

"I go for all sharing the privileges of the government, who assist in bearing its burdens."—Abraham Lincoln (1863).

He's the only MAN in TOWN.

who doesn't use the WANT-ADS

"I am the State!"

"Thus King Louis XIV is said to have interpreted a judge who used the expression, 'The King and the State'."

"He was right, of course. He was the center of all national activities. His industry was tremendous, and his hand was in almost every move of European politics, launching campaigns, making laws, negotiating alliances, and also finding time to build palaces, to encourage science, literature and art—and to enjoy life. Truly he was the State."

"It's a far cry from the autocratic spirit of seventeenth century France to the democratic spirit of twentieth century USA, but, you, Joe Citizen, might well use the same famous phrase today, use it with a deeper, more significant meaning."

"To be 'the State' however, implies responsibility, and if you're a business man your responsibility is even greater. To your business or company. To your employees and customers. To your community. To yourself."

"So my advice to you is: Face your responsibilities squarely. Join your local Chamber of Commerce and help make its program ever broader and more effective. Help build up your community and you'll be helping to strengthen our nation."

"Because you, too, are the State."

A very warm welcome is extended to our three families. Carl and Ellen Ambrose (no relation to the Ambroses of Chenoix) moved in February, with Jack and Elaine Olson. Donald, lives at home, is a dentist and has his office at Asbury Park and 6 Mile Rd. The children are 11 months old, Dick, the oldest, and Jack, live a few doors apart on Glenmore. Their daughter, Ellen, is in Redford.

Bernard and Peggy are in the new home they built on Millbrook at the corner of Middlebelt with their three children, Carol Ann, 6; Andrew, 3, and Robert, 2. Ben and Pat DeCoke have moved into the new home on Spring Ave.

THERE HAVE been big doings at the Lloyd Nelsons. Mary and Joe are being married tonight to Kenneth Kaestner in the Bushnell Congregational Church. The rehearsal dinner was last night at Craig's.

Ben and Pat DeCoke have moved into the new home on Spring Ave. Elaine, with little Chuckie, came on from California, March 13th, for a visit and to take in this event. Gino also got home for the wedding but is leaving Saturday for Mexico City. She is a language major at Michigan State and is to have her next semester at the University of Mexico City. She will live in a native home.

Mary and Joe Bellas are now great grandparents. On March 10th an 18, 9-oz. boy, Bryant Goray, was born to their daughter, Donna Blum Goray. The Jennings are grandparents for the first time but I haven't been able to ascertain the sex or name of this little one.

FRIDAY MORNING, Christiana Kay Murphy was born at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital. Michael and Kay, as many of you know, have been staying with his parents since their return from Europe, but will now move into the home they have purchased.

EMOGINE DAVIS is still in Beaumont Hospital but expects to be home in another day or two. She is feeling fine, has been walking up and down the corridor getting acquainted with our patients and really having a meaux, assistant postmaster, showed the girls the fundamentals of how the mail circulates. They also visited the Farmington Bakery, Mrs. Rotkiewicz explained the how's of the bakery which proved to be tasty. Mrs. Rankin, assistant leader, accompanied the girls. Mrs. Maynard, leader, has been inactive for the last few weeks. She has presented the world with a new flower woman.

TROOP 196 joined TROOP 180 for the post office trip, and are working on egg decorations to assist the Easter Bunny.

TROOP 177, Intermediate, are working on outdoor cooking and utensils to be ready for future outings.

TROOP 178—Leaders Joanne Hunt and Lois Leach, had as their guest on Feb. 28th, Mrs. Monty Davis, registered nurse, who talked to the girls about personal health and first-aid in relation to the troop's work on the Health Aid badge.

A recent trip was made to the Redford State Police Post where Sgt. Peterson took the troop, leaders, and Mrs. Bliss through the entire post. Some of the most interesting points of the visit were the communications room, the vault where police weapons are stored, police car and the equipment. One of the specially trained police officers, who is a registered Scout Bearer, showed the troop some of the equipment and how it is used.

TROOP 258—Seniors, led by Mrs. Reagan, attended the Round Up Fair where crafts of girls were to be displayed. Representatives to relate to Scout Round Up in the summer.

Visit Jungle Gardens at Sarasota, Florida. During a recent visit to the "Sun Coast" of Florida, George "Sun Coast" of Florida, George and Helen Duke, of 28229 New Joyced, seeing Sarasota Jungle Gardens.

The visitors mingled with flamingos and other exotic wildfowl roaming unaged amid some of Florida's finest scenery. During their trip the girls walked through jungle trails bordered by huge Royal Palms, saw hundreds of different tropical plants, and watched bees actually make honey.

Lansing—back in 1883 there were only 103,000 children attending school in Michigan. Today the Michigan Education Association reports that there are 1,388,222 children in school.

lough in Gross Pointe.

Muriel Trippensee went out to a bird feeding station as usual a week ago Tuesday after the first snow storm. She had just given her a big drink of sugar and water and was taking blood samples every half hour—a glucose tolerance test. Jimmy has been home for spring vacation and makes a daily visit to the hospital to see his mother. Tamar went to the hospital with an Allport Hassamite for her spring vacation.

Twenty-three couples attended the spring dinner dance at the Forest Lake Country Club Saturday night. Although not a large group all had a wonderful time.

THE PANCAKE supper put on by the Boy Scouts at the Franklin Community Church Friday night was a huge success. About 700 were there to enjoy the wonderful pancakes with original Vermont maple syrup. Of course there were sausages and fish sticks, apple sauce and cottage cheese plus sherbet for desert for those who could eat more than all the pancakes they wanted. Six Explorer Scouts were kept very busy teaching dishes to keep up with such a big crowd.

Denise Krider's 6th birthday was Friday, but it was celebrated on Saturday. Linda Downen, Susie Reader, Claudia McDermid, Barbara and Christine Ambrose came over for lunch. After lunch Denise opened her exciting packages, then Marge took them down to United Artists to Sleeping Beauty. Refreshments after the show and the trip home completed a happy day for Denise!

Enrolled for Spring Term at Mich. State. James Ralston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ralston, 2285 Mayfield, Farmington, will leave on Monday for Michigan State University where he will enroll for the spring term. Ralston will major in communication arts.

Michigan Education Association's executive secretary, Dr. E. Dale Kennedy, is only the third person to hold this position since 1922. In that year Ernest T. Cameron was named the first executive secretary. Dr. A. Phillips held the position from 1936 until 1953.
