MISS L. A. AULT
Phone GR. 4-4294

Sunshine Sisters met in Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon. "Urges" was the topic and the devotional service centered around the story of the rich young ruler who had an urge to do something noble but could not bring himself to make the personal sacrifices necessary. Reports were given regarding the sick of the community and prayers said for them. Mrs. Cecil Willet and Freda Ault contributed readings to the program. Birthday greetings were extended Mrs. Wanda Graham, one of the ladies present. The next Sunshine meeting will be held in Neighborhood Church on Wednesday, January 28th, at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance, of Mayfield Avenue are grandparents again. A daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer, near Wayne.

Judy Clappison Named Associate Teacher at Kreason Dance Studio

The Evelyn Kreason Dance Studio in Farmington announces the addition of Miss Judy Clappison as associate teacher to their faculty.

Miss Clappison has been thoroughly trained in both the Italian and Russian methods of Ballet. She is also well grounded in tap, jazz, and acrobatic.

A graduate of Farmington High School, she also performed for many organizations in this and the surrounding community. She danced in the Jaycee Minstrel Show for four years and has appeared with the Farmington Players. She has also made many professional appearances in and around Detroit and, during a recent visit to Florida, performed several times there.

Miss Clappison has been an assistant teacher at the studio for five years. While her training has been entirely with the Kreason studio, she has furthered her study by attending conventions and studying with many famous teachers such as William Dollar, Christine Dubois, Billy Clover, Bernice Hotmes, Muriel Stuart during their visits in this area.

At Insurance Conference in West Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Samra left January 21 for White Sulphur Springs, W. Virginia, Samra, local agent for State Farm Insurance companies, will be attending the State Farm Career Club meeting at the Greenbrier Hotel there.

The meeting is held annually for the leading members of the State Farm's 8500-man field sales organization who qualified for Career Club membership through their business volume of the past year.

Samra and his fellow agents and managers will be meeting with the Chief executives of the three State Farm companies during the three-day session. State Farm Mutual, parent firm of the State Farm group, is the world's largest auto insurance company.

Samra along with his partner, Don Maxwell, recently opened a new office in the Sanderson Real Estate Building at 3200 Grand River, Farmington.

While her daughter, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, was a patient in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Mrs. Emerson Ault, Mayfield Ave., has been with the Johnson children at their home on Clara Avenue.

At Home in Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis

Old Homestead has another new family to welcome this week. Howard and Anita Douglas moved from northwest Detroit into their new home at 3678 Quakerstown Lane a week ago. They have three children - Cathy who became nine on January 6th, Kurt age 6, and Robbie who is four months old. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas built the house as an investment and even though they like Farmington and Old Homestead they hope to sell the house in the near future.

PATTY GIBSONS, daughter of James and Donna Gibbons of Quakerstown Lane, celebrated her seventh birthday on Saturday with the help of Marlene and Jeanne Meservy, Nancy Norik, Patty Coleman, Jackie Mueller, Leslie Raddatz, Cathy Shobe, Cathy Douglas, Susan Kidd, Patty Tabb, Bonny Humm, and Marilyn Hukkal. The girls enjoyed party games and consumed much ice cream, cup cakes, popcorn, candy and pop.

Other birthdays in the subdivision celebrated with various More than 30 million Americans will wake up with sore throats some morning this month. Doctors say the best remedy usually is bed-rest, a generous high-protein diet with plenty of fruit juices and as little conversation as possible.
