Township CAN Be Saved! Entire Republican Slate Signs Community-Preservation Platform

THE FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE TODAY ANNOUNCED THAT THE ENTIRE REPUBLICAN SLATE OF CANDIDATES HAS ENDORSED THE COMMUNITY-PRESERVATION PLATFORM.

THE PLATFORM: DECLARATION OF INTENT. We, as candidates for Township offices, hereby declare that our purpose in seeking office is to do our utmost to preserve our community as an unspoiled area for Rural/Suburban Living. We further declare that we are running for office as homeowners and taxpayers only. We are backed by no commercial interest of any kind in Farmington Township. On behalf of ourselves and other homeowners, we will work without compromise to obtain the following in Farmington Township: ARTICLE I (TAXATION) We will work to guarantee a vote of the people on any and all proposed increases in multiple-type services or multiple-taxes which would increase township taxes. Furthermore, we will strive by every possible means to provide voters with all of the facts on such proposed services or public works before the voting date. We will work to secure favorable consideration for Farmington Township in relation to the other townships in the county (i.e., County Equalization Factor). ARTICLE II (ZONING) We will work for enforcement of existing zoning, while exploring every possibility for raising the zoning standards and strengthening the zoning laws. We will work for control of commercial building so that such building does not interfere with the area's primary function as a residential community for rural-type living. We will work to furnish all homeowners with complete and detailed information on every proposed zoning change. ARTICLE III (ORGANIZATION) We will conduct a thorough study to assure efficiency in all Township Departments - principally in the Assessor's Department and in the Building Inspection Department. We will work for a definite and stated policy that will govern the supervisor's actions, especially when he is representing the township on the County Board of Excession. This policy will be based on, and guided by, the opinions expressed by residents at the Annual Township Meeting. We will work for intelligent cooperation between the Township Board and the School Board. THE SIGNERS: CURT HALL SUPERVISOR FLOYD A. CAIRNS CLERK VICTOR SALIBA BOARD OF REVIEW RAY B. WILCOX TRUSTEE ART BASSETTE TRUSTEE ELISE AVERY TREASURER ROBERT H. NELSON JUSTICE OF PEACE Protect Your Community From Exploitation! VOTE STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN
