

Shiawassee PTA Plans "Song Fest"

An old tradition "Song Fest" is in store for parents attending the special meeting of the Shiawassee PTA at the Shiawassee School on Wednesday evening, December 4.

The special program planned is designed to provide an evening of fun relaxation and closer fellowship between parents and teachers at the school.

Refreshments will be served by third grade room mothers Mrs. Stuart Ruelle, Mrs. Donald Hoffer and Dolores Jackson.

Named Honor Student At Mercy College

Marcia Jane Regan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Regan, 23024 Lakeway, Farmington, was named the top honor student at Mercy College, Detroit, it was revealed today when the Dean's List was posted.

Every quarter, these students who maintain an average of 3.25 out of a possible 4.00 points — B plus or better — make the coveted "Dean's List."

Rev. Guinan to Speak at Women's Club Meeting

Guest speaker at the next regular meeting of the Farmington Woman's Club will be Reverend James B. Guinan of the Trinity Episcopal Church.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Checketts at 33306 Oakland on Wednesday afternoon, December 4, starting at 2 p.m.

Completing Work For Holiday Mart

The Woman's Society of Christian Service at First Methodist Church, Grand River at Warner, is finishing up the last few details for the "Holiday Mart" to be held Thursday, December 5.

Shopping hours will be from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. so that customers can attend to their shopping.

Since no dinner will be served, "Olive Tree Shoppe" will be open from 11:30 a.m. on for the convenience of shoppers and workers alike.

Not only W.C.S.S. members, but husbands too will be pitching in to erect and decorate the booths that will convert the Church School Auditorium into a Christmas Fantasyland. Mrs. James Ogston and her Tuesday Sewing Group promise an exceptional supply of aprons and other home-made gifts for Christmas buying.

The "no dinner served" policy this year is the result of the church construction project now on, which includes Church School classroom facilities and a new kitchen.

Mrs. Leonard Stidwell, President of the Woman's Society, reports that the profit of the "Holiday Mart" will be used for kitchen furnishings as these items are not covered by the Church Building Fund.

PTA to Have Scout Program

Mr. H. Thornton will be guest speaker at the Middlebelt - Noble PTA meeting Monday, December 2, at 8 p.m., at the Middlebelt School.

At exhibit of Boy Scout uniforms from Cub Scouts through Explorers will be shown. A first and demonstration will also be given.

The PTA is making efforts to organize a Boy Scout Troop for boys in the area. Meetings will be held at meetings at the school. This will be necessary if the Cub Scouts are to continue to meet at the school.

Edgewood PTA To Meet Dec. 5

The regular meeting of the Edgewood PTA will be held on Thursday, December 5, in the multi-purpose room at the Edgewood School starting at 8 p.m.

The regular business meeting will be followed by a social hour at which time parents will have an opportunity to become better acquainted with teachers at the school.

Children will be welcomed at the meeting along with their parents. Special cartoon movies will be shown for their entertainment and special Christmas season refreshments served.

Little Buys A Lot

A CARE Food Crusade contribution of just $1 will send 22 pounds of life-giving food to a hungry family overseas; $10 will help feed ten families or forty people for a month; $100 will deliver a ton of food to a needy hospital, orphanage or similar institution in any one of 12 free world countries. Send your contribution in any amount to CARE, Detroit 33, Michigan.

Garden Club Annual Tea Planned Dec. 2

The home of Mrs. W. J. Spicer, 29415 Farmington Road, will be the meeting place for the Annual Presidents' Tea of the Farmington Garden Club, on Monday, December 2.

Election of officers for the next year will take place at 12:30 p.m. followed by a program honoring all the Past Presidents of the club.

The club's choral group led by Mrs. Keith Willoughby will be the main feature on the program.

Mrs. Walter Cogan will be in charge of hostesses for the Tea following the program. She has asked Mrs. George Nahstolt to arrange the table. Other hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Trace Conroy, Mrs. Charles James, Mrs. Walter Gaertner, Mrs. Arthur Schaldenbrand, Mrs. Howard Warner, and Mrs. Lloyd Gullen.

Two Local Girls To Model Dresses

The Detroit Osteopathic Women's Club will culminate their annual drive for funds and dresses to aid the Ruth Alden Dress Campaign with a luncheon, and musical program at the Birmingham Country Club, Wednesday, December 4, at 12:30.

Highlighting the luncheon will be a fashion parade of Ruth Alden dresses donated by members of DOWC and modeled by the club members daughters.

Modeling dresses from Farmington will be Miss Patricia Drake of 21600 Nine Mile Road and Miss Lynn Gay Ford of 32335 Lee Lane Road.

Mrs. C. R. Arminski will provide a musical program of traditional Christmas songs with a few selections from the light opera.

Mrs. Joseph A. Walker of Lathrup, president of DOWC, will be on hand to greet members and their guests. Mrs. G. A. Gadowski, program chairman, and Mrs. L. W. Peterson are now taking reservations.

Town Club Meet Set For Dec. 5

The December meeting of the Town Club of Farmington will be held on Thursday, December 5, starting at 8 p.m. at Adams Hall in the Universal Church.

In keeping with the holiday season, the program will feature "Christmas Arrangements" by Lawrence Mayer, Farmington florist.

Hostess will be Mrs. John Hitchcock. She will be assisted by Mrs. Donald Cardwell, Mrs. Robert Wickham, Mrs. N. Donald Lee and Mrs. John Clappison.

O.E.S. No. 239 to Hold Christmas Bazaar

The Farmington Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, No. 239, will sponsor a Christmas "Bazaar" on Friday, December 6.

The bazaar will start at 10 a.m. with a variety of Christmas gifts on display to chose from. A luncheon will be served at 11:30 a.m. and a dinner at 5 p.m.

What a Welcome! What a Price!

Life is a romantic business. It is painting a picture, not doing a sum; but you have to make the romance, and it will come to the question how much fire you have in your belly?

Botsford Garden Group Elects New Officers

New officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Botsford Garden Club held recently at the home of Mrs. Mary Tucker in Farmington.

Officers elected were: Emma Carter, president; Julia Michael, first vice president; Jessie Coleman, second vice president; Margaret Mann, recording secretary; Morjorie Carter, corresponding secretary; and Anna Keller, treasurer.

Plans were also made at the meeting for the club's annual Christmas party to be held in the form of a noon luncheon at Botsford Inn on Tuesday, December 3. Members are asked to bring the Christmas or flower arrangements for display and $1 gift for display.

Reservations may be made by calling either Margaret Ward, GR 4-6831; or Emma Carter, GR 4-3832.

A regular club meeting will be held Wednesday, December 11, at the home of Mrs. Jean Wilson, at 19317 St. Francis Street, Livonia, starting at 10 a.m. Those attending are asked to bring their own materials and instructions will be given on the making of wreaths and other Christmas decorations.

Honor Student At Valparaiso U.

Lois Ruthowsky, daughter of Reverend and Mrs. Walter Ruthowsky of 20812 Kenwood, Farmington, was one of 236 students out of the 2188 at Valparaiso University this fall honored November 14 for high grade point averages earned during the spring semester, 1957.

Prof. Schwan, chairman of the faculty committee on scholarship, was the guest speaker at the convocation held in the gymnasium.

Honors are accorded freshmen for achieving a 2.0 or better average. Other classes are labeled Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Scholars for achieving 2.3, 2.4, and 2.5 averages or better respectively.

Miss Ruthowsky, a sophomore, compiled a 2.29 average out of a possible 3.00.

There is something that is much more scarce, something finer far, something rarer than ability. It is the ability to recognize ability.
