

Legion Benefit Breakfast Set

The Groves-Walker American Legion Post and its Auxiliary Unit will serve breakfast Sunday morning from 7 to 11 o'clock with gifts costing approximately $1 as the price for a breakfast.

The gifts will be wrapped by members of the auxiliary at later date and taken to the Maybury Sanitarium at Northville to be distributed for Christmas. A round 135 veterans and hospitalized there.

Farmington Legionaires hope to be able to present gifts of toilet articles, wearing apparel, cigarettes and games to about 35 of the veterans there as its part of this program as has been the policy in the past.

The general public is being invited to aid in this worthy cause this year with the gifts they bring for the breakfast so that the other 100 may also be taken care of.

Trojan Cagers Open Against Milford Friday

Clarenceville will open its 1957-58 basketball season this Friday under the guidance of new head basketball coach, Lee Kempf. Returning starters from last year's squad around which Kempf has been molding his team are: Larry Andrew, selected to the All-Suburban team last year, and Tom Wilson. Other seniors selected for the varsity this year are Cliff Wellman and Fred Campbell.

The remainder of the varsity squad will be made up of Jon Nelson, Jerry Healy and Gene Nigley. Junior, and Doug Hanaford, Merion Roberts, Ron Warren and Cliff Simons, sophomores.

Team managers are Tom Tucker and Ray Williams.

Clarenceville will meet a tough Milford team in their first game of the season this Friday with the junior varsity contest starting at 7 p.m. to be followed immediately by the varsity game.

Acts As Livonia Mayor on Mon.

Reigning over activities for the second annual Student Government Day in the City of Livonia was Clarenceville High senior James Lamb who was elected as mayor for the student group taking over offices on Monday.

Participating schools, besides Clarenceville, were Bentley and Ladywood High.

Lamb won out in competition for the position over Richard Laupitis, also of Clarenceville. President of the Student Council, Lamb is also a member of the Speech Club and past president of the Camera Club. He is also a Boy's State representative. Besides his extra-curricular activities he has maintained an outstanding academic and citizenship record in high school.

Other students from Clarenceville elected to city positions were: John Hicks, constable; and Wendy Spencer, Gretchen Vancamp, councilman.

Students elected from Bentley and Ladywood were: Beverly Spencer, city clerk; Jackie Cleary, treasurer; Leroy Faler, municipal judge; Dick Bombach, constable; Dick Staron, Nickie Rane, Eldon Dillon, Ann Conway and Julie Lupton, councilmen.

League Council Meet Set Today At Clarenceville

A Student Council meeting was held at Clarenceville High School on November 27 at which time students discussed the Wayne Oakland League Student Council meeting that is to be held today, December 5, at Clarenceville.

All foreign exchange students in the surrounding schools will be present to speak of their individual countries.

The council also discussed after school dances. The council sponsored an after school dance November 26 at a small charge. Another dance after school will take place Thursday, December 5. No charge will be made.

The A. F. S. Square Dance held on November 23 was discussed and ticket money collected.

Speech Club Has Debate: Planning Dance Friday

Members of speech club at Clarenceville High School are taking part in many extra activities.

Debate held their first debate on December 4. Members of the squad include: Cynthia Beerbaum, Carol Phillips, Wendy Spencer, Sharon Edgar, Beth Faler, and Sue Karinan.

Also taking place this week will be a dance sponsored by the Speech Club and cheerleaders. The dance will be held after the first basketball game of the season which is scheduled for December 6.

Learn to get along with people. Learn to exhibit more patience than any other man you know. Learn to respect other men's ideas and opinions. Learn to think problems through to the end. Learn to try to put yourself in the other fellow's place. Be democratic. Be loyal. Cultivate cheerfulness. WORK.

Town Club Sets Smorgasbord

The Farmington Country Club will be gaily decorated in the traditional Christmas theme on Saturday evening, December 14, for the annual Christmas Smorgasbord presented by members of the Town Club of Farmington and their husbands.

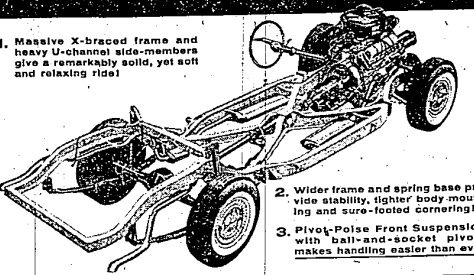

General chairman of the event, Mrs. Lee Stevens, announces that dinner will be served at 8 p.m. Mrs. Robert Miller is chairman of the food committee and Mrs. James Lawson of the ticket committee. Other committee members are Mrs. Edward Karr, Mrs. Herbert Gregg, Mrs. Donald Cardwell, Mrs. Willis Dix, Mrs. Robert Brown and Mrs. John Soney.

Each Town Club member is being asked to furnish a dish for the smorgasbord, which may be her particular culinary specialty, assuring a bountiful array of delicious food.

Dancing will be enjoyed later in the evening.
