At the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital last Wednesday night, Mrs. Frank Pomeroy, mother of Mrs. Frank Pomeroy and step-mother of Frank Posner, Farmington Rd., passed away. She had been in failing health for some time. After the recent death of her husband, she had come out from Detroit to reside with her daughter. The body was taken to Chatham, Ontario, where services were to be held.

Mrs. Gilbert Hankins, Norfolk Ave., who since her return in late summer from a visit to England, had been confined to her home with a severe case of hay fever, is now again getting out among her neighbors and friends.

After a two weeks siege of hay fever, Billy Knipple, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Knipple, Farmington Rd., was able to return to school last Tuesday.

John Attiana, Jr., of Renaissance Ave., who was badly injured in a traffic accident a few weeks ago is now able to be back at his employment.

Marcia Made of Hubbard Ave. who entered the freshman class at Eastern State Normal College in September has made the school bands. She had distinguished herself in band work at Bentley.

Old-timers will remember Mrs. Julia Mansfield, who for a number of years resided in the West Point Park community but now lives at 3005—St. Ave. N., St. Petersburg, Fla. The latter part of this month she will be 102 years old. She is greatly thrilled with greeting cards, but because of her failing eyesight, friends have been requested to send brightly colored cards.

BARBARA LORD GR. 4-3474

Many Springbrook families took advantage of the beautiful weekend and went visiting!

Ron and Jo Cervin and their children Connie, Ronald and Douglas, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Follett of Marion, Michigan. They enjoyed traveling through the woods, collecting leaves and berries, and the Muskogee River. To top it all off, Connie and Ron were called upon to aid in catching two runaway hares from the neighboring farm.

THE FRANCIS family enjoyed two days at Faug's Resort on Houghton Lake. While there, they hiked in Hartwick Pines State Park near Grayling. Janet Dicks was maid of honor at the wedding of her sister, Delane Pello, to Gary Dixon last Saturday. The bride wore a white, length lace gown and Janet was dressed in an ice blue tulle gown. The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walters of Lakewood, Ohio and Mrs. Chloe Capeland, spent several days with Don and Pearl Briggs of West-norland Drive.

We are glad to see Ken Maynard out and around after undergoing a tonsillectomy. Also 11 was Patrick Curtin of West-norland Drive.

SUNDAY, October 12, M. A. R. Tucker celebrated his second birthday which fell on Wednesday. He enjoyed cake and ice cream with his happy friends. Last night Marie Taylor held her first meeting of her bridge club which consists of women from Springbrook, Crystal Rowe, Nina Orr, Rose DeLong, F. R. A. Brandvold, Blanche Treweek and Edith Hagelstein.

Jim Curtin of West-norland Drive has received his diploma from the University of Wisconsin in after completing a three year course in the banking school.

Patty Kirksey of Lakeland Dr. celebrated her 7th birthday October 1st with a birthday party attended by eight of her subdivision friends. Her guests were Timmy, Bessie, Linda, Kathy and Jo Anne Sheehan, Lynn and Denny Anderson, Christy Reynolds and Tommy Winkel. There was cake, ice cream, pop and prizes for all.

THE LORDS had a multiple birthday celebration last week honoring Ralph C. Lord Sr. who was 65 September 29, Barbara who was 16 Oct. 2 and George, whose birthday was October 5.

Mrs. Mary Schoun of Spring-land is the leader of new Girl Scout, Troop 800. The troop accommodates a great many Springbrook girls, all of whom flew up from Browne Troop 218. The girls are Sandy Carlson, Kathy Groff, Karen Nicholson, Susie Kirchner, Beverly L. O. Kathy Bayer, Mary Kelly, Marcia Goodhue, Cherry Tucker, Linda Taylor and Christine York. Mrs. Schoun entertained Wednesday at a luncheon for the mothers, and they partially planned the yearly program. The adult committee consists of Delma Lord, Christine Bayer, Lois Schlack and Mrs. Nestr.

I'm sorry there was no column last week but I couldn't get any news. I would appreciate it if you would call me if you have any to report.

At Army Armor School in Kentucky
