

Santa to Visit Saturday At Shiawassee School

Two recent news items are particularly interesting when considered together. In October, the Department of Commerce states, there was a $1 billion drop in the national rate of personal income, resulting from layoffs and reduced working hours. A short time ago the Federal Reserve Board eased its "tight money" policy by reducing the rediscount rate from 3½ to 3 per cent.

A Christmas party for children, sponsored by the Shiawassee P.T.A., will be held Saturday, December 21, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Shiawassee school.

Santa Claus will be present to pass out candy to the children and take their Christmas letters. Christmas music will be played.
