North Congregational Plan New Year's Service Dec. 29

The New Year's Church Service at North Congregational Church, Northwestern Highway and Lahser Road, will be held on Sunday, December 29, at 11:00 a.m.

Dr. John W. Mettler will preach the sermon. His topic will be "Overcoming Temptations." Special Christmas music will be presented by the Church Choir, with Albert Boltho, Minister of Music at the Casavant Memorial Organ.

On December 31, at 9:00 p.m., the Liturgical Fellowship of North Church will have a New Year's Eve party. All young people of junior and senior high school ages in the church are invited.

At 11:30 p.m., there will be a Watchnight Service, at which the young people will be joined by all members of the congregation. Everyone is cordially invited.

Remodel Church In Time for Yule

A new covered plaster ceiling with recessed fluorescent lighting has been installed in the Southfield Community Church, 2122 Indian (near Eight Mile and Inkster), fulfilling a long standing demand of the members of the church.

A greatly enhanced appearance and a considerable fuel savings will be the result. Lighting will be much more adequate and easier on the eyes.

Work done just before Christmas and in time to use the improved auditorium for its Christmas Eve service and its New Year's Eve service.

The service on Christmas Night at 8 o'clock was in the form of a candlelight carol service with scripture meditation in honor of Christ's birthday.

On New Year's Eve there will be a full evening of family activity beginning at 8:00 p.m. with recreation, refreshments and a Watchnight Service from 11:00 to 12:00.

Gives $100 Gift To Universalist Church School

Miss Vera Blanchard, formerly of Warner Street, Farmington, gave $100 for the Universalist Church School, in memory of her late sister, Mrs. Pearl Gibson, at the annual Christmas Party at the Universalist Church.

Miss Blanchard requested that her gift be used for the Church School in some practical manner. Accepting the gift on behalf of the Universalist Church, Mrs. Verne Pickford, chairman of the Universalist Religious Education Committee.

Miss Blanchard is a sister of the late Ernest Blanchard, Township supervisor for many years, and an aunt of Harley Gibson of Halsted Road, Farmington.

The Christmas program of the Church, under the Direction of Mrs. Roy A. Brown of Warner Street, including the enactment of the Nativity and the presentation of clothing and toys for European Refugees. This program is being sponsored by the Service Committee of the Universalist Church.

At the conclusion of the program, a coffee hour was held under the direction of Mrs. Pierce Van Camp and Mrs. Mae Locks.

Students to Hold Worship Service

College students and members of the Young Adult Fellowship Group will be in charge of the 10:00 a.m. worship service Sunday, December 29 at Franklin Community Church.

This is the fourth year for the Student Recognition Service. Leadership in various parts of worship service will be Gerald Brumm (U. of M.), Gailkitt Barr (U. of M.), Shirley Bunnell, Gail Burton and Donna Fraser (Western Michigan University).

Miss Gail Maddock (Northwestern) will sing a solo.

Other taking part in the hour service will be Don Odle (Alma), Carol Davis (Mt. Carmel Nursing School) and Judy Anderson (A.S.U.).

Constance Koek, assistant to the minister, is in charge of arrangements for the traditional service.

United Church Women To Hold Annual Meeting

The first annual meeting of the newly formed chapter of the United Church Women will be held on January 12th, 1 p.m., at the Salem Presbyterian Church.

Area of interest to all the women of this area will be presented. Tea will be served. A more complete announcement of the program will be made in next week's issue of the Farmington Enterprise.

Franklin Church Jr. Hi Youth Elect Officers

The Junior High Youth Fellowship of Franklin Community Church elected Carter Billis as its new president at the December 13th meeting of the group.

Ralph Runney became the vice president, with Kathy Loux handling the secretarial duties and Connie Lee the treasurer's responsibilities.

Consentors of this rapidly-growing group are Mr. and Mrs. F. James Spittle, assisted by Miss Constance D. Koch.

West Farmington Mrs. SARAH KNAPP

A Penambuco Hollow Farm Bureau women's committee served the dinner for the Oakland County Farm Bureau Women's meeting held earlier this month at the Rose Center Town Hall.

Reports were given, including one by Mrs. Mildred Hunt on tours planned for the coming year. Christmas songs were sung and games played.

Attending the meeting from this area were Mrs. Otto Rexin, Mrs. Mrs. James Smart, Mrs. William Wyatt, Mrs. Florence Bingham, Mrs. Ray Howard, Mrs. James Inman, Mrs. Emmet Houghton and Mrs. Irvin Knapp.

Recently returning from a stay in northern Michigan were Jack and Edward Lash.

Several from this area who are members of the Walled Lake Baptist Church took part in a Christmas concert presented by the choir last Sunday.

Fire-Fighting Training Comes in Mighty Handy

The fire-fighting training which Robert Deadman, a member of the Public Safety Department for the City of Farmington, has been taught came in handy recently.

When a grease fire broke out in the kitchen of his home on Hathaway Street recently, he applied his fire fighting knowledge to extinguish the fire before it could spread to other parts of the house.

Approximately $500.00 worth of damage was done in the kitchen, however.

Around The Circle In Staman Acres

SUZANNE SIVY GR. 4-4784

Last Sunday evening Susan Reynolds and Pam Ware hosted a rollicking party. The group went to the Reynolds home for games and refreshments. Mr. Ware and Mr. Reynolds sang the alto and bass parts as they chaperoned the group including Kathy Koell, Allen Hart, Ronnie Custer, Ronnie Cleveland, Paul Briggs, Diane Carruthers and Linda Schaffer.

Jim Moyra really had a big surprise in store for him last Saturday evening when he came home to find a group of his friends waiting to surprise him with a party on his 16th birthday.

Ron and Marilyn Thomas and their cousin, Cynthia and Diane Taylor, Bob Unks, Bob Waskowski, Tom McGuire, Ray Unks, Don Staley, George Geddis, Joe Reed, Bob and Linda Brovich, John Morris, Bob Morris, John Dew, and Kevin were among those who helped Jim celebrate. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knoles are happy to announce the birth of a son, Jeffrey Lee, on December 17. He weighed 7 pounds and 3 ounces at birth.

The Davies of Belmont have had company for a few days. Mrs. Florence Buckroff of Indianapolis came for the christening of the Davies' son, Mark Allen.

Stuart Sivy celebrated his eleventh birthday on December 23. The previous week-end Mrs. Sivy served ice cream and cake for relatives. Mr. and Mrs. William Sivy and their two children, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sivy were on hand to help Stuart celebrate.

In the bowling scores this week the high single game was Ray Unks with 225 and for the women it was Ida Carruthers with 191. The high team for single game honors was Chatterbox with 686 and for the series, Drambuie with 872.

The Cub Scouts from Our Lady of Sorrows held their annual Christmas party in the parish hall. A big project was decorating a tree which went to the Sister Kenny Hospital. They enjoyed movies and refreshments after which awards were given out. Danny Wheeler received his one year pin and Danny and Terry Burke both received silver arrows.

The Maldonados entertained Dr. and Mrs. C.W. Slesnick and daughter, Janis, Mr. and Mrs. B. Katz, and Dr. and Mrs. R. Salinas of Detroit at a football "TV party last Sunday afternoon and evening.

God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
