Boy Scout Troop 162 Reviews Activities

Troop 162 had its weekly meeting at Shiawassee School which opened with the meeting to the flag and Scout law.

During the meeting Gus Dent reviewed the boys on activities which took place at a camp out at Star Cutter and Pete Sutherland reviewed the tenderfoot scouts on their tenderfoot requirements.

There were nine scouts and seven adults present at the meeting applications to become scouts, with five new boys to fill our ranks.

The ablest men in all the walks of life are men of faith.
