ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schuler of 34731 Rhoadwood in Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Ruth, to Wayne D. Hawes. Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hawes of Adrian. The bride-elect, a graduate of Farmington High School, is presently working at Bradford Production, Inc. in Southfield. Her fiancé, a graduate of Adrian High School, is working at Bohn Aluminum and Brass in Adrian. A September wedding is being planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rasmussen announce the engagement of their daughter, Nyla Jean, to Allan Steven Arvy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arvy. Nyla is a 1963 graduate of Redford Union High School and the prospective bridegroom is a 1960 graduate of Farmington High School. The wedding will be August 28.

Home In Old Homestead

BY SHIRLEY BERGER GR. 6-3308

On Father's Day, June 20, Peggy Lynne Latimer, baby daughter of Dick and Sue, was baptized at the First Methodist Church. She wore an heirloom christening dress which had been in her family for three generations; and her God-parents were her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Wilson of Birmingham. A family dinner was held at the Latimers' following the ceremony. Sister Maureen celebrated her third birthday previous week at a special dinner with her neighbor and best friend, Tommy Humm, present for the occasion.

On Father's Day at the Berger household, a beagle puppy was added to the menage; he was the gift of Sheila, Ellen, and Buft to their dad. Every one concerned has been having a "ripping" time ever since!

OVER AT THE BRACKS, Madeline's sister, Mrs. Irene Lukes, has arrived from Canada for a visit. Both Robin and Jay had birthdays. Jay having reached the dignity of twelve years was content with a family celebration; but Robin had a party with Kim Odo, Linda Christie, Tammy Dorow, Janet Atkinson, Barbara North, Lauren Komb, and Janice Charles as guests.

At the Furlongs it was Frank's and Dorothy's anniversary, so they had a joint observance of the occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Baratta of Dearborn since theirs was the very next day. On Father's Day there was a family dinner with their son from New York in town for the weekend. Not long ago, Dorothy went to visit him in New York with her friend, Mrs. Robert Priebe, and they really did the town. They saw three Broadway plays, the Rockettes, the B.E.C. Symphony at the new Lincoln Center, the New York City Ballet at Carnegie Hall, took a boat trip around Manhattan, saw the United Nations Building, dined in Greenwich Village, dropped in at the fair for one day, and took in a fashion show - enough to leave the ordinary mortal breathless.

DOROTHY REPORTS that Marie Sylvards had a very unfortunate accident while visiting her sister in Indiana. She tripped on a throw rug, crushed a vertebra in her back, was forced to spend two weeks in the hospital, and has not yet been allowed to return to Farmington. Notes and cards from her friends can be sent c/o Mrs. Bertha Hays, Liberty, Indiana.

Kay Humm is recuperating also from minor foot surgery; she insists that she is getting along very nicely, and will soon be able to make the trips back and forth to the cottage near Lewistown that are a part of the Humms' summer schedule.

Jill Primeau received a miniature picnic table for her sixth birthday and proceeded to test it with Chris Morgan, Cindy Johnson, Linda Christie, Kathy Engle, and Rana Richardson. It lunches very well.

THE FOR SALE sign on the Reiss lawn means that Jim, Joyce and family are leaving us to move to Scottsdale, Arizona, a suburb of Phoenix. They will first make a trip to Washington, D.C. Their house has already been sold to a family with three children, so the Lyman population will remain stable.

The Babingtons decided to have their anniversary dinner at the London Chop House. Congratulations are also in order for Harry and Suzanne DeVold, John and Eleanor Oliver, Bill and Shirley Simmons and Therese and Stanley Gibbs for June anniversaries. Happy Birthdays, too, for Jack DuImage, thirteen; Valerie Craig, nine; and Brian Quaine, sixteen. Denise Hurd is spending eight weeks at Camp Chippewa up near Traverse City. Since she was there last year also, she was anticipating a summer of fun and the renewal of friendships with other campers.

REALLY "UP A TREE" - but only in fun - are members of Den 8, Cub Pack 45, after a recent picnic at the City Park. From the bottom to the top are Danny Fair, 22914 Maple; Michael Houser, 21453 Chestnut Lane; Robin Roberts, 21665 Ruth; Robert Stewart, 22619 Powers; and Carter Pavey, 22751 Hayden. Den mother, Mrs. D. A. Roberts, says there are openings in the group for new boys and anyone interested may call her at 474-1431.
