News Tidbits
MRS. H. ALLEN GR. 4-6141

Plans are progressing for the third annual Bel-Air Hills Ball which is to be held on Saturday evening, November 16, at the American Legion Hall in Farmington. The dancing will begin at 8 p.m. with the Ken Landers Orchestra playing. For tickets or information call the dance committee chairman, Tom Sullivan, at GR 4-6604.

Mrs. Robert Chesley and Mrs. James Klopffenstein, both of Farmington, are the co-chairmen of the Torch Drive in Bel-Air this year. Persons at home are urged to contribute, no matter how small the contribution, to the drive even though husbands may contribute at work. Mrs. Chesley stated that Farmington has joined in with Detroit Drive this year and that the drive will be divided into sections. Anyone who wishes to help with the drive is asked to call either Mrs. Chesley or Mrs. Klopffenstein. The Torch Drive will be conducted on the 15, 16 and 17th.

The Bel-Air Hills Sitters Exchange has a new bookkeeper, Mrs. William Schrader, bookkeeper for the past several months, has turned over her job to Mrs. John Sutherland of Leelanau. There are a couple of openings in the club; it was announced, and anyone interested in joining the Exchange is asked to contact Wilma Sutherland at GR 4-3805.

Jim Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wall of Lamar, was injured in a football and suffered a knee injury recently. As a result of the injury, Jim has his leg in a cast. Jim (who attends Catholic Central) has also been ill with bronchial pneumonia and still has a very bad cold.

CHS Homecoming Set For Friday

Reigning over homecoming activities at Clarencville High School this Friday, October 11, will be Queen Gretchen Van Camp and her court.

The court consists of Barbara Verdoni, senior; Carol Amick, junior; Maria Johnson, sophomore; and Sharon Donnelly, freshman.

Miss Van Camp will be crowned at coronation ceremonies prior to the game. After being driven about the football field in a convertible, she will be escorted to the queen's platform by James Lamb, Student Council president, and crowned by him.

Following the coronation and game, a Homecoming dance will be held in the Clarencville High School gymnasium which the queen and her court will reign over. During the dance, the Pep Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Laumann, will present a floor show, "Fifty Years in Revue."

Gretchen is a well-known senior at Clarencville and was the foreign exchange student in Germany this past summer. She has a high scholastic record and high citizenship grades. Miss Van Camp is a cheerleader, band member, and active member in most of the clubs.
