Falcon Thindlads Win Easily Over S'field in League Opener

Led by Warren's Cliff Cawley, the Farmington Falcons took little trouble in coping with first league track meet of the season over Southfield last Thursday, 61-14 1/2-14 1/2. Cawley took flight with ease in both the 120 yard high hurdles and 180 yard high hurdles, to also run as anchorman on the 800 yard relay team with Agnes, Roy Jordan, and Tom Grimshaw — which outran the Bluejays in a time of 1:34.3 minutes.

Cawley Wins 2 Events At Midwest Track Meet

Although he didn't set the national high school records, he did hope to, Rex Cawley displayed his record-breaking form well enough in the Mansfield (Ohio) Relays Saturday to capture two events and set new records.

Troop 109 Has Court of Honors

Scout Troop 109 held its Spring Court of Honors potluck banquet on Tuesday, April 14, at the American Legion Hall at which time several awards were presented with awards.

OLS Lancers Edged 3-2

The Lancers of Our Lady of Sorrows lost a heartbreaker on cold Monday afternoon, 3-2. Their opponents St. Mary's of Wayne managed to score a run lead in the 35th inning on a single, a walk and a bloop single to right field. Both teams scored a single run in the 36th inning. Our Lady of Sorrows added a run in the 6th inning and had the tying run on 3rd, but were unable to push it across.

Barton and Allen were the batteries for St. Mary's allowing five hits and striking out eight. MacLean pitched for the Lancers, allowing five hits and striking out 12. Al Davis and Mike Sutter led the Sorrows at bat with two hits apiece.
