At Home in Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis GR. 4-1230

Last Saturday, Nancy North, daughter of Lee and Isabel North, celebrated her seventh birthday with the help of her mother, Mrs. North, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gibbons. Jackie Mueller, Brenda Simmons and Cathy Shale. After the party guests the girls enjoyed ice cream and the "Angels" birthday cake.

A family dinner party at the Davis home on Sunday marked the birthday of Bob and his sister-in-law Mary. Mrs. Fred Davis. Guests were Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clemon M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and their children Bruce and Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis and their infant daughter, Kathy.

THE APPEASED will hold their monthly square dance this Saturday at the Raddatz home, 35795 Quaker Lane. Call either Irene Barth, GR. 4-800 or Yvette Riebo, GR. 6-625 by Friday if you plan to attend. Remember to take your plate, cup and saucer and table silver.

As most of the residents know the limit number of basements in the subdivision means that a few generous families have provided the use of their basements for most of the meetings and social activities in the past. Anyone who is willing to offer the use of their basement for social activities in the future should contact Flo Ziegler, GR. 6-020. This will help the Social Committee make their plans for the coming year.

Police Course Being Offered

An auxiliary police course for all men of the community is now being held under the guidance of Township Police Chief Irving. These classes are being conducted each Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Township Fire Hall on Wheeler Street, one block east of Middlebelt and just north of Grand River.

Both outdoor and classroom instruction is being given on patrol, control, protection of property, the art of self defense and rules and regulations of the police force.

Men wishing to take the course must be over 21 years of age. Upon completion of the course they will be qualified to become auxiliary policemen if they wish to be. It was indicated there is no charge for taking the course.

Irish Stew Dinner Set This Saturday

An Irish Stew Dinner will be served Saturday night, March 14, at Riverside Chapel at 27015 V. Nine Mile Road.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and be followed by a variety of games.

Tickets or additional information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Thomas Paul at GR. 4-1810. Tickets will also be available at the door. It was indicated.

GRAHAM FOR FARMINGTON CITY COUNCIL

—Paid, Political Advertisement—

WEATHER during the past week almost made the complete cycle. A warm spell the middle of last week was followed by rain and then a cooling off period, promptly followed by a snow storm and cold. This is a lot of weather in less than a week's time, but as they say—"If you don't like Michigan weather, just wait a minute and it'll change." The rains last week, with frost still deep in the ground, posed some real flooding threats. Water racing through this stream had reached the top of the bridge on Middlebelt Road between Grand River and Eighth Mile by early Friday afternoon. Another two or three hours of rain could have very well washed out the bridge and sent water flooding over the road.

Cantata "The Seven Last Words" To Be Presented Here Tuesday

Next Tuesday, March 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the Farmington Senior High School Music Department, an all-day (from Orchard Lake St. Marie board school) will present the Cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ" which was also presented by the vocal department in 1958 and 1959.

For this performance Mr. Feuchl has engaged a string section which consists of members of the Little Symphony of Holland Township and selected students from the Farmington secondary schools. Their work is entirely voluntary.

With the string section, three soloists, and the chorus there are approximately 35 people in the Cantata.

The three soloists who have been engaged for the Cantata are: baritone, George McWorther; tenor, Dan Karney; and soprano, Diane Franjae.

The baritone, George McWorther, is a graduate student in music at the University of Michigan who has studied at the University with an outstanding teacher, Mr. Barmelby Chase, head of the voice department. Mr. McWorther also sang the lead in U of M's presentation of "Oklahoma".

Diane Franjae is a 1956 graduate of Farmington. She is now a Junior at U of M and was selected from campus-wide tryouts to do the female lead in the "Oklahoma". Diane sang the solo in the "Seven Last Words" which was presented by the vocal department in 1958.

A double funeral service was held Sat. at 2 p.m. from the Water Kelly Funeral Home in Windsor with Rev. Dr. D. J. Jones officiating. Burial was in the cemetery.

Just 24 hours later, Mrs. Hays' stepdaughter Alex D. Gough, confined to a hospital in Windsor since early December, also died of a heart attack.

SERVING YOU BETTER NATIONAL FOOD STORES SAVING YOU MORE

NATIONAL FOOD STORE IN FARMINGTON WILL REOPEN

Contrary to what you may have read or heard, the Farmington National Food Store, Orchard Lake Road at 10 Mile Road will be rebuilt. The damage caused by this disastrous fire will keep this store closed for as short a period of time as is humanly possible to rebuild. When reopened, this store will be equipped with the latest consumer conveniences and designed for shopping pleasure.

National Food Stores would like to sincerely thank all concerned with the fire operation. The Farmington and Township Fire Departments surely did an outstanding job in quelling the flames and preventing their spread to adjoining buildings. Also, to be commended were the Farmington, Township and Auxiliary Police who controlled traffic and viewers so well.

While this store is being rebuilt, we would certainly appreciate your continued patronage at one of our nearby located stores, at:

25850 Grand River at Beech Road, Redford Township
32930 Middlebelt Road at 14 Mile Road, Farmington
