

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-6335

Bob and Ruth Weaver left Wednesday, March 13, by plane, to visit his mother in Haddonfield, N. J. Mr. Weaver is now 32 years old and lives with his daughter, Ethel. Bob had to return on Sunday but Ruth went on to Philadelphia to visit her mother, Mrs. E. E. Of course she couldn't be so near her sister who lives in the Bronx without paying her a visit, so she went on by train to New York.

Dick Weaver and two of his college classmates drove down to Fort Lauderdale to spend spring vacation with one whose home is there. Ruth had a card saying it was raining there the first day they were resting to be all set to swim and sunbathe every possible day. They are due back at Michigan State on Monday.

Tamar Davis is home from Albion College for Easter with her family.

Last Thursday the cancer pinning meeting was at Theresa McKay's. The usual group of eight came there to be pinned and ready for us to see at the monthly meeting.

THE TAYLORS and Wheelers are back from an interesting month in Mexico. They went to Acapulco, where they visited at the home of Mexican friends of the Wheelers; then to Acapulco for two delightful rest weeks. The motel they stayed in was quite a bit of fishing—Leon caught a more-than nine foot sail-fish which is being shipped home and Grace, on the one day she went to a shark. They also had their own swimming pool as well as being near the beach so they could swim whenever the mood struck them. The motel also gave them a beautiful beach party for the guests. They were very fortunate in being there when one of the men who worked at the motel got married and invited them to his wedding reception which was held in a thatched roof hall. Of course they did the usual buying of lovely trunks and native jewelry, and Dorothy both had a couple of dresses made, one with joosters embroidered in sequins and one with fishes done in yarn.

A group of their neighbors, the Lams, Swifts and Wrights, were fortunate to be invited to a showing of the movies taken while on their trip.

Valerie McCarthy came home from the hospital Monday. He is still in a cast but won't be long now 'til he is back at work. He slipped on the ice when getting out of a taxi in Chicago and broke his leg.

The Norwalks spent the past week end with friends who have a farm at Manitou Beach in the Irish Hills. They had a group of Detroiters down for a party.

PAUL KING had a big surprise on the 22nd—his 18th birthday. He thought his parents, Ross and Florence Plewes, were very nice to take him to Joe Mue's to dinner. On their return, the house was dark but on entering he found 26 of his Farmington friends were waiting to celebrate with him.

THE PLAYERS at the Farmington Community Church last Friday night was a great success from every point of view. Some 800 tickets were sold and at least 700 were served in the two hour period. The boys did a lot of the work, selling $735 worth of tickets. The balance was taken at the door. Five prizes awarded to those selling the largest number of tickets went to Ken Kreider, Roger Fraser, Tom Meyers, Bob Winkle and Gordon Smith. The boys help and Gordon Smith. Good Meeting of Sub Officers

Officers of 16 subdivision associations were briefed Monday night at a round table on administration sponsored by the Township League and Subdivision Associations. President Robert H. Nelson acted as moderator.

Unable to complete the agenda brought up by the group, they will meet again Monday, April 28, at the Farmington Savings community hall.

Topics to be covered then include: board of directors, committees, communications, finance, and social affairs. To be distributed is a book of policies for the restrictions committees.

Covered this week were a flow chart on the way plans go through restrictions committee, an information chart for social committees, and information and material regarding the township annual meeting was also distributed.

James P. Lawson answered questions. Those attending were given a booklet on township government, through courtesy of Thompson-Brown Company.

League officials wish to publicize their help in planning and preparing materials used for these meetings.

James and Bernard J. Thompson, Edward Jarvis and George Douglas of Franklin Estates; Bernard J. Cantor of Holly Hill Farms; Kenneth J. Fucio, Orris H. McMillan, Ivan A. and Mary Towns, and Ray P. Wilcox of Kendallwood; Clifton L. Strasser of Normandy Hills; L. W. and Grace Beals; and the late Mrs. M. J. Caughan, Crestview; John K. Van Dam, Westbrook Manor; Bill Ryan, Springbrook; Anne and Bob Burton, Glen Orchard; Terrance Bredman Jr. and Clifford B. Moorehead, Glen Oaks; and Thompson-Brown Company.

Sen. Potter to Speak At County GOP Meet

Republican Senator Charles E. Potter will visit Oakland County Thursday, April 10, to meet briefly with Party chiefs and workers, according to Art Elliott, County Chairman.

A dinner has been scheduled for Thursday evening at Aunt Fanny's, 2244 North Woodward Avenue, where the party will be held at Republican County Headquarters, 351 North Woodward, Birmingham, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

"Can you ever remember a time when there weren't some people worried about conditions?"

"By the age of 50, most men have certain well-defined convictions—most of which are wrong."

Carole James Will Be Guide At World's Fair

Carole James, a 1951 graduate of Farmington High School, was one of 183 young Americans from all over the United States who sailed on Friday, March 28, aboard the S.S. America with a six month contract employing her as a guide and interpreter at the U. S. Pavilion of the Brussels World's Fair.

The guides, ranging in age from 19 to 25, all fluent in French plus several other languages which they were required to speak in handling tens of millions of visitors expected to visit the Fair will work for the U. S. Government for the duration of the Exhibit, April 1 through October 19.

A "Bon Voyage" luncheon was given aboard the S. S. America on Friday by the U. S. Lines staff prior to sailing and were greeted by the U. S. Consul General, Edward S. Cullman. A message from the President was read outlining the responsibilities of the group's representatives.

Carole attended the University of Michigan, is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta, and will graduate "in absentia" in June.

Her parents are Mr. Charles James, formerly of Ten Mile Road who have recently moved back to Farmington from Birmingham.

Baseball for Boys

Women's Aux. Elects Officers

An election of officers for the Women's Auxiliary of Farmington Baseball for Boys was recently held at the home of Mrs. D. Sutherland. Elected to office were:

Mrs. Margaret Barth, president; Mrs. Nora Bartsch, vice president; Mrs. Ann Sutherland, secretary; Mrs. Helen Nelson, treasurer.

The object of the group is to assist officers, personnel, of Farmington Baseball for Boys whenever possible, and assume the responsibility of operating a concession stand at the baseball park.

Many more mothers are needed as members to make a success of this organization, officials commented and asked that mothers show an interest in their son's activities by attending the next meeting to be held on Tuesday, April 8th at 8:00 p.m. at the Farmington Senior High School.

More specific information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Barbara Marzoff, GR 4-4867.
