On Seven Eastern Women's Colleges

All high school girls in the Farmington area are invited to the annual open house of the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges to be held in the auditorium of the Women's City Club, Detroit, from 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, January 18.

College Information Day Chairman, Mrs. Harold Paul Sloan, Jr. of Pleasant Ridge, reports that a full program is being planned.

Cub Pack 162 Plans Birthday

Cub Scout Pack 162, sponsored by the Shawwaese elementary school P.T.A., is now making plans for its first birthday party to be held February 6 at Friendship Hall in the Farmington Savings building at Ten Mile and Orchard Lake Road.

Various projects which have been undertaken by members of the five dens will be displayed and acts presented by the pack.

The pack, made up of five dens, now has 32 active members. The pack meets the third Thursday of each month at the school with participation being reported good. Cubmaster is E. Chase, D. Mieser is chairman of the pack and Doug McQueen, secretary.

The pack meeting will be held this Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. Den flags will be presented at this meeting.

Install Blue Star Mothers Officers

Blue Star Mothers of Farmington Chapter 49 held their installation of 1958 officers in the Clarenceville Methodist Church on Wednesday January 16 with Department President Dorothy Christensen of Flint as the installing officer and Past Department President Iva Stringer of Highland Park as the installing Chaplain.

The following elected officers will serve the Local Chapter this coming year: President, Dorothy Christensen; Vice President, Etta Vanderburg; Second Vice President, Mary Morris; Recording Sec'y, Mae Jarrett; Financial Sec'y, Ethel Lint; and Treasurer, Lettie McIntyre.

The appointed officers will be installed by: Chaplain, Margaret Kahri; Patriotic instructor, Ethel Whitford; Historian, Lucile Langley; and Conductresses, Fern Ramage and Bertha Werschum. Gurneys, Myrtle Hoth and Isabel Lyons - in, discussions of weight problems and diets, and to hear speakers who will spur them on to their goal.

A social evening will be in order for this Thursday evening, honoring Jennie Maas, Ruth Schuler and Florence Krings for having maintained their weight loss of over 25 pounds each, for a period of three months. Games will be played, refreshments served and gifts given to the guests of honor.

Women in the area interested in the class, may call Dorothy Miller, GR 4-242 or Ruth Schuler, GR 4-4706, for further information.

Normandy Hills Dorothy Thorpe GR. 4-5878

The Board of Directors of the Normandy Hills Association met Thursday evening at the home of Jack Tucker.

The special committee to study trees reported and the maintenance committee was authorized to contract for a double spraying of all elm trees with a diameter of ten inches or more. It was estimated this work will be about thirty trees.

The nominating committee submitted their slate of candidates: President, Dick Habicht; Vice President, Lester Houghton; Secretary, Ellen Steinultz; Treasurer, Marvin Priemer; Auditing Committee, Morley Foster, Dick Hampton and Harold Luxem.

Joan Cogsdill entertained the Luther League of Bethesda Lutheran Church, Sunday. Eighteen girls and boys enjoyed skating at Kensington Park and later refreshments at Joan's.

The Normandy Hills skating rink has been a very popular place all week with fine skating. Sunday seems to be family day with many parents joining in the fun.

We are happy to report Leatrice Steinultz is home from the hospital and feeling quite well.

Max Forsyth is ill in a speedy recovery.

Johnny Nyland sustained a head injury at nursery school last week and Dorothy took him to the Redford Community Hospital at Seven Mile Road and Grand River. We didn't know and thought perhaps some other didn't that emergency service was available that close. Johnny is feeling fine now.
