

FLYING TO Bynghamton, N.Y. were Norm and Randy Skeirik to visit Norm's parents, John and Bobby Skaggs, and family traveled south to Columbus, Ohio, to visit friends.

Taking the western route to Minnesota were Mr. and Mrs. George Uxa and Mrs. N. Sanders to visit the Uxa's daughter and son-in-law and grandson.

Meeting at Gretchen Ford's home on Robinson was Bridge Club No. 2. Prize winners were Joan McCricker and Janet Strong while members included Joan Friedman, Kay King, Arlene Strane, Nan Held and subbing for Marilyn Gray was Eileen Coe.

HONORING Stephanie Burns

who is retiring as Brownie Leader at the end of the school year the Brownie mothers co-hosted a tea, in a pink and white motif at the home of Elaine Greenberg on Lakespur. Stephanie and her assistant, Lynn Kietz, were presented with gold charm bracelets adorned with a single medallion engraved with "Brownies '65".

Stephanie and Lynn returned the honors by having a bang-up backyard cook-out for the brownies on Saturday afternoon at the Burns' home on Meadowlark with food and games galore.

ARRIVING VIA bus at Ray and Bette Willard's home on Robinson, were 35 members of their church group for the salad course of a progressive dinner.

Enjoying a lovely Smorgasbord dinner at the Thunderbird Inn was the Women's Civic Club of Farmington.

JULIE WISCHMEYER entertained 13 of her friends at a slumber birthday party in honor of Linda Sterns.

A family birthday party was held for Mike Bambas, age three years.

Celebrating his 8th birthday, Terry Black enjoyed a party with friends Danny Hamilton, Brian Majestic, Kevin Dayton, Kent Brandt, Robbie Yaegley, Rickie Vanden Heu-

Public Letterbox

To The Editor:

I think the time is long past when the people who live in Farmington Township and in the City of Farmington should give serious consideration to becoming one complete city. This 38 square mile area should have one administration, one police department, one fire department, one building department, one health department, etc.

The initial savings would be well over $300,000.00. With this money the complete city could start a long overdue road program, which the County never seems to have the funds for, a street lighting program, and a regular garbage pick-up and disposal program.

UNLESS WE MERGER, all major shopping centers and large industrial plants will consider Livonia and Southfield their outside limits. The city of Farmington has lost a great deal of retail business since the shopping malls have been built in Livonia, and this condition will no doubt get worse.

If we do weld ourselves into one complete unit, the new Municipal Building in downtown Farmington would make a real good central office and the new Township Hall on 11 Mile Road would make a real good main library.

Father Ryder Has Editorial In National Catholic Magazine

The people of St. Alexander's Church, Shilwaukee Avenue in Farmington, were given new reasons this week to be proud of their pastor, Father Joseph Ryder.

Father has been recognized in an Editorial of the National Catholic Reporter, as one of several priests throughout the nation who has been outstandingly successful in communicating the liturgical directives of the Vatican Council on the pastoral level.

IN THE WORDS of the editorial, "The key figure in the liturgical renewal is the Parish Priest.... We can suggest the names of half a dozen priests... who have been forming themselves to translate liturgical scholarship into living parish worship. One of them is Fr. Joseph Nolan of Galena, Kansas; Father Joseph Connolly of Baltimore, Fr. Frank Syzyanski of Aurora, Colo., Fr. Joseph Ryder of Farmington, Mich., Fr. James Lyons of Kansas City and Msgr. Martin Hellriegel of St. Louis.

"These men and others like them are among the greatest assets the Church in this country possess because they have the priestly skill to communicate."

The people of St. Alexander's are preparing to celebrate the 4th Anniversary of the Parish in June. They look forward to a promise-filled future.
