Public "Thanks" Dear Sir: Judging from the great number of worshippers attending the Tre-Ore Service Good Friday at Salem United Church of Christ, such a service filled a great need in our community. We are indebted to the six clergymen and the other participants for a most beautifully presented program of worship.

My family thanks the Farmington Enterprises for the opportunity of publicly expressing our appreciation to those responsible for this wonderful united community service.

Sincerely, Mrs. Edgar Mosshamer 34032 Moore Drive Farmington.

Have you seen our sports editor's crystal ball in action? Our Detroit Times sports editor slyly claims he owns a crystal ball. And you might almost believe him if you caught his year-old prediction of the Terry Brennan firing on the Detroit Times Sports Pages. Remember? It was in September 1957 that Ed Hayes told you that Terry Brennan would be through as Notre Dame's football coach after his next losing season... that his replacement would be the Washington Redskins' Joe Kuharich. And that's exactly what happened in December 1958! We think you'll agree... it doesn't much matter whether a crystal ball or an undisclosed inside source was behind this story! The point is... you can expect intriguing forecasting and honest reporting when you read the Times Sports Section. Keep your eye on the TIMES!
