Continuum Center Plans Open House

The continuum center for adult counseling and leadership training will hold an open house in Livonia Thursday, Sept. 6 and another at Oakland University Monday, Sept. 10 to introduce new fall programs for men and women in the metropolitan area.

Mrs. Eleanor Driver, continuum center director, will introduce programs in personal growth, career development, marriage assessment, retirement planning, applied imagination, and other communications skills needed for creative living.

She will be assisted by staff psychologist Dr. Sylvia Fink and staff counselor Dr. Elinor Waters of Southfield as well as trained program leaders from throughout the tri-county area.

The open house will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Sept. 6, at the Trinity Church of the Brethren at 27350 W. Chicago, Livonia.

The second open house will be held from 10 a.m. to noon Sept. 10, at the Meadowbrook Clubhouse on the Oakland University campus, Rochester.

Fall programs will begin with "personal growth for women" Sept. 13, in Southfield, a six-session workshop for women wishing to evaluate their lifestyle.

A three-day adult career forum sponsored by the continuing education department will be held Sept. 17-20 and a beginners class in "transcendental analysis" will begin Sept. 20.

Three new programs begin Sept. 24: "personal growth for women," in West Bloomfield; "human relations training for men," at Oakland University; and "making it alone - concerns of divorced men and women," at Oakland University.

Other programs offered through October and November include "mid-course assessment for couples," "retirement planning for men and women," "drama workshop," "yoga," "values clarification workshop," "careers in transition for men and women," "applied imagination workshop," "communication skills for couples," "career development for women."

For details, call the continuum center at Oakland University.

St. Andrew Sets Dates

The nursery school operated by St. Andrew Episcopal Church, Livonia, is now accepting applications for the fall.

This is the third year for Mother Hubbard Nursery run by the church. The sessions begin Sept. 10 for four-year-olds and Sept. 11 for three-year-olds.

For further information, contact Sharon Fromme, 9830 Auburndale, or Irene Desancon, 38923 Dover, both of Livonia.

Nursery Still Has Openings

Westland Nursery, Inc., a cooperative school located in the Newburgh United Methodist Church, 36500 Ann Arbor Trail, still has openings for four-year-old girls in both its morning and afternoon classes.

It has one class for three-year-olds and two for four-year-olds. Each class has 21 children with a balance of boys and girls.

Classes meet twice a week, three-year-olds in the morning and four-year-olds in both the morning and afternoon.

To register contact Mrs. Gerald Schell, 34761 Spring Valley, Westland.

Newcomers Set Fall Meeting Date

The Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club of Livonia will open its fall season Tuesday, Sept. 11 at St. Andrew Episcopal Church, Six Mile and Hubbard Lane, 8 p.m.

Three new activities have been added: local cooking, antique study and ceramics.

Golf, tennis and bowling is offered for the sports minded and for the card players, bridge, buncle and pinocle is being planned.

Courtesy cooking and crafts will round out the club's program.

Additional interest groups can be formed if the need arises.

If you have lived in Livonia a year or less, the Welcome Wagon is the place to meet new friends.

The club is not a fund raising organization although they do hold one charity project each year.

Call Janice Ralph for more details.

Obedience Club Has Contest

FARMINGTON

The German Shepherd Dog Obedience Club is sponsoring specialty obedience trials on Sept. 23 in the Groves Walker American Legion Hall, 31775 Grand River, Farmington.
