Ann Perry's niece, Holly Dearing, of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive here Saturday and stay until after the 4th Ann's NYE, where we spent the night sister, Mrs. Ada Lou Dearing, will come on to spend the weekend of the 4th here and not to take Holly back home with her.

Monday we dropped in to say "hello" to Paul's sister who lives in Northampton. We then drove on to Logan Airport where we gathered the family with us for dinner before Paul's flight left at 8:30 p.m. Paul had for exam week and commencement at Country Day School. That night I went home with our daughter in Sterling, Mass. as my reunion at Wellesley is not until the 10th-13th.

Bill Wendling was married last Saturday, the 22nd, to Janet Bagley at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Detroit. Bill graduated from Ferris, where he met his bride, in '63, did his six months' reserve duty with the Marines, and is now employed by Chrysler Corporation. His parents gave the rehearsal dinner at the Botsford Inn. The reception following the wedding was held at the Detroit Boat Club. The young couple flew to Fort Lauderdale where they will honeymoon before returning to their home in Detroit.

Cindy Mainster is very busy preparing for a ballet recital to be held next week Friday. Her married sister and family will arrive from Texas in time for the recital.

Graduating this June from Wayne State University will climax thirteen years of effort for Mrs. Beatrice L. Hane, 30117 Greening in Farmington Township. She will graduate with a 3.73 grade point average and receive her Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education.

Mrs. Hane started her college career at the University of Washington in September, 1941, and was married after the first quarter of the year. FOR THE NEXT SIX YEARS Mrs. Hane accompanied her husband while employment with the Ex-Cell-O Corporation carried them throughout the United States and Canada as well as extended trips to Venezuela, Colombia, El Salvador, Alaska and Hawaii.

All during this six-year period Mrs. Hane continued her college education at the University of Washington through correspondence.

In the fall of 1958 Mr. Hane was transferred to the Detroit office, and after settling down in Farmington, Mrs. Hane immediately entered Wayne State University.

WITH TWO SHORT interruptions, Cori Lynn and Lisa Ann, five and three respectively, Mrs. Hane will finally receive her degree after 13 years of hard work.

After graduate school and after the youngest child is firmly entrenched in the primary grades, Mrs. Hane hopes to teach in the Farmington Public School District.
