Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Ross of Bloomfield were guests of Cliff and Leola Sanko from Friday till this past Monday.

Stan and Therese Gibbs left Thursday for the weekend in Pottsville where both of their families live. The Gibbs children enjoyed visits with grandparents and grandchildren in spite of the rainy weather.

Ken Russell's sister Mary Vetter, her friend Mary Siegrist, and her brother-in-law Bill West, all of Grand Rapids, were weekend guests at the Russell home.

At and Ruth Slobe returned recently from a combination business and pleasure trip to Pennsylvania. Laurel Mountain was an outstanding stopover on the trip. The Slobes saw "No Time for Sergeants" at the Mountain Playhouse which is a well-attended play. The family also visited Story Book Forest. A month's purchases that Ruth made were a dinner for the yard and a spinning wheel.

Several of our Lutheran families have been attending the Tuesday evening, vesper services of the Lutheran Church of the Shepard King at Kensington Park. These services are to be held each Tuesday night during July and August.

Once again roaming dogs are becoming a suburban problem. Fortunately, no children have been bitten to date, but many expensive emergencies are beginning to suffer.

Ricky North celebrated his birthday last Tuesday with a family swim and picnic supper at Kensington Park. This was followed by cake and ice cream when they returned home.

Design and Lee North entertained Tommy and Dorothy Thompson and their children from Normandy Hills at Fourth of July steak roast Friday.

Vacation School At Southfield To Use New Theme

Departing from its usual June date, the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Grand River Street (near Eight Mile and Inkster) will hold its annual Vacation Bible School from July 14 to 25, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. until noon for children 5 to 14, according to the pastor, Raymond Bayne.

Under the direction of Howard Redman, minister of youth and music, and a staff of workers from the regular Sunday Bible school and youth clubs, the school will offer an intensive training in the Bible and in music and will include missionary stories, films, activities, and surprise features.

The boys and girls will run through all the departments and nautical scenes will be found throughout the building.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Parker of Port Huron became the bride of Clark W. Bates of Gaylord, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Bates of Farmington.

They were united in marriage by the Rev. Wesley E. Smith. A reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Parker of Port Huron.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a gown of French embroidered tulle over taffeta, featuring a Sabina neckline and short gathered sleeves. She wore gauntlets of embroidered tulle to match her gown, and her finger-ring was of French illusion with a jeweled crown.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, carnations and stephanotis. Her bridesmaids wore white, and the groomsmen wore white suits.

Patricia Ann Parker served as her sister's maid of honor. Miss Bessie Mae Wheelon of Port Huron and Miss Sylvia Jean Bates, sister of the groom, served as the bride's attendants.

James V. Bates served as his brother's best man. He is from Jackson.

For their wedding trip to northern Michigan the new Mrs. Bates changed to a white sleeveless cotton dress with an overall pattern of roses, with which she wore a white shawl.

They will make their home at Gaylord, at 205 N. Center Street, after June 29.

The bride is a 1937 graduate of the University of Michigan, and had brought in the Battle Creek school system one year.

With only a few vacancies for 9 and 10-year-old girls remaining, the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron will open its second two-week period July 12 and 13 until campers arrive.

Among those arriving at Camp Cavell from Farmington Saturday will be Linda Gilman, 26596 Lochmoor, and Lee Eundie, 26500 Peppermill.

Vacancies for 9 and 10-year-old girls are also available for the third period, July 26-Aug. 8, and for the fourth and final period, August 13-25, according to Elizabeth Kitchell, Camp Cavell Director.

A few vacancies for the Brook Hill unit for 13 to 16-year-olds are also available for the last period.

Registration for Camp Cavell may be made at Central Branch YWCA, 2230 Withersell St., or by telephone to the Branch.

It's A Small World, Finds Elsie Johns

A chance meeting in a hotel lobby between Mrs. Elsie A. Johns and a sister of one of her parishioners proves again it's a small world.

The Reverend Johns, who returned June 28 from a trip abroad, was staying two nights in an Edinburgh, Scotland hotel. She happened to talk with a woman there, who turned out to be Mrs. Clara Hall of London, who was spending only one night there.

She found out Mrs. Hall is a hobby teacher at Central Branch Church of Clarenceneville Methodist Church. Both sisters, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Hansen, were born in Scotland. Mrs. Hall was there on vacation. Mrs. Hansen has lived in the United States a number of years.

Clutch purses are still good this season, some are embroidered and others are flowered prints. Tapestry silks covered with embroidery are also featured, points out Margaret Wernot, retailing instructor at Michigan State University.
