

Will Re-Visit Ohio College

Mrs. Frank Stevens, 3515 Gary Drive, Farmington, will be in Oxford, Ohio, this Saturday, May 30, to attend her class reunion during Alumni Day at Western College for Women.

Events for the day included, in addition to the reunions, a meeting of the Western Alumnae Association, a chapel service, and a traditional banquet. Alumni Day is part of the Commencement Weekend which ends Monday morning with graduation exercises.

Fountain pens were first made commercially in 1805.

Upholstery Is Extension Topic

Upholstery was the lesson to be given at the May 20 meeting of the Farmington Home Economics Extension Club held at the home of Mrs. Robert Sumner.

Group chairman was Mrs. Frank Platz with Mrs. C. Meyers and Mrs. P. Dickinson presenting the lesson.

An Otoman was brought to the meeting by the leaders. They had worked on it together at an upholstery class in Belleville. They explained the method used in making it.

At the meeting new officers were chosen. They were: Mrs. C. Meyers, president; Mrs. L. Platz, secretary; Mrs. William Brown, treasurer; Mrs. F. Platz, reporter; Mrs. E. Marks, community and recreation; Mrs. H. McCague, literary; Mrs. P. Dickinson, marketing; and Mrs. E. Rozenboom, fashion leader.

On June 9 and 10 a craft school will be held.

The next regular meeting of the club is scheduled for June 17.

"Tis motive exalts the action."

Kenbrook PTA Hears Reports, Has Installation

Tuesday May 19, Glen Huber, past president of the Kenbrook PTA, installed new officers for the coming year.

After the installation of officers, Mrs. Seidel, Kenbrook School principal, thanked Huber for his fine work in the past year and presented him with a PTA past president's pin.

Don Blau, treasurer, and Albert Katzer, fund-raising chairman, reported that the class pictures made a profit of $117.00, which was considerably over what they had expected to sponsor.

Mrs. Joy, teacher-representative, gave the 42nd Annual State PTA Convention, gave a resume of the happenings and accomplishments of the convention.

She stated that she, along with the other 2,344 delegates, learned many valuable facts which will help them in making the schools and communities a better place to live.

The Farmington area was pointed out as one of the more progressive school districts, she commented.

Mrs. Lingner, representative of the Bluebirds, gave a resume of the duties and responsibilities of a sponsoring group. After hearing about the good things that are accomplished by the Brownies and Bluebirds, the group, as a whole, voted to sponsor one Bluebird group and four Brownie groups. This sponsorship will commence in the fall.

Any members of the PTA interested in working with Brownies or Bluebirds, are asked to get in touch with new president Soeren Gorman, GR. 4-2951.

THIS YEAR'S Michigan Week theme, "Products of Michigan," arouses the interest of a Michigan State University coed in some of the early day Michigan products.

On display at the U.S.U. Museum, Miss Virginia L. Nelson, on display at the U.S.U. Museum, 2825 Millbrook Drive, Farmington, examines the nation's earliest commercially manufactured fishing lure, a bass plug first produced in 1894 by James H. Dowditch. The lure, still produced today, became so famous that veteran southern anglers still speak of plug fishing as "Dowditching."

Games Highlight Big Springland, LaMuera Picnic

Approximately 100 residents from Springland and LaMuera subdivisions attended a picnic at the Kensington Park Recreation Area on Sunday.

Games for all ages were participated in by those in attendance. Donald McEachin, serving as games director.

For the youngsters there was a bubble gum blowing contest, racing games with both feet confined to the inside of the shoes.

(Winning the husband calling contest was Betty Danks. She had some real strong competition from several other women, however, Bill Ward showed the greatest ability to balance cotton on his nose after snoring it out of a paper plate held by his partner.)

The women sent their shoes flying high in the shoe kicking contest with Evelyn Seidel winning by a nose. Another event had the men, 15 in all, race to their spouses a distance of 25 yards to tread needles in their readiness for the men with the thread.

Later in the day the men played baseball and the women badminton.

The picnic was felt to be such a success that another is being planned in the near future.

Invited to Hear Emotional Child Authority Talk

An invitation has been extended to all area individuals and club members to attend a talk by Dr. H. Cromly, Director of the Children's Center of Metropolitan Detroit on June 5, at Northville State Hospital.

This is the bi-monthly program meeting of the Hawthorn and Northville Chapters of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children which starts at 8:00 p.m.

This association has as its aim the promotion of better understanding of the problems of emotionally disturbed children. The Hawthorn and Northville Chapters have provided much assistance to the program at Hawthorn Center and Northville State Hospital.

General information about the group activities may be obtained from Mrs. Yetta Melton, LI-3-6912.

Plan Fireworks At Walled Lake

Spectacular fireworks will highlight Decoration Day festivities at Walled Lake Park on Saturday, May 30.

The park will be in full operation featuring an almost unlimited assortment of thrill rides including the kiddie ride wonderland.

Also operating will be the park's fleet of speed boats and the new sand beach and remodelled bath house.

Quoting enthusiasts will find the finest picnic facilities to be found anywhere in Walled Lake Park's spacious twin picnic gardens, which features an excellent baseball diamond and other recreational equipment.

Local favorites, Fred Metting and his orchestra will be playing for dancing in Walled Lake Casino Ballroom on Friday and Saturday, May 29 and 30, with name bands and entertaining attractions in the country scheduled for each Friday and Saturday throughout the summer season.

Cville School Map Changing

The Clarencville School District is now making plans to reorganize present boundaries in the district to permit the transfer of students to the new elementary school which will be built on Louise near Pembroke.

The approximate area which will be served by the new school will extend from Sunset east to Parkville and from Grand River south to Seton Mile Rd. school officials said.

When school starts in the fall, elementary pupils in this area will be housed in a section of the new high school building until such time as occupancy of the new elementary school is possible.
