Kendallwood News Bits

MRS. EDWARD COVE
GR. 4-6769

Jack Kindree, chairman of the Kendallwood Farms Association Youth Committee, announces a hayride party for Kendallwood II and Kendallwood III junior and senior high school students. The party has been planned for this Saturday evening, May 16, from 7:30 p.m. to midnight. Tickets will be picked up at McWilliams Farm, until 10:30 p.m. Donations will be asked for, 100 tickets available from any of the following students: representatives: Mary Margineau, 33015 Heartstone, GR. 4-8959; Patrick Kirk; Bob Drummond; Larry VanAmeyde, 32003 Bonchell, GR. 4-0957; Frank Sinatra, 2222 Ridgebrook, GR. 4-0799.

TUE WEEKEND of April 21, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Copperman from Sans Souci were house guests of their friends, George and family at the Lou Cracay home on Green Willow Rd. Highlight of their visit was the chaperoning of their newest granddaughters, Miss Louise Cracay, by Father Frank of St. Fabian's parish on Sunday, April 23. Holly was born on March 24.

It was reported that the empty property at Heartstone and Jaytree has become an eyesore from continually being used as a convenient dumping ground. Residents are protesting the community appearance the Trebble family who reside on the lot next to it are especially annoyed by its condition and, naturally, rightly so. "Dumpsters" are asked to be considerate and dispose of their debris through proper channels.

David Curtner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtner of Green Willow Rd., arrived home last week from the hospital which he entered the week of April 22 for the treatment of an infection and pneumonia.

Wednesday, May 6, Mrs. Paul Tocco of Green Willow Rd. returned home after spending six days in Detroit Memorial Hospital.

Jeanna Odershaw was hostess for her monthly bridge group at her home on Peppermill Monday afternoon, May 4.

The Kendallwood I Thursday afternoon bridge club were the guests of Bob Zimmerman on Bayberry last week.

Despite weariness of a full day's yard work, Green Willow neighbors managed to play four rounds of bridge Saturday evening, May 9, at the monthly meeting of their couple's bridge club. Hosts were Margaret and Ed Columbia.

Marsha and Jim Wyatt and children, Michael 12, Dennis 8 and Mary 9 months, are renting the former West home on Farmington Road while awaiting the completion of their new house on Craftsburg in Kendallwood III. It is expected to be finished by May 15.

Pharmidists sincerely believe, that the practice of medicine requires much knowledge, continuous study and a sincere desire to benefit the patient. Therefore, no one should be allowed to advise people who are sick except a physician.

Unfortunately, we have laymen, with no medical training, wearing white jacket to simulate a physician, who by means of television and other advertising, presume to tell you what to take when you are sick. Some of the remedies they promote offer only temporary relief. Be wise. Depend on your physician and the specific medicine he will prescribe for your particular condition.
