

Democratic Club To Meet April 2

The Farmington Democratic Club, continuing a policy of bringing well known public officials to Farmington, will have Attorney General Paul L. Adams as a guest speaker April 2.

Adams, a former upper Peninsula attorney, was appointed to the state office by Governor Williams to fill the vacancy created when Thomas M. Kavanagh was elected to the State Supreme Court.

Adams' administrative assistant to Dr. Lynn Bartlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was the speaker at the last club meeting. At that time also plans were made in regard to the card party to be sponsored by the club April 11. Mrs. Catherine Johnson is the general chairman for the event.

Both the meeting beginning at 8:00 p.m. and the card party will be held in the Farmington Savings and Loan "Friendship Hall".

Those attending will have an opportunity to meet and chat with several elected township officials, namely Supervisor Frank Stephenson, Trustee Richard Hug, and Justice of the Peace James Lawson. Leo P. Meagher, candidate for State Senator from Oakland County, is also expected.

Chairman will be Ted Zukosky, club president. The meeting is open to the public.

Student Spring Fashion Show Set for April 13

Plans are now being completed for a Spring Fashion Show to be presented next Thursday, April 13, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Farmington Senior High auditorium.

The show is being sponsored jointly by the F.H.S. home economics department, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Deegan, and Justice of the Peace James Lawson. Leo P. Meagher, candidate for State Senator from Oakland County, is also expected.

The general public has been invited to attend.

The show will be modeling a variety of spring clothing made by them as a part of their home economics course of training while boys will be modeling the latest in sports and men's wear for youth provided by Royal Clothes. Boys modeling will be Ed Fulton, Dave Burke, Dick Shouquist, Preston Potts and Ron Jordan.

Kiwanis Hear Vocal Groups

A vocal concert by the Farmington High School "Falconaires" and "Twelve Tones," directed by Mrs. Dorothy Fought was the feature of the March 25 Kiwanis meeting at Himmelpach's dining room.

Kiwanis Vice - President Charles Merryman announced that at the April 1 meeting, Robert Wernat, an amputee athlete will be present to discuss overcoming the handicap of the loss of a limb. The April 8 meeting will be devoted to a showing of color movies of the Detroit Lions' 1957 Championship games.

MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 4-9644

Olen Peters, new membership chairman of the Farmington Hills Improvement Association, and Mrs. Lawrence Clingman, former chairman, met with Mr. Cyril Johnson, president, Sunday afternoon to discuss the drive for new members. All dues are payable to Mrs. John Ferry, secretary - treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the Farmington Savings and Loan Bank meeting room, on April 22nd at 8:00 o'clock.

The Andrew Thomas family of Dohany Drive moved to Indiana, Pennsylvania. March 14th, to spend the week - end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ball, parents of Mrs. Thomas. Highlight of the celebration was a triple birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Thomas, her mother, and Mrs. Ball's mother, Mrs. Haberstick. They were mighty glad to get back to Michigan before nature unleashed her recent heavy snowfall!

A grand and unusual party was given last Thursday evening at the International Institute in Detroit honoring Arthur Conklin, Sr. of Detroit, on his retirement from the Michigan Bell Telephone Company after 47 years of service. A dinner for 300 guests was held and many gifts were given to him, including a tape recorder and the tape made recording the events of this important evening, a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses for Mrs. Conklin and orchids to the women members of the family. Mr. Conklin's only son, Arthur Conklin, Jr., of Dohany Drive together with his wife, and their three children were guests at this momentous occasion.

Girls of the area who attended the special Girl Scout service held March 16th at the Trinity Episcopal Church were Anita Tipton, Karen Manoecke and Shirley McAdams.

On Monday, March 17th, Mrs. Donald Blouin of Dohany Drive and her family came for brunch at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The Farmington Hills Teenagers met at the home of Marilyn Johnson, of Shadyridge, last week. It was decided by the 20 members present to postpone future get-togethers until the week after Easter. Patrick Burke of Raphael Drive will be the host at the next meeting.

Carolyn Smith of Broaview had a feature part in the production of the "Fine and Dandy" Minstrel show, held last Friday and Saturday evening. She sang and played "Wonderful Time Up There," which was extremely well received by the audience.

Girls from the subdivision who took part in the Our Lady of Sorrows "Juliette Low Birthday" Celebration last Thursday evening were Pamela Hoff, Maureen Blouin, Linda and Shirley Doyle, Suzanne Johnson and Janet Doyle.

Bonnie German, former resident of the subdivision now living in Hope, Michigan, was a week-end guest of Lynne Chamberlin on Dohany Drive. Two other former girl friends of Bonnie's, Linda Esser and Jane Christensen of Staiman

West Farmington MRS. SARAB KNAPP

The Walled Lake Women's Temperance Union will not meet April 16 but will attend the 18th District Institute at Drayton Plains Presbyterian Church on April 15 instead. A pot-luck lunch will be served at noon with talks to follow.

Raymond Knapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp, has been very ill and absent from school for the past week.

Mrs. Maud Grimmer spent the weekend with her sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Wolf, in Flint. She is very ill.

Mrs. Otto Rexin, Mrs. Mildred Hunt, Mrs. Irvin Knapp, Mrs. James Smart and Mrs. Lillian Birmingham attended the Haven Camp last Tuesday and Wednesday as representatives of the local farm bureau.

Mrs. Cyril Johnson celebrated her 38th birthday, March 24th, with a family and friends dinner. An unusual delicacy which she received was a box of Papaws from her son Bob, who is now stationed in Hawaii.

A double birthday celebration was held Saturday evening at the home of the John B. Reid's on Dohany Drive, honoring Mrs. Lila Taylor and Mr. Reid. It was a novelty party, with the evening being spent playing games and dancing, followed by a midnight supper. Fourteen couples were present, and gifts included practically everything needed for fishing, including a boat (a real one) and a can of worms, (they were real, too). On Sunday, Jack Reid of Garden City, son of the John B. Reid's, surprised his dad with a family birthday dinner which included all of Mr. Reid's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gaertner of Powers Road, are now taking their vacation trip to Hawaii following their trip to Hawaii last Fall by way of their completed movies. Invited in to enjoy the pictures last Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Calkins and the Jim Robertsons of Powers Road, the Ed Manstelds of Hillcrest Drive and the David Kings.

Exchangites Hear Talk on Schools

A talk on the Farmington Public School District was given at the regular meeting of the Exchange Club last Wednesday at noon at Guffin's Frontier Town.

Bayard dew Tupper, president of the board, gave a brief talk on members of the board and their backgrounds and qualifications, followed by a summary of enrollment data and details regarding the capacities of elementary and secondary buildings.

A map was displayed by Trustee Douglas Hammill showing the location of present buildings and sites that have already been purchased for future school buildings. In his talk he explained some of the many problems that have been faced and are continuing to be faced in locating suitable land for schools.

Assisrnat Superintendent Marjune Van Ameyde gave a condensed sketch of the instructional program currently being offered in the Farmington school system.

Many a woman who can't add can certainly distract.
