

Eagle PTA Professor Gives Talk

Dr. Edward A. Bentele, associate professor of educational psychology at Wayne State University, was guest speaker at the Eagle School PTA meeting Monday night.

His talk was centered around the topic of the child's mental growth and development.

This was the first in a series of talks to be presented by authoritative guest speakers who will discuss various aspects of the overall program theme on "Family Living."

A musical program was presented by the Falconeans, high school choral group.

It's A Girl

Corporal and Mrs. William E. Morrow announce the birth of a baby daughter, Marilyn Denise, born November 3 at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Mrs. Morrow is the former Janet Edwards. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards of Tuck Road and paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morrow of Gladstone Street, both of Farmington.

Plan Christmas Film Program

Celebrating the Christmas season, and bringing to an end its fall film program for 1957, the Redford Branch Library, 21511 West McNichols at Grand River, will present its annual Christmas program on Tuesday evening, December 10, at 7:30 p.m.

Designed for the entire family, the program will feature films about Christmas in Sweden, Christmas trees, and Christmas stories.

The complete program for the evening will be:

"Christmas in Sweden." The preparation of food, the open air Christmas market, Christmas songs and church service in Sweden are seen and heard.

"Tree Grows For Christmas." The story of the Christmas tree in history and in legend.

"Littlest Angel." A Christmas fantasy telling of a lonely little girl's simple gift to the Christ child.

"Christmas Rhapsody." The story of a little spruce tree in a forest where a family is searching for the just right Christmas tree.

"Palle Alone in the World." A small boy dreams he is all alone in Copenhagen. He drives a fire engine, buys toys, and finally flies to the moon.

Admission is free.

Bits Of News From Kendallwood

MRS. EDWARD COVE GR. 4-0769

Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Shy of Quail Hollow Road announce the birth of a son, Steven Henry, born November 16. Steven weighed 8 pounds, 15½ ounces at birth.

The Shys also have a daughter, Vickie Lynn, who is two years old.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Shy of Detroit and maternal grandfather, Fred W. Kroll, also of Detroit.

Mr. Shy's mother is staying with her son and family for two weeks.

The next meeting of the Hill and Dale Garden Club will be held Thursday, December 12, at the Farmington Savings and Loan Association building on Ten Mile Road just west of Orchard Lake Road.

A Green Workshop will be conducted by Sarah Best of Huntington Woods. Members will have their choice of door, mantle or table centerpieces to work on, incorporating their own accessories.

Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Clarence Ekorn and Mrs. Thomas Gilling will be hostesses for the evening.

Saturday afternoon, November 30, Girl Scout Troop 387 enjoyed a roller skating party.

Several couples from Kendallwood II have been attending square dancing and folk dancing classes sponsored by the Livonia Recreation Department.

After the dance Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Battl had a get-together at their home on Kendallwood Drive.

The following couples are members of the group which meets every two weeks: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cosper, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waite, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. William DeGroot, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weertman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Betti and Mr. and Mrs. William Grinnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Towns of Thruway Brae Road gave a birthday dinner on November 22 in honor of Mrs. Towns' sister, Mrs. Richard Koch of St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. Koch and her husband and another sister, Margaret McArate, the girls' Auntie Mamie and John Matemo of Toledo were guests at the party.

A Pinochle group meet at the home of Mrs. F. Herrington Friday evening, November 23.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cypher drove here from Kokomo, Indiana, to spend Thanksgiving with their longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sandobbe of Peppermill Road.

Plan Special Botsford Garden Club Meeting

A special meeting of the Botsford Garden Club will be held Wednesday, December 11, at the home of Mrs. Jean Wilson at 18317 St. Francis Street, Livonia. The meeting will start at 10 a.m.

Special instructions will be given on the making of Christmas wreaths and other decorations. All club members attending the special meeting are asked to bring their own materials.

In an article which appeared in last week's paper, the names of the newly elected president and corresponding secretary were incorrectly spelled. The names should have been Emma Carlee and Marjorie Carlee, respectively, rather than Carter.

Barbara's GAGE

BARBARA GAGE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Gage, 28341 Westerleigh Road, is a member of the Spartan Bell Ringers at Michigan State University. A sophomore, Barbara is shown above talking over handbell technique with the group's director, Wendell Wescott (right), university carillonist and music instructor. The 10-member Bell Ringers will open their third season Dec. 8 with a performance at the M.S.U. Union and plan to make a spring vacation tour of Michigan, presenting 12 or more concerts. The group in the past has toured army camps, appeared in Washington, D.C., and over national television networks. Miss Gage, a home economics (teaching major), is a 1957 graduate of Cooley high school.

To Participate In Mercy College Choral Program

"Christmas Choral" a three day festival of choral singing, the Detroit premiere of an interpretive dance, and the Detroit debut of an original composition by Albert J. Fillmore, Detroit Institute of Arts, will be presented by Mercy College on December 13, 14 and 15.

Taking part from the Farmington area will be Mary Frances Barden of 2832 Moore Drive.

The students of Choral under the direction of Anthony Marlow, Asst. Professor of Music and former Metropolitan Opera tenor, will present the Ceremony of the Carols, by Benjamin Britten. This is a twenty minute medley of old English folk carols; the "Gloria in Excelsis" . . . arranged as a Christmas Anthem by Carlyle Duncan and a duet, "O Holy Night," sung by Mattie Crowley and Margaret McBride.

The interpretive dance, Thomas Barton's "Biography" will be performed to the music especially written for it by Albert J. Fillmore, as Victor Dail, Asst. Professor of Speech at Mercy College, narrates the movements and the Choral sings the background.

"The Christmas Choral" will be performed at matinees only beginning at 2:30. On Friday, students of Detroit High Schools will be invited; on Saturday, the performances will be held for the Sisters and on Sunday, the general public will be invited. There will be no charge.

Blue Star Mothers Plan Christmas Party, Election Of Officers

The Blue Star Mothers of Farmington held their November business meeting in the Clarenceville Fire Hall on Thursday November 21, with all elected officers present.

Following the business session the Charter was draped in honor of their Mother, Estelle Sajahalm, who passed away recently.

The Christmas party for the members of Farmington Chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. Etta Vanderburgh on Waldron, Wednesday, December 11. Each member is requested to bring a passing dish for the pot - luck luncheon and a $1.00 gift for exchange. There will also be an exchange of gifts for secret pals at this time.

All members are asked to bring a can, package or jar of food or fruit to help fill the Christmas baskets that are given to our special friends each Holiday season.

Those planning to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Vanderburgh or some other Blue Star Mother.

The December Meeting will be held Thursday December 19, at 1:00 p.m. in the Clarenceville Fire Hall. Officers will be elected at this time.

Monday, February 24, a luncheon and party will be given by the Gold Star Mothers of the Farmington Blue Star Mothers Chapter.

Breakfast Needed

A noted researcher at the College of Medicine, State University of Iowa, has found that work output decreased for people who attempt to work with no breakfast or one almost totally lacking in protein and calories. So if you want to do a better job and feel better doing it, you will include eggs and milk at breakfast relates the MSU Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Sawyer.
