MRS. H. ALLEN

GR. 4-6141

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Sutter of 31770 Lamar Drive have a new baby son, Craig Arthur, born Monday, November 18, at the Florence Crittenton Hospital.

Craig's brother and sister, Gary and Cheryl, were waiting to greet him when he arrived home on Friday from the hospital.

Gary Littlefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Littlefield of Leelanau Road, entered St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac for a tonsilectomy Sunday, and was to remain in the hospital for two days following the operation.

Gary's main concern is that he might not be able to eat much turkey on Thanksgiving. He is 8 1/2 years old.

Sponsors of teams in the Bel-Air Hills Women's Bowling League are now donating gifts for the women who bowl the highest pins over their average. They bowl at the Farmington Lanes on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Connor of Lamar Drive met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilmer for cocktails along with eight other couples on Friday evening. Afterward the group all enjoyed an evening of square dancing at a Har-vest Hoedown in Canada.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor attended the Rosedale Park Players presentation entitled "A Guest in the House" in Rosedale Park.

The boys of Den 17, Pack 45, enjoyed presenting a "Dragne" skit last Thursday evening at the Farmington Junior High School building. Participating were Ronald Brullinger, James Jeffers, John Sewell, Dale Farrell, Terry Tooley, Tommy Mayberger, and James Bird. Danny Richardson was unable to attend due to illness.

Mrs. Ed Davis and Mrs. Sam Elliott of Broadview have heard the story of the fish that got away and now they are telling a new story on their husbands about the deer that got away.

It seems Mr. Davis and Mr. Elliott went hunting together near Brighton and were rewarded for their efforts when this huge deer walked out in front of them. But it seems as though Ed and Sam were "all shook up" with excitement and although both men shot at the deer, the gun barrels were a little shaky and the deer distastefully turned and walked away unhurt.

Denny Dulack of Leelanau returned from a very successful hunting trip last week with a nice 147 pound ten point deer which he shot near Rogers City.

Included among the hunters who returned from an unsuccessful hunting trip were Ed Melcher of Colchester who went hunting in the Upper Peninsula. There were two in Ed's party however, who did get their deer.

Wallace Foss of Bicking Court went hunting near Mio, as did Abe Frankford of Leelanau and Byron Sutherland of Beacon. Ted Muir of Leelanau hunted near West Branch and Bud Allen hunted in the Upper Peninsula, at Iron Mountain with no luck.

Gerald Keller of Leelanau is at this writing still hunting in the Upper Peninsula and Leo Bouchard has returned for a second try near Alpena.

The Altar Society meeting of Our Lady of Sorrows on Thursday evening, December 5, will include a Christmas party put on by the officers of the group, it was announced by Mrs. Mary Jo Brown, secretary. Each member is invited to bring a 50 cent gift to exchange.

An election of officers for the new year will also be held.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Pat Geerin on Lamar for a late Pinocchio game last Thursday evening were Mrs. Betty Ann Wall, Mrs. Margaret Layne, Mrs. Verna Kulbaba, Mrs. Ann Ball, Mrs. Lois Matylinski, Mrs. Joan Borchardt, Mrs. Margaret Gregory, Mrs. May Miller, Mrs. Mary Moss, Mrs. Marge Joiner, Mrs. Al Campbell was ill with the flu and unable to attend and another member of the club, Mrs. Irene Suter, was in the hospital with a new baby son.

Mrs. Anthony Jarvis of Leelanau Road was the guest of honor at a baby shower last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Richard Wolff. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bud Allen.

Guests were Mrs. Gerald Gyna, Mrs. Gabriel Nemeth, Mrs. Richard Theisen, Mrs. Abe Frankford, Mrs. Chester Siders, Mrs. Charles Carney, Mrs. Bob Baker, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Fred Foster, Mrs. Kenneth Durham, Mrs. Ralph Keeler, and Mrs. Joe Hommel.

STAMAN ACRES

Mrs. Alexander Chadwick GR. 4-6865

Keep in mind these dates for the month of December.

Thursday, December 5, is the date for the cancer pad planning meeting. The time has been shifted back to 8:20 a.m. The meeting is to be held at the home of Margaret Sivy of 32121 Staman Ct. December 11 is the date set for the Staman Stitches Christmas party. Farmington Savings and Loan Building is the place and the time is 8:30 p.m.

The hostesses for the December meeting will be Beverly Ellis, Ed Burke, Gladys Hogan, Joanne Smith, Lillian Terzano, and Judy Cleveland.

Each person attending is asked to bring a $2 unmarked gift to be exchanged later in the evening. If at all possible, it is asked that you let any of the hostesses named above know that you will be attending.

Clarence Steier of Goodrich, Michigan, passed away recently. We wish to extend our sympathy to his daughter and family, Mrs. Catherine Williams of 31789 Staman Circle Drive.

Five ladies whose names were omitted from the list of women helping at the apron booth at the recent Our Lady of Sorrows Christmas Bazaar are Alleen Turner, Joanne Smith, Millie Unks, Dee Ware, and Margaret Wheeler.

The ladies who attended the November meeting of the Staman Stitches enjoyed an evening of making Christmas decorations for their homes. Pink and turquoise have taken their place along side the traditional red and green this year.

Your reporter and family spent Sunday, November 17, at a party given in honor of Al Chadwick's parents 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Chodkiewicz were greeted by around 120 friends and relatives. A dinner was served at 6:00 p.m. There was dancing later in the evening.

Bowling records for the season reveal that women high single honors are held by: J. Lutten, 190; and E. Wilkins, 190. The leading team is Chartrousse - the Jenkins and Schuppli families.

Anyone interested in taking over writing the column is asked to contact me as soon as possible.

Through Your Cooperation the Locally - Owned Stores Of Farmington are Playing Santa Claus To You, The Taxpayers

It is the locally-owned Farmington businesses which not only join with you, the residential taxpayers, in footing the bills for our community services and expansion—but who go even further than that.

The locally-owned businesses not only pay their share of taxes, and have an entirely local payroll bringing back all that money to our area—when there are profits in locally owned businesses that money is spent for homes, for expansion, for investments—locally!

These neighbors of yours, and the men and women employed in these firms, now as always form a solid section of Farmington citizenry, readily assuming their every civic and cultural responsibility.

Do Your Christmas Shopping In Farmington

You'll find your local stores have a wide and up-to-date selection of gift merchandise, all kinds and all prices. Try these stores first—you'll save in travel expense, time, and the energy expended pushing through none-too-polite crowds.

But more than this, you'll find it often pays to buy from people you know—people who sell quality merchandise and will stand back of it, not only in original quality but in service. You'll be dealing with people who have a personal interest in you and in seeing you get satisfaction. That's a lot more satisfying than dealing with someone you don't know and perhaps can't trust—and maybe later trying to get someone to make good when there was no guarantee, or trying to get badly needed service from a fly-by-night who may be out of business next week.

Add them all up, and there are a great many reasons why it pays in dollars and in satisfaction to buy now, and all the time, from your local Farmington merchants.
