Alta Loma Happenings

LYNN ROTH GR. 4-1318

James and Alta Theobald of Alta Loma just flew back last week from two weeks vacation in Florida. They made the trip with a brother and his wife.

The four flew to Boca Springs to do some fishing. The main event there was the catching of all the fish of the day with right handed catch. From there they went on to stay with friends of the Theobalds at Del Ray Beach where they laid a round on the sand and did some swimming and boating.

They then went on to Pompano Beach and back by air to Farmington once more.

Cris Milwicz, daughter of Varn and Phyllis Milwicz of Alaska Drive, celebrated her sixteenth birthday last Friday with a hot dog lunch. She enjoyed ice cream, cake and games with her friends Patty Smith, Chris Theobald, Linda Gales, Debbie Mossbacher, Terry Murdock, Claudia Misch, Joanne Yochum and Carole's brother Mark. Then the birthday girl's grandmothers and grandfather, aunt and uncle and great-aunt and uncle came over to wish her a happy birthday.

LOUIS AND MARY Dobrowski of Fleming Drive became Grandma and Grandpa February 18th when their son-daughter Louise gave birth prematurely to a 3 1/2 lb. baby girl named Louise Marie.

Joseph and Melva Haughey and their 2 1/2 year old son Pat have moved into their home on Moore Drive. The Haugheys' daughter, Bud and Jane Howard's home. They moved here from Northwest Detroit.

Earl and Ruth Warner of Alta Loma just returned home from visiting friends in Inlay, Michigan, last week. Ruth was there from Wednesday through Sunday and Earl joined her on Saturday to spend the weekend. Then this past week and the Warners drove to Lansing, Michigan, to play bridge with their friends.

Saturday night with friends before visiting with Ruth's parents at Eaton Rapids, Michigan on Sunday.

CELEBRATING his eighth birthday Saturday, Tommy Wagner, son of Chuck and Gloria Wagner of Moore Drive, had a party from 1 to 3 p.m. Joining Tommy for games and ice cream and cake were Jimmy Brennan, Matt Gibrell, Bobbie Herman, Arne Carlson, Larry Adams and Gary Williams. Tommy's life rank plus three merited a party from Boy Scout Troop 10 of Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

Paul and Nancy Gelatin of Fleming Drive with their children Alisa and Gregg just returned from a business and pleasure trip to Wichita, Kansas, where the Gelatins spent the first time, her 1 year old Godchild. After saying their good-byes to Wichita the Gelatins drove back to the city of Kansas City and St. Louis, Missouri and Louisville, Kentucky, arriving home to Farmington last Thursday.

OF THE 50,000 names submitted to Marquis Who's Who, Inc. of Chicago, Illinois, Mrs. Grace Redner of Cass Court was one of the 15,000 names to appear in the First Edition of "Who's Who of American Women," Grace, now president of General Filters, Inc. of North Michigan, started with the company as a secretary-treasurer in 1927. It is quite an honor to Grace to appear in Who's Who with women like Helen Hayes and Eleanor Roosevelt.

A group of neighbors, Earl and Ruth Warner and Loren and Peg Jenkins of Alta Loma with Ken and Marlene Theobald and Ed and Carol Kelly of Moore Drive, all attended the musical "My Fair Lady" last Friday night, returning to the Warners home afterwards for refreshment.

Mr. Hank Forrest of Alta Loma recently returned from New York where he was appointed to the National Committee for American Born Marines. They will hold their conference in Detroit next October where he problems of this industry, such as labor, legislation and the St. Lawrence Seaway will be discussed. Also on this committee with Forrest are Mr. Hicks, president of the United States Lines, Mr. Farrell with the Farrell Lines of New Orleans and Mr. Adams of the Harco-Port Cement Company.

LUCILLE VRANESI of Cass Court had a surprise last week when several of her women friends came over with a complete luncheon ready to serve in honor of Lucille's 21st wedding anniversary.

Ed and Carol Kelly of Moore Drive visited Carol's parents last week in Lansing, Michigan.

Walter and Edna Krenkow of Cass Avenue entertained Walter's sister and brother-in-law from M. Comens, Michigan for dinner a week ago Sunday before the four of them attended the Grace Lutheran Church education services, Sunday evening.

Mr. Francis Hawley, 2011 Robinson, Farmington town, passed away March 4 in Postle General Hospital.

He was born in Bay City, Michigan, March 17, 1890, the son of Jessie and Anna (Lewellyn) Hawley and united in marriage to Margaret Brennan September, 1923. He had resided in Farmington since 1930.

Mr. Hawley served in the United States Army in World War I and was a member of Wolverine Post No. 171, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Redford.

A prayer service was held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home at 10:00 a.m. Saturday.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Miss L. A. Ault

Honoring the birthday of her father, A.D. Ault, Mrs. Virginia Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti, was visiting with her parents on Brentwood Avenue, Farmington, March 3rd. All Mr. Ault's children and grandchildren were present. He received a number of handsome gifts.

A Stanley party given as a token of appreciation to the friends of the farmstead Tuesday afternoon proved a pleasant surprise socially as well as otherwise. About fifteen enjoyed the friendly get-together of neighbors. Several ladies earned interesting prizes. All carried home a supply of useful "food". Coffee and cake were served.

A FAMILY dance party honoring the birthday of her husband, Mr. O. R. Ault, was given by Mrs. Netha Ault at her home on Shady Side Ave., Sunday evening, March 1st. Eleven were present. Mr. Ault received a number of useful gifts and congratulatory cards.

Mrs. Marie Roberts of Mayfield Ave. is spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Padot and her family, in Monroe.

Mrs. William Sherman and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Sherman, of Mayfield Ave., left Friday for Dayton, Ohio, where they were to be in attendance at funeral services for Mrs. J. P. Sherman's brother-in-law, Mr. Tom Sheets.

MRS. ARTHUR MUIR and Mrs. Glenn Deshano, of Shady Side Ave., were visiting with their mother, Mrs. F.W. Sherman, in St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, Tuesday.

After three weeks confinement, little Miss Claudia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Centers, Westmore Ave., is ready to return to school.

Mrs. Jack Sherman, of Covington Drive, and a daughter-in-law of the William Shermans, Mayfield Ave., is convalescing gradually from major surgery.

Goodwill Industries from Detroit will be collecting household linens in Farmington and West Point Park, on Monday, March 13th. There is a desperate need for usable, repairable materials. If you have anything to contribute, please call Miss Lora Ault, Greenleaf 4-4294, and arrange for a pickup.
