

Nuclear powered merchant ships probably will not be economically feasible within ten years, a University of Michigan marine engineer believes.

DID YOU KNOW —

• THAT Christianity is not a theory or speculation, but a life; not a philosophy of life, but a life and a living process. (2)

• THAT many of us, during the excitement of Christmas, forget the true meaning of Christmas? This writer finds himself guilty of this spiritual violation.

• THAT we pray for things we have not instead of thanking God for things we have?

• THAT DAVIS & LENT Wishes EVERYONE A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

HAPPY NEW YEAR?
WELL, WE DO!

Alta Loma Sub News
Mrs. Loren M. Jenks, Jr.
GR. 4-3530

The subdivision welcomes new More Drive neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Rol Mathies; their daughter, Elaine Galbraith, and their grandson, Matt. The family has moved here from Redford.

Mr. Mathies is a retired employee of Shell Oil, and is now working with his son, Kenneth, at his Dun-lite Roofing Company. Young Matt is 7 years old, and attends Gill Road School. His mother works for Ford Motor Company.

The Ken Theobalds had a double birthday celebration Saturday with a dinner for both families. Both Ken and Christi grew a year older.

The Al Tischenbergs expect a big weekend. On Friday they will entertain at a buffet for a group of business associates and on Saturday Al Jr. will fly in from California for a Christmas leave.

The Earl Warners excitedly expect daughter Kay Kelly to fly in Saturday from California for her Christmas vacation.

David Brookway will arrive December 23 to visit his parents. He is a student at Arizona State College of Tempe, Arizona (the little school with the big football team).

The Brookways held a birthday dinner for the senior Mrs. Brookway on Saturday. Guests were the Brookway daughters and their families.

The Robert Bentzels of Cass Court were hosts for three weeks to Mrs. Bentzel's mother, Mrs. Blackburn, of Rochester, New York.

The Delos Hamblins of Cass will visit East Lansing this weekend to attend a wedding. Their daughter will be a bridesmaid for her room mate. The bride is a native of Amsterdam, Holland.

Mr. Hamlin is spending a few days at the family cabin near Farmington, Michigan. His guest is Mr. Harrison Johnson.

Connie Seng, of Alta Loma, will display her celestial tendencies on Sunday at 5:00 p.m., as she plays the First Little Angel in her church play.

Some of our conscientious home owners express fear that the neighborhood is going to the dogs again. Our canine friends are now eating Christmas decorations. Perhaps if owners tried speaking French to them they would be satisfied.

Cold cuts make good refreshments for the holidays. You can arrange the tray, cover it and refrigerate until time for lunch. Then, bring it out and let guests serve themselves.

Appears in U.M.'s "Kiss Me Kate"

Singing in the chorus for the University of Michigan student production of "Kiss Me Kate" staged from Wednesday through Friday of last week at the Michigan Theater in Ann Arbor was Nancy Lind of Farmington.

Miss Lind's home is at 35600 Grand River Avenue. Previously known as the Union Opera, an all - male show characterized by campus humor and original songs, coeds were added for the show last year. The move proved so successful that the same policy was followed this year.
