Library Gets More Records
In order to meet the growing demand for the rental records, the Redford Branch Library, 21511 West McNichols, at Grand River, is adding 40 new long playing records to its collection. This addition will bring the number of records in the collection to well over 250.

Among the new records will be original cast recordings of the new Broadway musicals, "Jamaica," "The Music Man," and "West Side Story"; soundtracks from the motion pictures, "Bridges Over the River Kwai" and "Pal Joey"; and band music by the Regimental Band of the Coldstream Guards and the Brass Band of Moscow.

Music in a more serious vein will be represented by recordings of Prokofiev's Fifth Symphony, Stravinsky's Petrushka, and Gligor's Third Symphony. There will also be new records by Perry Como, George Shearing, Danny Kaye, and Jo Stafford.

Records at the Redford Branch Library rent for a nominal charge per day per disk. Records may also be reserved.

The Library will be happy to consider any suggestions concerning the purchase of new records.

Kiwanians Hear Amputee Athlete

Overcoming the handicap of the loss of a leg was the subject of a talk by Robert Wernet at the Farmington Kiwanis meeting April 1.

An amputee veteran, victim of a land mine, Mr. Wernet became so adept with his artificial limb that he played college football at the University of Detroit. His remarks were illustrated by demonstrations of the various types of devices that he has tested for the veterans administration. Mr. Wernet now operates a drive-in restaurant near Pontiac.

Introducing Mr. Wernet, Kiwanis Lt. Governor Horace Hatfield complimented the local club for their contributions for work with handicapped children at the U. of M. Hospital and the Kiwanis Pavilion at Highland Park. He explained that the latter project is dedicated by area Kiwanis Clubs for use by the Foundation for Crippling Diseases for Research and Treatment of infants afflicted with Multiple Sclerosis and other incurable ailments.

Roger Walker, president of the Farmington Kiwanis Club, extended an invitation to local men to attend the April 8 meeting, which will feature color movies of the Detroit Lions 1957 championship games. The meeting will be at Himmelsbach's Dining Room at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 8.

Mr. Albert Kisser of 28411 Rollcrest is expecting his sister, Mrs. Roland Kretschmer, home from a trip to Florida soon she has spent three weeks touring the entire state of sunny Florida.

Miss Dorothy Orofino who works for Capital Airlines as a hostess surprised her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Orofino of 28125 Greenlog, by spending last weekend at home. Miss Orofino does not often have a chance to come home to visit her parents.

Little Mary Theresa Dwyer of David Road, celebrated her 4th birthday Wednesday, March 26th, by having a few neighborhood children in for ice cream and cake. Present were Steven and John Wilson, Karen Kutschke, John and Jane Seppanen and Michele Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wielekamp of Stonington, Illinois, visited the Ed Dwyer family on David Road, Sunday afternoon. Francis Dwyer of Shelbyville, Illinois, also spent Sunday night with the Dwyers. They were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Erma Dwyer who was the sister-in-law of the Dwyers and Wielekamps.

I would like to make an apology to Mrs. Jepson of 12 Mile Road for omitting her name as one of the guests at the luncheon given by Mrs. Kutschke of 12 Mile Road.

When phone calls to the Road Commission, a "Commercial Vehicle Prohibited" sign and even violation tickets failed to stop commercial trucks from using Rollcrest, which is a dead end street, to make deliveries into Holly Hills Subdivision, Mr. Leckenby and Mr. Wielekamp solved the problem. They put up a barricade on their property line.

Harold and Louise Reed and their son, Britt, from Centerline, Michigan, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Potrykus and children of Rollcrest. They came to "have a peek" at the new addition to the Potrykus family.

After six weeks Janice Dwyer has gained her freedom. The Doctor removed the cast from her leg.

First Methodist
Services Thurs., For Easter Set

The First Methodist Church of Farmington will hold a Maundy Thursday Communion-Worship Service at the church on April 3 at 7:30 p.m.

The services for Easter Sunday will commence with the Sunrise Service at 6:00 a.m. The service is planned and presented by the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of the church. The guest speaker will be Miss Mary Howe, and her topic will be "The Empty Cross." Miss Sandra Payne, Miss Judith Westfall and Wayne Crawford will also take part in the service. The combined Intermediate and Senior MYF's will render the anthem, "Easter Dawn," during the service, directed by Mrs. William Morgan.

Immediately following the service at 7:00 a.m., a Sunrise Breakfast will be served.

Easter morning services will be held at 9:15 and 10:40 a.m. and Rev. Russell W. Sursaw will expound on the topic, "The Lord of Life."
