On Production Staff For Marygrove Show

An air of secrecy has engulfed the Marygrove College class of '60 as it prepares for the "Soph Show," to be given Tuesday afternoon, March 18, in the campus auditorium.

Assisting with the show as a member of the production staff is Judith Jagrowski, 28570 West Ten Mile Road.

The first of these shows was planned in 1949 as a means of raising funds for the missions. Having it during the Lenten season seemed to give it added meaning. It was an immediate success and the resulting enthusiasm continued with each of the following classes, annually vying to participate.

During the years the students have given a wide range of shows, from various original scripts to a Gilbert and Sullivan musical. This year the sophomores claim that the show is entirely new and different in theme and tempo.

Bel-Air Hills News Tidbits

Mrs. Ruth Trombley GR. 4-2050

Mr. John Riordan of Leelanau Den Mother for Den 10, Pack 110 took her Cub Scouts to visit the Sealed Airy Bottling Works on Saturday morning.

Tom McLaughlin and Wallace Fens did the chauffering for Hector LeBlanc, Christopher Schaefer, Terrence Sargent, David Scott, Thomas McLaughlin, Kevin and Christopher Riordan. Michael Kern was unable to attend because of the mumps. The high-light of the outing was having lunch at a drive-in restaurant.

Doris and Bob Baker of Colchester took in a rough week last week. Both 5 year old Jimmy and 4 year old Sharon has the Asiatic flu but Jimmy's turned into pneumonia. They rushed him to Reform Community Hospital with a 107.8 temperature and it was "nip and tuck" for a while. Jimmy is home now and will be fine. Doris wishes to thank all her neighbors and friends for all their wonderful help and prayers.

The Board of Directors of the Bel-Air Hills Civic Assn. held a meeting last Tuesday night at the home of Tom Sullivan on Dearborn. The meeting was attended by Bill Bliss, Jack Moss, Al Bardon, Ken Trombley, Bob Stone, Tom Savelli, Mary Jo Brown and James McCracken. Wendell Brown, the association's attorney, was also present.

Mary Louise Abbey, 11 year old daughter of the Rev. Abbey's of Maribeehead, swam at a swimming meet at Ann Arbor on Saturday. She was first in a heat (of which there were six) in the breaststroke and did quite well for the finals. She had to swim eight lengths of the pool at top speed (makes me pant just to think of it). Mary Louise was one of the youngest entries and her coach thinks she shows lots of promise.

These are hectic days for all those in the JC Minstrel Show "Fine N' Dandy," but Jim Klopfeinstein reports it is all shaping up nicely. Most of the girls make their own costumes but the "end men" parent theirs. Sunday will be a long rehearsal. Wednesday evening is dress rehearsal. Thursday is Saturday night and Friday the "show goes on." See you at the show!

We are happy to report that Frances Allen of Leelanau is back home after spending a few days at St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac.

If anyone was wondering what "mother's" were doing standing on the corner on Friday morning and then being picked up by a school bus, may I assure you they were not experiencing "second childhood." Miss Porter's and Miss Whitledge's kindergarten classes formerly of Ten Mile School and now at Noble School) were letting the "mother's" see what their five-year-olds go through each day. It was a thoroughly enjoyed and enlightening program. I'm sure each "mother" felt as I did - "Kindergarten teachers deserve 'gold medals'."

Girl Scout News

On March 12, 1912, 46 years ago, Juliette Gordon Low organized the first Girl Scout Troop in the United States.

Through good health and almost total deafness she traveled throughout the country sharing her ideas of scouting for girls. She even sold her pearls to finance her trips.

Today we have 112 registered Girl Scouts and adults in South-eastern Oakland County.

Through the efforts of Juliette Low, girls who belong to the Girl Scout organization learn a few things, have the opportunity of giving service to others, and the fun of camping and exploring the outdoors.

The Girl Scouts are proud of their name, which stands for service, adventure, courage and knowledge.

Girl Scout Week is being celebrated throughout the Nation this week, March 9 through March 15.

On February 28 a program of scout songs, skills on camping and demonstrations of camping, skills, apparatus, and do's and don'ts in the outdoors was enjoyed by parent and friends of the Farmington neighborhood Girl Scout Troops.

Mrs. J. Slagle, Farmington Neighborhood Chairman, was mistress of ceremonies and presented several service pins to adults active in scouting. Mrs. W. Dickerson received a "Thank you" pin for her contributions to the success of Girl Scouting in Farmington. Others who received pins for their years of service were: Mrs. F. Reagan, 10 yrs.; Mrs. D. Leach, 8 yrs.; Mrs. R. Gilling, 7 yrs.; Mrs. J. Gebben, 6 yrs.; Mrs. C. Sutton, 6 yrs.; Mrs. D. Ruelle, 5 yrs.; and Mrs. J. Teich, 5 yrs.

Girl Scout Sunday will be celebrated March 16th at 4:00 p.m. in the Trinity Episcopal Church. Services will be conducted by Reverend James B. Guinan.

Mrs. D. Ruelle is handling the Indianwood Day Camp recruiting this year. If you are interested in working at, or need any information about Indianwood, call GR. 4-2151.
