Christmas Eve Service Planned At Orchard Meth.

The annual Candlelight Service of the Orchard Methodist Church, 3195 Thirteenth Mile Road one block east of Orchard Lake Road, will be held on Christmas Eve at 7:00 p.m.

The service is designed to turn the thoughts to Christ and the spiritual side of Christmas, and is planned to be particularly inspiring to the children. Those attending will receive lighted candles which will burn through the night to light the coming of the Christ Child into their homes.

The choir members participating in the cantata, "The Music of Christmas," will be William Barlow, Pamela Graham, Susan Graham, Larry Johnson, Mrs. William Langley, Carolyn Leemgraven, Mrs. James Penhale, Ruth Sakowski, Mrs. Lake Taylor, and James Wilson. The director is Mrs. Clyde Graham, and the organist, Linda Graham.

Invitations have been sent to local churches as well as to the students. Everyone will be welcome.

Universalists Give Christmas Party For Adopted Ward at Eloise Sunday

Several members of the Universalist Church of Farmington sponsored a Christmas party for a ward of mental patients at Wayne County General Hospital at Eloise on Sunday, December 15.

For the last few years the Farmington Church along with the Downtown Universalist Church, has entertained and provided gifts and refreshments for patients at this hospital. This year the Farmington Church made itself responsible for one ward (about 100 patients) and provided each one with a Christmas package containing a gift, fruit and candy donated and made up by the church members. Music and choral singing were also included in the program.

This work is also carried on during the year when members from the church visit the ward once a month furnishing cookies and entertainment. The Christmas parties, as well as the monthly visits are much appreciated by the patients, since for some of them there is no other contact with the outside world.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fierlik, who have sponsored this work for the past years, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vincent, Mr. P. G. Schlotterbeck, and Mrs. Gary Linn, and Mrs. S. Francis. A group of students from the "Homemakers' Club" of the Farmington High School also attended bringing cookies and candy and helped to serve the patients. They were accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Deagan, and also Mr. Deagan.

Plan Christmas Program, Service
A children's Christmas program will be presented by youngsters of the Church of the Shepherd King on Sunday, December 22, at 5 p.m. at the West Bloomfield Town Hall, on Twelve Mile Road, two blocks east of 15 Mile Road.

At the regular church service on Sunday the offering will be designated for benevolence and mission work. It was reported that the Sunday School youngsters had made kits for an orphanage in Japan for Christmas consisting of a writing tablet, wash cloth, bar of soap and tooth brush and tooth paste.

On Christmas Eve, two candlelight services will be held at the church. One at 7:30 p.m. and another at 11 p.m. Communion will be given at the latter service. A Christmas carol service will be conducted at the 7:30 p.m. service only, it was indicated.

A New Year's Eve Service will also be held at the church on December 31, at 8 p.m. The concert will include special arrangements of many favorite Christmas numbers.

In addition to the regular youth combined choir, there will be numbers by the Joy Club Choir and the Sunday evening choir. There will also be three family groups, the Charles Stapples family, the Clark sisters, and the Sloan children.

Douglas Bayne will play a trumpet solo. Mrs. Redman, organist, will play a Christmas carol on their European tour, will also sing. A candlelight carol service will be held on Christmas night, December 25, at 8:00 o'clock.

Antioch Lutheran Youth to Depict Birth of Christ
A Christmas program will be given by the Sunday Church School of Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church this Sunday, December 22, at 7:00 p.m. in the basement of the church.

The program will be a series of five still scenes from the Biblical account of the birth of Jesus Christ, with a reader narrating the significance of each scene. The five scenes to be depicted are: God's Old Testament promise of a coming Messiah; Mary that she was to be the mother of the Savior; The shepherds; The birth of Jesus Christ in Bethlehem's stable; and The Wise Men. Between each scene hymns will be sung or special musical selections will be presented by children from the different departments of the Sunday School.

Directing the program is Mr. Malcolm Bunker participating in the scenes will be Doug Naidmont, Allen and Schelly Thomas, Nick Staudt, Ron and Larry Miller as readers; Mark Stevens, Bob Elborn, Gary Cylka as the shepherds; Mike Thomas, Kirk Stevens, Fred Gustafson as the Wise Men; Bob Linja as Herod the King; Mike Thomas and Fred Gustafson as the Wise Men; and Sharon Hilborn as the Wise Men.

Following the program, refreshments will be served by a committee headed by Mrs. Paul Miller. If your kids get too excited to tell you how they are going to blame a University of Michigan professor told a parent education institute.

First Methodist Plans Special Yule Services
Announcement was made this week by the First Methodist Church of Farmington of special Christmas services. A carol service was extended to all to participate in these special services.

On Sunday, December 22, the two worship services at 9:15 and 10:30 a.m. will be highlighted by special Christmas anthems, scripture and sermons. The Chancel Choir, under the direction of Mr. Albert Bolitho, will sing the anthem "And the Glory of the Lord" from the "Messiah" by Handel. At the same hours during the Christmas sessions the children, under the direction of Mrs. George Nahstoll will present their Christmas program entitled "A Pageant of Christmas Symbols."

Church of Shepherd King Seeking More Singers

The Music Guild of the Church of the Shepherd King is reportedly in need of more voices for the choir which made its initial appearance on Sunday, December 15.

The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Firth Goodell. Anyone interested in joining the group is asked to call Ruth Eckert at MA-6850 for additional information.

Buy a fresh, moist Christmas tree and keep it watered when it comes to cut down fire hazard, say safety specialists at Michigan State University.
