Student Learns The Hard Way

FARMINGTON Roland G. Bergeron of Farmington is among 11 seniors and graduate students in mineral processing at Michigan Technological University who received first-hand exposure this summer to the mechanics of recovering copper from ore.

They developed and carried out all aspects of the process, including grinding and concentration operations. Bergeron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Bergeron, 24335 Ridgeview Drive.

The course has been taught for the last 15 summers by Duane M. Thayer, professor of metallurgical engineering. It is a joint project of the Michigan Tech department of metallurgical engineering and the MTU Institute of Mineral Research.

Boasts Four

Four Farmington youths are members of the Blue Lake International Band that recently returned from a European tour and played in the International Music Festival Tuesday night in Muskegon.

They are David Boltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Boltz, 33921 Schulte Drive; Howard Federspill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Federspill, 20919 Robinwood; James Kurtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kurtz, 34180 Hunters Row; and Craig Roshak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Roshak, 29947 Fernhill.
