Home In Old Homestead

BY SHIRLEY BERGER

GR. 6-3308

Bowling awards were presented to some of the Early

Birds at their luncheon a week ago. This group consists of women's teams from Old Homestead and surrounding areas who bowl every Thursday morning from September to May. Old Homestead girls captured third place, a tie for fifth and sixth, and last place this year.

The Twisters, composed of Irene Barth, Pat Switzer, Regina Garner, and Ann Oddo ranked third; Irene also tied for second high game with a 215 and second high series with a 56.

ANN FRANKLIN, Mariellen Greenbury, Rose Gruenwald, and Jean McIntosh, the Four Stars, shared prize money in a tie for fifth and sixth place. Last place champs were the Odd Balls, Doris Frederick, Jeanne Lee, Gloria Wabington, and Nancy McFall.

Newcomers to the subdivision and mothers who will finally enter the last little chick off to kindergarten are cordially invited to sign up for the fall.

RAY AND SIS Campbell were the proud, beaming grandparents when Donna's baby, Patricia Ann, was baptized Sunday, May 16, at the First Methodist Church. The parents of Donna's husband, Michael Martilla, who are Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Martilla, were able to attend as were both of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chalmers and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Martilla. Godparents were Lee Martilla and Pam Campbell. After the ceremony, a dinner was held at the new Whitmore Lake residence of the baby's parents.

Some of the Old Homestead adults have expressed concern about the number of dogs running freely about the neighborhood. Particularly since one small child was nipped by a roving collie. Fortunately, it was possible to ascertain that the dog in question had received a rabies shot and the youngster did not have to go through the painful series herself. Incidentally, if your dog is picked up by the police dog catcher, it is necessary to pay a fee to get him back. All in all, it is much better to exercise a reasonable amount of neighborly consideration.

Larry Adecock would like his neighbors to know that should some FBI agents come playing them with questions about him, it is not because he's in trouble. Larry is applying for a government job which requires careful screening of its applicants.

Jimmy Weldon recently won a junior boys' archery medal from the Detroit Archery Club. All of the Weldons except Betty, who may join them in self-defense, are now wielders of the bow and arrow.

GEORGE AND GLORIA Howes had an anniversary last week and shared a party with her brother and his wife who were also observing theirs. The party was held at the home of friends. Gloria and George planned their first big barbecue of the year for about twenty guests for the holiday weekend.

Joan and Jack Primeau went night-clubbing with Ed and Rosemarie Richardson in observance of the Primeaus' tenth anniversary. Joan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Webb, of Cleveland came for a visit. Memorial Day weekend.

BOTH SETS of grandparents helped Brad Shobe celebrate his eighth birthday. Al's parents showed slides of a recent trip to the Scandinavian countries. Also, there was a novel scavenger hunt and cook-out for the neighborhood gang. Attending were Barbie North, Ricky Bonifard, Charlie Spooner, Kenny Angle, Kim Oddo, Robin Brack, Linda and Johnny Christie, John Primeau and Brad's two sisters.

Vicki Edwards invited Mark Greenbury, Cathy Cotter, Tommy Doyle, her cousin Carol Plet and brother Scott to take part in her fourth birthday party.

There will be a backyard brunch at Morgans on June 10, from 10 a.m. till noon for ladies of Old Homestead and their preschoolers. If you can attend, call Betty Weldon at GR. 6-2276 or Ann Oddo at GR. 4-9068.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Zingaro of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Teresa Ann, to James Joseph Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Ferguson of Detroit. The couple are both employees of the Fisher Body Division of General Motors. The Nuptial Mass will take place at St. Raymond's Catholic Church, Detroit, on October 9, 1965.

Col. Hagerman Takes Course

Army National Guard Lt. Col. Russell A. Hagerman, of 62334 Scotland, Farmington, attended an officer refresher course at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., May 17-22.

Colonel Hagerman received instruction in applying new Army programs to his National Guard unit. The 45-year-old officer is assistant chief of staff for operations and training in the 48th Infantry Division Artillery, an Army National Guard unit in Detroit, Mich.
