

The number of social security checks payable to a beneficiary is determined by the amount of his earnings in excess of $1200 a year and the number of months worked.

At Home in Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis
GR. 4-1230

Congratulations are due this week to several of the residents of this subdivision.

A week ago Saturday Mrs. William Simmons was awarded in course at the Mother-Daughter Tea held at the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington for being the mother with the most daughters present. With Shirley were Terry, Brenda and Patty.

On Thursday Trudy Kull, daughter of David and Dorothy Kull, received her Bachelor degree in Psychology from the University of Detroit. Trudy hopes to begin her teaching career in one of the Farmington elementary schools in the fall.

This past Saturday was the sixth birthday of Jeannie Meservy. Ten of her friends from kindergarten took part in the noisy celebration.

The home of Frank and Dorothy Furlong was the scene of a wedding shower given by Mrs. Marilyn Furlong for Miss Mavis Fors. Miss Fors and Mr. Paul D. Furlong plan to be married on July 12 in Birmingham.

Mr. David Kull attended an Alumni dinner at the Grosse Ile Country Club Saturday night. The occasion was the 25th anniversary of Mr. Kull's graduation from University of Detroit law school.

Complete retirement isn't necessary for the farmer who is between 65 and 72 and continues to live on his farm. He must be certain, however, that his drawings from the farming enterprise sufficiently to meet the needs of retirement of the social security law.

THE MIXED CHOIR at the O. E. Dunckle Junior High has received some exceptionally high praise during recent weeks for splendid singing under the direction of Eddy Ellegood. Their performances were termed "excellent" in the first spring concert given recently at the Dunckle School and at the school dedication ceremonies held more recently. The Dunckle Junior High Band, under the direction of Harold Karl, also received high praise.

Springbrook News

Jill Maynard GR. 4-8654

Ronald Cervin of Springbrook, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cervin of Warner Farms and his brothers, Earl and Bob, recently attended the ABC bowling tournament in Syracuse, New York.

There they met nine other men from Detroit and Farmington. Ann, the daughter of Herman and Alice Purner of Springbrook Drive held a weiner roast for six of her eighth grade friends Wednesday, June 11. The girls then stayed over for a pajama party. Among the guests was Anita Currier of Crystal Spring Court.

Last Tuesday, Marie Taylor of Westmoreland Drive had a party for all the Zolkover employees. The guests enjoyed a weiner roast followed by a game of badminton.

June 15 was a big day for the Cervin family of Springbrook. Twenty-five relatives enjoyed a variety of good food followed by active games of baseball, horseshoes, badminton, bowling and croquet. This event was in honor of their son, Ronnie's sixth birthday and Father's Day.

Pauline Terechuk had 12 of the Springbrook ladies in for coffee and rolls Tuesday morning. The girls met Dorothy Stojtesdyk, a new neighbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Necker are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Reigan of Springbrook Drive. Mrs. Necker is the former Judy Reagan, a 1954 Farmington grad and formerly lived in Livonia. They have started back in October. They spent two weeks in California and visited almost every state on the great road trip. This included a short stay with relatives in Missouri.

Congratulations to Irene and Don Putnam of 25015 Westmoreland for the arrival of their first child, Kim Elizabeth, weighing in at six pounds, eight ounces on arrival June 8 at Women's Hospital. Kim and Irene returned home Sunday morning and are doing fine.

Ten men of the Circle Ten Investment Club met at the home of John Terechuk and had a discussion on week planning.

June 2, Jackie Rickard of Springbrook brought several of her school friends home for cake and ice cream in honor of her eighth birthday. Among the guests were Lynn and Lyle

Collahan, Joann Sheehan, Susan Feeley, Joyce Rollins and Cora Jean Burgher of Redford.

Dick Bayer is sure the envy of the neighborhood with the midjet auto his father made for him.

Helen and Don Cloutier of Westmoreland entertained the Frank Richards from Nashville, Tennessee. The Richards returned Friday with Donna Cloutier who will spend part of the summer with them. Helen underwent surgery at the Florence Crittenton Hospital last Monday.

The William Ryans of Westmoreland left last Friday for a week's vacation. They are traveling to Rochester, New York, to visit Bell's mother. They will leave Kathy and Mary at Rochester and go on to New York City to visit friends.

A reminder to be sure you lock your doors and windows when going out of town. Several cases of breaking-in have been reported in the subdivision.

Diana and Cynthia Taylor, daughters of Robert and Eleanor Taylor of Harcourt Drive, made a big celebration honoring the closing of school by inviting a total of 40 students from Our Lady of Sorrows and Farmington High Schools. A weiner roast was followed by swimming in the pool and dancing on the patio.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Grand of Springbrook held open house for 50 guests in honor of their daughter, Pat's graduation from high school.

I'm sure there are a lot of you on vacations, entertaining, or doing things that would be of interest to others. We think this column is a means of getting better acquainted and bringing us closer together. We cannot possibly call all of you and we would appreciate it if you would call our news, or better yet, write it out and drop it in the mailbox. Barbara Lord of 25020 Westmoreland has graciously consented to take Helen Cloutier's place while she is temporarily out of commission.

Mrs. Shirley Tucker and her mother, Mrs. D. J. Nadreau of Westmoreland, spent a five day vacation driving to Boston and New York City last week. On their return, they were pleasantly surprised by Capt. Tucker who came home for the Father's Day weekend from Ft. Sheridan, Illinois, where he is presently attending missile school.

Lillian Cogsdill has been quite ill with a virus infection. She has been confined to bed for the past week.

Beverly Hampton attended the yearly get-together of the Conquerors, a college group from the Presbyterian Church in Detroit. It was a formal affair with dinner being served at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth, Michigan. About 25 members of the group returned to the Hamptons for a party after the dinner.

Hazel and Walter DeGree returned from a long week-end spent with Hazel's sister in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Cogsdill and Thorpe families attended the Sunday wedding of Miss Kay White of Ann Arbor to Mr. Thomas Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown of Farmington. The ceremony was performed at the Central Methodist Church in Detroit. The reception followed at the Browns' home on Twelve Mile Road.

The Foster family, with some relatives and friends, spent a pleasant weekend fishing on Lake Huron near Cedarville, Michigan.

Around The Circle In Staman Acres

SUZANNE SIVY GR. 4-4784

Wednesday evening, June 4th, the Staman Stitches held their monthly meeting at the home of Joanne Smith. The co-hostesses, Barb Katterman, Pat Burke, and Maddy Hajduk, served ice cream pie and coffee. The entertainment for the evening consisted of Gretchen Smith and Karen Larson performing a ballet dance. The nominating committee for the election of next year's officers consisted of Jean Lutzen, Zora Cross, Barbara Katterman, and Bev Ellis. The committee will meet at the home of Bev Ellis on Thursday evening, June 19th. The election of officers will be held at the meeting on July 1st.

Jack Burke and son Terry took a small trip last week and left the female portion of the Burke family home. Jack and Terry spent Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of last week touring New York and Boston. They flew to New York and spent Tuesday and Wednesday there in a hotel with a swimming pool where they spent many leisure hours. On Thursday they journeyed to Boston and visited many places of interest and then returned home on Thursday evening.

Jim Ellis and son Jimmie journeyed to Houghton Lake this past weekend. The two Ellises spent the weekend visiting Jim's step parents. Mr. and Mrs. Campell Paterson of Belmont have had their niece, Mrs. Peggy Paterson, visiting with them for the past week. Mrs. Paterson is from Scotland and is returning on Wednesday.

Stan and Maddy Hajduk of Orchard Lake Road held a family picnic on Sunday, June 15th, in honor of Maddy's sister and brother-in-law, Captain and Mrs. Rutkaoski. Captain and Mrs. Rutkaoski have just returned from a three year stay in Germany. Captain Rutkaoski is with the Air Force and is being transferred to Maine. Mrs. Rutkaoski and her two children will stay with Maddy for about a month while her husband goes to Maine where she will join him.
