Wandering Thru Woodbine Sub.

LOIS HOELSCHER
GR. 4-0460

The Easter bunny was kept busy in Woodbine on Sunday. He left a lovely Easter egg tree for Billy Immekus on the front of the Immekus' home on Briar Hill. He also went calling on several Woodbine youngsters in the early afternoon. Jerry Orlikowski, dressed in a lovely yellow rabbit suit took jelly beans and goodies around to the Ely, Begians, Fritz, Donovans, and Hoelschers, and the kids really thought he was wonderful. Margot and Walter Theilemann held an easter egg hunt and some of the neighbors' children joined in the fun.

Betty and Heinie Blome had lots of company for Easter. Betty's mother, Mrs. Michaud, came to visit from Toledo, Ohio, and her brother, William Michaud, and his family also came from Monroe, Michigan.

JIM CHELLMAN, a student at Houghton College of Engineering and Mining, has been home for spring vacation. He will return to school this week.

Your reporter is quite late in reporting the birth of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fody's new baby. She was born on Feb. 12th and was baptized at Our Lady of Sorrows three weeks ago. Her name is Therese Anne and she weighed 7 lbs. 9 ounces at birth. She is number five at the Fody home. Mom and pop were delighted to have their second girl.

DEBBIE NAGEL celebrated her birthday last week and I think that most of the children in the subdivision attended her party. Billy Hall, Dale Begian, Jimmy Trick, Brian Kiley, Danny Kayko, Danny Blome, David Haffey, Judy Hilliard, Suzy Fritz, Loren and Mark Tamsen, Yvonne and Christine Bunting, Jackie Sexton, Debbie Etapa, Barbara Brosch, Kathy Prescott, and Billy Hoelscher were all invited and helped to play all the Easter games that were planned.

March 23rd, which was the date of Debbie's birthday was also the sixth anniversary of Cinerama, downtown Detroit, and they had a contest for all children born that day to chose a king and queen of Cinerama. Debbie entered the contest and was one of the runners-up for the title. All the Nagels received free tickets to see the show that evening and they all enjoyed a piece of the huge birthday cake they had at the show.

TROOP 986 of the Girl Scouts has been going swimming every Saturday recently at Bentley High School. Pat Nagel and Linda Harris belong to the troop and Jean Nagel is co-leader.

Betty Miller's mother, Mrs. Elsie Hanes, has been very seriously ill for the past several months and at present she is in Detroit Memorial Hospital. Monday she received five pints of blood and she is going to need more quite regularly. If anyone in the subdivision is interested, the Miller family would really appreciate it if you could donate some blood to the Red Cross in Mrs. Hanes' name. If you feel you could do this please call me and I will give all the information in regards to time and place.

MRS. RUSS SNIDER'S mother, Mrs. Bessie McAlister, came to live with the Sniders recently. She was here only two days when she slipped and fell in the living room and broke her hip, and had to be taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac.

Bobby Ely is enjoying a short visit from his two cousins during the Easter vacation. Gary and Merrilynn Spink are staying at the Elys for a few days.

Sharon Hodges, who is a senior at Farmington High School, was recently honored at a DAR doings. She was awarded a citizenship award by the group.

3 Taking Part In Coming Play

Mrs. Roy Brown of Farmington and her daughter, Penny, are both involved in the Junior Ridgedale Theater production, "The Magic Apple," by Glenn Hughes, being presented at the Ridgedale Playhouse, 8501 West Ten Mile Road, Saturday and Sunday, April 11 and 12, at 2 p.m.

"The Magic Apple," a comedy with music, includes in its cast Penny Brown as a fairy and Duane Potter, also of Farmington, as a soldier. Duane is the son of Mrs. Bob Potter who is the off-stage supervisor for the play.

Mrs. Brown is chairman of the Junior Ridgedale Theater committee.

Bel-Aire Hills News

Sally Witt
GR. 6-0733

Easter arrived very early in the majority of Bel-Aire homes. Young ones, who conspired to stay up as long as possible Saturday evening, arose bright-eyed and chipper Sunday morning! Parents arose wondering how the children could do it! Highlights of the customary Easter hunts were the decorated eggs and the baskets overflowing with chocolate bunnies, jelly beans and other goodies that were "not to be eaten before breakfast." Grand weather enabled Bel-Aire to view its own Easter parade—the boys and girls in their finery looked as though they had just stepped off Fifth Avenue. Entertaining dinner guests and family get-togethers was how most everyone spent their Easter Day.

SUNDAY GUESTS for dinner and the day at the home of Ken and Kay Ockerman of Lamar were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bonnewitz of Detroit.

Carl and Marlene Brodie of Marblehead entertained Carl's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Brodie, Sr., of Washington, D. C., Easter Sunday. The grandparents were thrilled to see the Brodie children, Debbie, 5; Carl, 4; Steve, 2; and Matt, 8 months, and took moving pictures as a remembrance of the day.

Week end guets at the home of Miles and Greta Tiernan of Lamar were Greta's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Peterson from Indianapolis, Indiana.

An annual Good Friday event at the home of Sherrie Hill of Leelane is a luncheon with her former co-workers, Rena Snelser and Pattie Corace, as guests. Sherrie, who left the Ford Motor Company in Highland Park over four years ago, looks forward to this once-a-year visit from the girls she used to work with.

DRIVING OUT Saturday evening was enjoyed by Carl and Rosemary Fitzpatrick of Folkstone and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mytnik of Warner Farms. A special treat was catching the act of the "Tailgate Ramblers" who were playing at Bakers—the trumpeter and the trombonist of the "Ramblers" were members of the band who played for the recent Minstrel Show.

Proudly announcing No. 5 are Wally and Rita Brenz of Lamar. Mary Louise arrived March 2, and tipped the scales at eight pounds, six and one-half ounces. She was greeted at home by Debbie, 7; Jimmy, 4; Greg, 3; and Teri Lyn, 2½.

Carl Brodie of Marblehead recently spent a week end in Washington, D. C., attending a convention of the National Riflemen's Association. One of the purposes of the convention was to elect officials. Other interesting highlights of the convention were the various displays of guns and new and up-to-date equipment. This convention was of particular interest to such an avid hunter as Carl.

Shrine Stag Night April 9

Only two more Stag Nites remain for the Farmington Shrine Club, officials noted in urging all members to attend this week.

The next to the last will be held next Thursday, April 9, at the usual Shrine Club meeting place — Guffin's Frontier Town.

Entertainment during the evening will include a movie on big game hunting and a performance by likeable Butch Miller in a return engagement.

Cocktails will be served from 7 to 8 p.m. with dinner being served promptly at 8 o'clock.

To make reservations call Russ Ellis at GR 6-1700.

The Shrine Club crippled children's committee is hard at work but can only help if the people of Farmington report cases they know of to the committee, an official spokesman for the club said. You are asked to contact any member of the club if you know of a crippled child case.

With College's Symphony Band

Miss Gretchen B. VanCamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce VanCamp of 29700 Belfast, will tour with the Albion college symphonic band the week of April 12, when, under the direction of Conductor Ralph G. Long, the band will meet specially arranged concert engagements in high schools in Michigan.

Its program will include selections by Sousa, Dvorak, Grieg, Latham, Handel, Cavez, Holst, Gershwin, Howard Hanson and others. Miss VanCamp, who will play in the flute section, is a freshman at Albion college.
